DEDICATION

We, the Class of 1985, dedicate this edition of SACHEM to our Class Advisors: Mrs. Frances Pandaia and Miss Nancy DeCarlo. We deeply appreciate the many hours they have devoted to our various class activities and projects. Without their assistance, support, and dedication our class would not have had such an enjoyable and memorable high school experience. All of us sincerely thank them for all their patience, guidance, and understanding.

PRINCIPALS

FRANK RIGGS
Principal

To The Class of 1985:

I salute you and offer my sincere congratulations to you. Rather than considering your graduation a milestone in your life, I would like you to think of it as a stepping stone. For now you step out into the future which holds endless possibilities for you.

You have heard it said many times that the future is in your hands. You will be moulding not only your own, but also the future for the world we live in. This is indeed a challenge, but one I feel certain that you, and the thousands like you all over the world, will meet and successfully conquer. Your lives will be filled with successes and some failures. Enjoy your achievements, work hard to overcome your failures, and remember to keep interested in your career, however humble it is, for it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time. Whatever your future plans may be, keep peace in your soul. With all its sham, drudgery, and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world. Be cheerful; strive to be happy. My best to each one of you.

Sincerely,

Frank Riggs

IN MEMORIAM

LISA MARIE GIANNOTTI
1966-1983

I'm sure Lisa's death was difficult for all of us. But today, as we look back, we remember Lisa as a fun-loving, easy-going, and friendly person. I'm sure that we, the Class of 1985, will remember her in our thoughts and hearts as we leave North Haven High School to pursue our goals and our dreams. -Theresa Martin

The image is a graphic design featuring the words "SPECIAL FEATURES" repeated in a grid pattern. The text is arranged in a way that creates a sense of depth and repetition. A large, diagonal, stylized banner, also containing the words "SPECIAL FEATURES", cuts across the center of the image. The banner has a thick, dark border and a lighter interior where the text is placed. The overall effect is one of a layered, three-dimensional text composition. The background is a solid, light gray color. The text is in a bold, sans-serif font, with the letters appearing slightly shadowed or embossed. The diagonal banner is a prominent visual element, drawing the eye across the frame. The repetition of the words "SPECIAL FEATURES" creates a rhythmic pattern that is both visually and conceptually engaging. The design is minimalist yet impactful, using typography and geometric shapes to create a strong visual statement. The use of a diagonal banner adds a dynamic element to the composition, breaking the static nature of the grid. The overall aesthetic is modern and clean, with a focus on the interplay of text and form. The design is well-balanced and visually appealing, making it an effective tool for communication. The repetition of the words "SPECIAL FEATURES" is a key element of the design, emphasizing the importance of the text and creating a memorable visual experience. The diagonal banner serves as a focal point, highlighting the central theme of the design. The overall composition is a harmonious blend of text and graphics, resulting in a powerful and engaging visual message.

WE WERE

Last Will And Testament

We, The Class Of 1985, residing at North Haven High School in the town of North Haven, Connecticut, being of sometimes sound mind and body, do hereby make, publish, and declare this to be our Last Will and Testament:

- I, Joanne Cristiano, leave next year's Special Features Editor all the luck in the world with the Who's Who and the Underclassmen Pictures.
- I, Joanne Cristiano, leave Miss Cassidy my special thanks for being AFS Advisor and, especially, for being a friend.
- I, Suzanne Stone, leave the upcoming Senior Cheerleaders best wishes for a great year.
- I, Chris Petriccione of the Friday Jam, leave Mr. Terenzio our favorite song "Children of the Sea" by BLACK SABBATH.
- I, Angelo, leave Mrs. Trapani all my excuses for sleeping late and all my demerit slips.
- I, Edward H. Reinholtz, leave my computer-genius friend, Mr. Bonito, all my ideas, programs, and disks to use in addressing future classes.
- I, Stephanie Osmun, leave all my love and thanks to Steve, Beth, and Jane for making my high school life bearable.
- I, Suzanne Marfiak, leave Mr. Ricker all my problems which he never solved — only kidding!
- I, Edward H. Reinholtz, leave my computer-genius friend, Mr. Bonito, all my ideas, programs, and disks to use in addressing future classes.
- I, Gina Falcigno, leave Gina and Kelly all the luck they need in making North Haven Volleyball #1 again — have fun!
- I, Diane, leave Frank the directions on how to get to the bank and how to use the phone book.
- I, Gina Falcigno, leave Miss Dolan absolutely nothing because I refuse to leave — ever!
- I, Diane, leave here knowing how to pronounce Lex Luther properly.
- I, Raffaella Riccitelli, leave my cousin Joe Riccitelli, with the hope (he needs it!) to graduate in '86.
- I, J.B., leave to D.T. all the unforgettable memories of B.S., S.B., G.T., R.S., and C.M.
- I, Lena, leave all my teachers with silence in their classes.
- I, Lena, leave my nephew Troy and my niece Linda with all my valuables.
- I, Paul Colella, leave to Dawn DeMatteo and Alexandra DellaCamera a one-year supply of library passes.
- I, Paul Colella, leave to Michelle DeMartino a book on how to get straight A's in Accounting the easy way.
- I, Todd DellaCamera, leave to my sister all the great times she will share with her friends in her senior year.
- I, Amy Morrissey, leave all the good times I shared with all my friends at NHHS to any little sophomore who thinks he can top them.
- I, Mark Kankel, leave Bobby Wang one of my favorite songs — "Wango Tango."
- I, Mark Kankel, leave Gina Gonsalves an empty house so she can have all the parties she wants without getting in trouble.
- I, Debbie, leave all the fun to be experienced in high school to my cousin Danny.
- I, Christine, leave to Mr. T. one clean blackboard, one solid wall, some great memories, and thanks.
- I, Stan Pliszka, leave to all my friends my love for being so nice the past two years and for knowing what to do when you feel bad.
- I, Stan Pliszka, leave a thank you to Joanne Santello, Alice Christoforo, Michelle Baldo, and Sue Carras for always looking nice each and every day.
- I, Jonathan Ayers, leave as quickly as possible.
- I, Jessica Iannone, leave North Haven High School happily knowing that I will never have to return to it.
- I, Jessica Iannone [a dedicated Graphic Arts student], leave Mr. Schatzlein a new Multith Press with a different personality because the one that he now has doesn't like people.
- I, Robin, leave my sister all my good grades — she'll need them.
- I, Dina Keyte, leave Mr. Terenzio the best of luck because of our big "orded!"
- I, Lisa Carbone, leave Nina Chiaia behind for another year at North Haven High.
- I, Susan Sudnickas, leave Stephanie Osmun all the big egos she wants and the song "Drive."
- I, Stephanie Osmun, leave Beth Emerson the Golden Goose.
- I, Kevin Frost, leave to Mr. DeMayo all the games I helped him win including the scrimmages.
- I, Mary-Jo Brigante, leave Miss Dolan all my "assets."
- I, Julie Gomes, leave Tina Romano and Stacey Ewchuk my war boots.
- I, Mark Proietto, leave all of my unfinished English assignments and my folder to Mrs. Panaia and SCAF.
- I, Mark Proietto, leave all of my A-5 late passes to Ms. Lesnick.
- I, Maria, leave Miss Dolan with the memory of the field trip we took on Nov. 8, 1984.
- I, Frank Tropeano, leave Mr. Grove the front of his class, my notebook, and all of his self-explanatory questions.
- I, Lenny Guercia, leave Miss Ruffolo "More on this later!"
- I, Laura Kay, leave Little Woman, Mrs. Buturla, the research paper she never did find and the simlac which I couldn't find for her.
- I, Sharon Esposito, leave to Michelle Reilly the summer of 1984 and the best of luck in the future.
- I, Sharon Esposito, leave to Claudia and Cristie thanks for always being there when I needed you.
- I, P.J. Morgan, leave this advice to all the kids who aren't going to get out of this school — leave while you can.
- I, Joanne Santello, leave to my many treasured friends the great memories of our past years of high school and the fun times of our past two summers.
- I, Matthew Myjak, leave this school to my brother who will be a sophomore next year.
- I, Dina Pisani, leave Miss Ruffolo a flying missile to Ellen's desk.
- I, Alice Christoforo, leave to all my teachers my sincere admiration, respect, and grateful thanks.
- I, Claudia DeMarini, leave behind my true friend, Karen Amellin, and challenge anyone who thinks she has a better friend.
- I, Claudia DeMarini, leave Andy Burke a case of pens so that he will be well stocked for his future.
- I, Karen Amellin, leave "special" thanks and love to my parents.
- I, Karen Amellin, leave Mr. DeMayo all my sarcastic remarks in case someone doesn't take my place.
- I, P.J. Morgan, leave this school all my trophies and awards in the glass case for everyone to see.
- I, Michele Baldo, leave Mrs. Sbabo, Mr. Luther, and Mr. Grove with the thought that they will never again have to hear me say, "I don't understand what we're doing; can you please explain?"
- I, Jodi Rubino, leave Lisa Sheideker a bottle of RC Cola, hoping that someday she will finish the whole thing!
- I, Dawn Gelo, leave my mother my undying gratitude for all her love and support throughout my high school years.
- I, Dan-a B period math student — leave Andrea, a fellow B period math student, all my baked goods and candy.
- I, Bill Buehler, leave this place with my head held high and no regrets.
- I, John Franken, leave Dave Ciulla, Mike Pace, and the rest of the "Moral Majority" with confidence that the liberal college campus will dramatically alter their views toward normality.
- I, Nancy, leave Tracey's sister, Sheryl, in relief that she'll never have to wait for me ever again.
- I, Dina Keyte, leave Mr. Schatzlein all the headaches of teaching me everything over again because I didn't learn it last year when Ron was in my class.
- I, Mike Nappé, leave Jeff Haag my A period free so he can go to McDonald's for breakfast.
- I, Mike Nappé, leave Mrs. Schonberger twelve free piano lessons.
- I, Sonia, leave to my sister Cynthia the hope that she finds two best friends like the ones I found in Nancy and Liz.
- I, Sandy, leave North Haven High School with special thanks to my parents.
- I, Bunner, leave Kwes the Waldbaum Woogie (down the produce aisle at midnight with T. M. and Cabbage Patch).
- I, Amy Brenner, leave Mr. Manjuck "The Impossible Dream" — 3 years of Project Adventure!
- I, Scott Morcaldi, leave all the "good answers" that were aimed at people with dumb questions.
- I, Andy Koutroumanis, leave the name Gummi Bear to anyone who wants to be humiliated as much as I have been.
- I, Dana Thompson, leave Kerry McKeon with a ball machine so she won't have to find a new driving partner next year and the knowledge that our laughter and tears of field hockey will never be forgotten.
- I, D. T. leave, J.K., J.B. and T.P., with the memories of hand in the desk, sub at the door, and no pocketbook to be found.
- I, Beth Emerson, leave Jane Lamb the first bell.
- I, Beth Emerson, leave Stephanie Osmun the Golden Goose.
- I, Jane A. Lamb, leave Beth Emerson the second bell and all the good times we shared throughout our years together.
- I, Julie Gomes, leave next year's NHHS Volleyball Team the words "Go for it!"
- I, Sailesh Atluru, leave my brother, Raj, the Presidency and all its headaches.
- I, Jane A. Lamb, leave Sue Sudnickas a big pile of leaves.
- I, Roy Haynes, leave Tara Rawlik a ride home from a football game.
- I, Elizabeth, leave Miss Dolan a life-sized poster of our mutual friend, Tom.
- I, Dizz, leave Mr. Dean my undying gratitude for indelibly marking my life with this confounded nickname.
- I, Suzy, leave Mrs. Buturla an official major league umpire to count the strikes and my thanks for being a friend.
- I, Chris Carazo, leave Gina Gonsalves a memory of all the boy-girl questions we asked each other during lunch.
- I, Nadine Sansone, leave Eddie Borsari hugs, kisses, and lots of love for being a part of my senior year and making it so special.
- I, Tom Downing, leave John Franken my sympathy over Mondale's excruciating defeat in '84.
- I, N. S., leave J. C. a bib and rattle for all the times I babysat for him this year in art class.
- I, Suzanne Stone, leave Susie pet, Sebbie, and Kris Mo "Big Money."
- I, Liz, leave to anyone who can find them two better friends than Sonia and Nancy.
- I, John Brandt, leave M.B., M.C., S.M., and D.M., all the great times we've had and let's keep them going, fellas!
- I, Dan Murphy, leave to all my friends, especially Karen and Claudia, my pens and calculators.
- I, David Criscuolo, leave all my craziness to Gene Criscuolo.
- I, David Criscuolo, leave all of my love to Judy Palumbo.
- I, Tom Helbig, leave a certain girl my "hellos" in the lunch waves.
- I, Mark Richard Bissell, leave my unused Bic razors to Mr. Fiore, who needs them more than I do.
- I, Joe Guardo, leave the saying "Thank you" to Ciro DeFlora.
- I, Joe Guardo, leave any poor soul who gets Mr. Caruth my last-minute projects, especially my mask.
- I, Matthew Myjak, leave my Boorstin to Mr. Dodds, wherever he is.
- I, Nancy Peach, leave Mr. Reed and Mr. Nigro invitations to my wedding (some day) to prove to them that I CAN be on time!
- I, John Poulin, leave my innumerable amount of demerits to my favorite principal, Mrs. Trapani.
- I, Jim Thompson, leave John Tirro to Mr. Caruth and Mrs. Buturla.
- I, Alexander L. Bozzi, IV, leave my sympathies to all the people who voted for Mondale, especially John Franken — it was an agonizing defeat!
- I, Scott Morcaldi, leave my socks to somebody who can appreciate them.
- I, Marci Adler, Statistician, leave the North Haven Varsity Baseball team and Mr. Demayo all the comments, jokes, and pranks that they put me through and my thanks.
- I, Mark Richard Bissell, leave my favorite English teacher, Mr. Thompson, with three final words ---- Rest In Peace.

I, Alice Christoforo, leave Mr. Burns a deserved sabbatical year and a pair of goggles for his once-a-season plunge.
 I, J.B., leave to Mr. Scimone an over abundance of significant digits.
 I, Gina Mortali, leave all of my late passes to no one because I am the last in line of the latecomers.
 I, Rosemary, leave behind all the good times, which came and went, as the year went by.
 I, Gary Cacace, leave Mrs. Pinto a new car because hers will probably die by the end of the year.
 I, Rosemary, leave Mrs. Iannone all my E and G periods in order to make up the thirty-somethin' classes I missed.
 I, Andrea Randlett, leave Dana Andrews all my smiles and laughter because he was the one who gave me something to smile about.
 I, Claudia DePascale, leave my thanks to Sharon and Cristie for being my best friends.
 I, Valerie Rawling, leave Lucy DiBrida and Janet Mungiguerra all the headaches and close calls they have suffered from my driving!
 We, Beth, Steve, and Jane, leave Mrs. Pinto anyone who can top our theatre activity.
 We, Paula Piscitelli, Lorian Rosano, and Maura Faherty leave to our favorite Office Technology teacher, Mrs. Iannone, our ability to always make it to class and always be there to brighten her day.
 We, Dina, Eileen, Ellen, and Sabrina, leave the class of '86 a can of spray paint to carry on the tradition.
 We, Michele Baldo and Gina Mortali, leave the North Haven High Football Team to any girls who think they can "support" it as well as we did.
 We, Chele and Suez, leave the Music Department with the saddening thought that they will never again encounter another pair quite like us!
 We, The Chorus, leave "Ma" with the lingering sounds of all those "mystery notes" for you have to admit we made BEAUTIFUL music together!
 We, Angel and Trouble, leave Mr. Bradanini any two girls who can top our mischief in his class.
 We, Stacey and Maria, leave Mr. Bonito all the fun and trouble we have caused.
 We, S.A., M.J., J.C., and L.W., leave all future graduating classes all the good memories we had here.
 We, Kevin, Jim, Brian, Phil, Tony, and Dave, leave Mr. Caruth the sick memories of our G period class two years ago.
 We, Miss Ruffolo's first period English Class, leave Jeremy Witt alone.
 We, the D period English Class, leave Mr. Thompson with the hope that next year his D period class is what he's always hoped for — peace and quiet.
 We, Nina Chiaia and Lisa Carbone, leave North Haven High School with pleasure, hoping that Nina graduates.
 We, Sue and Linda, leave Miss Ruffolo a sizable amount of paper — little did she know we took all of hers to write notes during class!
 We, Claudia, Sharon, Tina and Sandi, leave Mr. Antonelli the luck to find four students as good as we were.
 We, Mr. Thompson's D Period Class, leave all the kids an "F" for getting thrown out of class!
 We, Brandie, Jodi, and Linda, leave happily!
 We, the Period B Math IV Class, leave Mr. Dean our utmost gratitude for broadening our understanding of ethnic cultures.
 We, Dina, Eileen, Sabrina, Ellen, leave the past and future wombats a Vogue magazine for some fashion tips.
 We, Tom, Jon, and Ogre, leave Mr. Terenzio a great golf score — it's the only one he'll ever have!
 We, Marci Adler, Melissa Temple, and Andrea Randlett, leave our friendship and rodent laugh to the High School — may we never be forgotten.
 We, Sonia, Liz, and Dana, leave our B period free té parties to whoever can consume as much as we did.
 We, Jimmy Celentano and Nadine Sansone, leave Mrs. Canter's A period class PACKED FUDGE!
 We, Sailesh, Todd, Kris, Jon, and Jim leave the silver mug, the brown hat, the East Campus desk, and good report cards to anyone who can get good grades and have a great time doing it as we did.
 We, Madonna and Cinderella, leave all the dirty looks and nasty comments thrown our way to the next two people who are lucky enough to get them.
 We, Chris Carazo and Frank Tropeano, leave Bob Tencza and Perry Pausig the memory of all the medals we earned while they coached us.

 We, Andrea Randlett and Marci Adler, leave Mrs. Schonberger her trip to Bermuda in hopes that she may get there someday.
 We, Linda and Laura, the future accountants, leave two bags of Skittles to Mr. Nigro's Accounting II students who arrive late to his class daily!
 We, Rob C., Gary C., Steve H., and Andy B., leave Mr. Reed a year's supply of his favorite beverage and topic.
 We, Nadine and Dawn, leave Dot and Elda gum, gum, gum, gum, gum, gum, gum, and more gum.
 We, Steve Dest and Tom Helbig, leave Lisa and Chris all the sick times we had together in and out of school.
 We, Liz and Nancy, leave to anyone who could show such devotion to a cause as we did.
 We, Kristyn, Amy, and Linda, leave behind us all our memories of barkers, woofers, and chunks — oh, my!
 We, Jon, Kris, and Debbie, leave to Chris and Chele one half of our sales floor bonuses — and no more!
 We, Pam and Robin, leave Sonita our library table to continue the tradition — use it in good health!
 We, Gina Falcigno and Debbie Morgan, leave all future PHOENIX editors a bottle of aspirin for ALL the headaches to be encountered!
 We, Traci Kwesell and John Tirro, leave all the fun that can be found in high school to anyone smart enough to look for it.
 We, Lorian Rosano and Maura Faherty, leave our big mouths to anyone who wants them.
 We, John Tirro and Dana Tofig, leave Mrs. Schonberger a metronome — maybe it would help and thanks for three years full of song.
 We, Elizabeth and Suzy, leave Mrs. D. all our "problems", undropped batons, and a large newly-invented Vocabulary list and our thanks.
 We, The AP Biology Class, leave gas masks to those students planning to take this course in order to protect them against trajectory babler ions which they will encounter once they enter the electro-babionic field (Room 708).
 We, Gina Mortali and Michele Baldo, leave Coach DeMayo a new vocabulary to use for the next three years of coaching Varsity Football games.
 We, Elaine DellaCamera, Sharon Palmieri, and Cathy DeMartino, leave all our loud comments made in class to Mr. Brown.
 We, Kevin Frost and Chris Carazo, leave to all the aides the excuse that we were going to guidance, so we could go to our lockers in C hall, at least three times a period.
 We, Nancy and Tracey, leave the Girls Soccer Team with the slim chance of ever finding a goalie and converted right wing to equal our unquestionable superiority.
 We, Tom, Nancy, John and Shay, leave Fran P. and Nancy D. a perverted joke book to keep them at the same warped level as they were when we left.
 We, A. F., D. M., and S. A. leave M. M. a helmet and one free driving lesson.
 We, Cathy DeMartino, Sharon Palmieri, and Elaine DellaCamera, leave all our cut slips to Mrs. Trapani.
 We, Dom and Lisa, leave our M & M wrappers to Mrs. Smith.
 We, Matt, Angelo, and Tom leave Mr. Reed our apologies for being late to Law EVERYDAY.
 We, Valerie, Janet, and Lucy, leave all of our craziness, endless laughter, and trips to McDonald's to Val's sister (Darlene) and her friends!
 We, Ellen O'Donnell and Dina Pisani, leave Mr. Luther a nautical tie and a handshake.
 We, Mike, Dave, Scott, Matt, and John, leave everyone the laughs and good times that we've shared at North Haven.
 We, Ellen, Dina, and Eileen, leave Mrs. Haynes a day of complete quiet.
 We, Beth and Barb, leave Marzena Szeniak that birthday present we never gave her but still makes her blush.
 We, Joanne Santello and Travis Sasser, leave our lockers to two people who think they can stand each other for three years after every period.
 We, Roy Haynes and Scott Marks, leave Miss Ruffolo's future classes the quote, "More of this LATER!"
 We, Nancy, Sonia, and Liz, leave North Haven High with a friendship we know will last forever!
 We, Worm, Wazool, Gummi Bear, Frosty, Mill, and Flips, leave Mr. Tencza knowing that he will never have another bunch like us.
 We, Andrea and Maribeth, leave Shay with memories of Chestnut Hill and being the best of friends.

We, The Class Of 1985, leave our sincere thanks and appreciation to everyone who has made our past four years at North Haven High School a happy and memorable time; and to all future classes of North Haven High School, we leave our sincere best wishes for a successful and unforgettable high school experience.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, We have hereunto set our hand and seal at North Haven High School, to this, our Last Will and Testament, this First day of June, in the year One Thousand Nine Hundred Eighty-Five.

Elaine C. Trapani

Elaine Trapani, Class Principal

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the Class of 1985, the testator aforesaid, in our presence as and for their Last Will and Testament; we hereunto subscribe our names as witnesses.

SENIOR FOLIO

Jessica Iannone

An entity onto itself
a living organ no less
the key to happiness
the heart holds much

My feelings are mixed
I wonder what you feel search your mind day and night
your head will reel

thoughtfulness, charm things to look for beautiful eyes, a cute smile
they speak for the heart

I hope for a kind word
a passing smile perhaps but nothing
I can still hope
that his heart will open up to me

I want to go to the city
the country, away
Anywhere
I want to travel, to see things to do things
To just get away from here
I need to escape, to run 'till
I'm free
I don't want life
To catch up with me
I may be running blind
chasing shadows, following dreams
But dreams never followed
don't lead anywhere
And I'll run until I find
A place I belong
There must be one somewhere

— Stephanie Osmun

PAST IMPERFECT

I know who I am
but not where I'm going.
Looking back on places
that I've been to,
the things that I've done.
I can see all the mistakes
I've already made in life ... and in love.

I hope to have gained
some good in all that wasn't,
to have learned
some talent to let me
still be me.

And most of all Know not to repeat
the errors of yesterdays gone by.
I may not know where I'm going,
but at least
I'll be facing tomorrow
one day wiser,
Twenty-four hours stronger,
and one step closer to the place I am destined to be.

— Angela Park

Did you ever take the time
To appreciate things around you?
Like a gentle summer breeze, for instance
If not, I think it's time that you do
The smell of grass that's just been cut
Or the air after a summer shower
The morning dew on the grass has a delicate look
And so does a newly bloomed flower
The feel of an ocean breeze through your hair
Or even sand in your shoes
Unlike the material things in life
These memories you will not lose
These feelings must be experienced
And I suggest you do make haste
For if you don't do these things once in your life
Then, my friend, your life was a waste.

— Stephanie Osmun

People of the world
wander aimlessly
to the beat
of an unknown song.

Dancing in the leaves
of the autumn afternoon,
the sun begins to set
behind the hills
as the music comes
to an end.

Keep the music going,
don't stop the beat.
The unknown song
must go on,
to keep the people moving,
to keep the world alive.

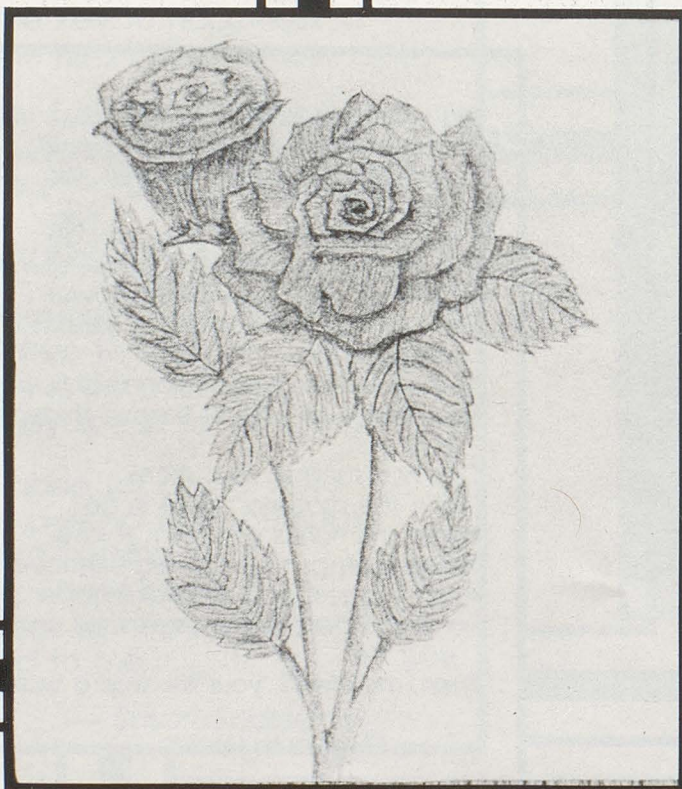

The unsung melodies
warm my soul,
so dance with me forever,
to the unknown song.
cuz I know the words by heart.
They say, "I love you in a way that I've never loved before.
I love you so much.
I couldn't love you any more ...."

So dance with me forever
to the unknown song,
cuz I know the words by heart,
and soon, my dear world,
you will too ...

LEAVES

down the fall
painted autumn hues
gold, orange, brown
twirling ones and twos

speckled, pointed shapes fluttering through the wind piles left and right will this ever end

sought once a year
found high and low
the earth accepts wholeheartedly
what the trees have bestowed

— Susan Sudnickas

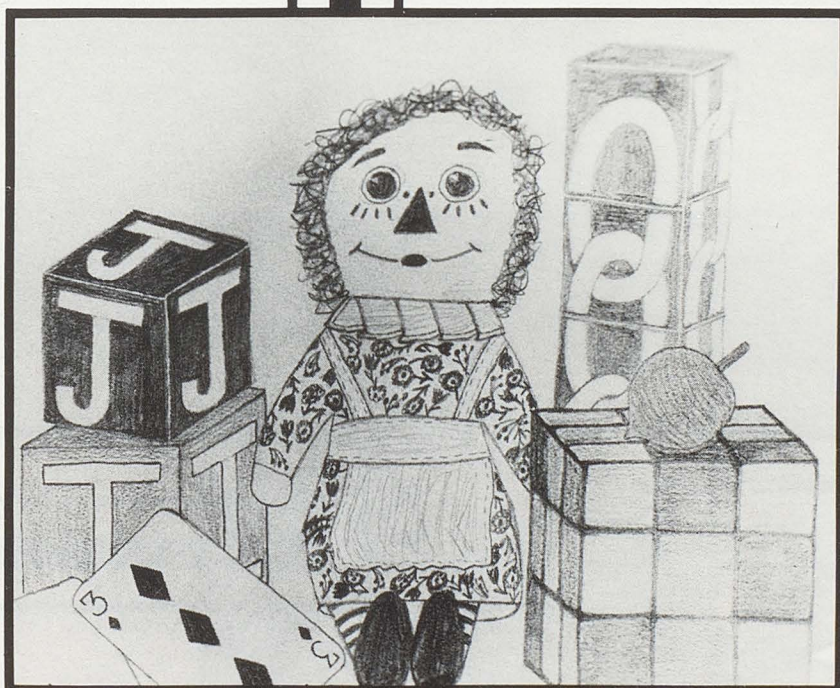

We came together as strangers
to learn and to grow
We formed our ties and bonds to have help in dealing with our problems
We matured together and learned to depend on one another
We leave as one group, the class of '85 to face the world beyond this place
We break our ties, and our hearts for friends we may never see again.

— Marci Adler

Nadine Sansone

Jessica Iannone

Empty without meaning hurt without pain
you turned my life around in circles I go

My life has meaning
because you exist
this full of pity
I know

I'm numb within
at the sight of you emotionally unstable
infatuation or love?

— Susan Sudnickas

Julie Gomes

I truly love you
a love at first sight
I wish you were here
but alas never can be

If only we had more time to gaze upon blue waters
still hanging on for a hero
I go on without you

the actor, the star
famous to the public
never forgotten
remembered in my heart
always with deepest love
— Susan Sudnickas

Jessica Iannone

Nadine Sansone

I'm reaching out for new tomorrows
 Because I'm tired of today
 I need a new start
 And though it's breaking my heart
 There's just no way I can stay
 So let's say good-bye
 With hope that we'll meet again
 And if we don't
 I won't give up hope
 For the memories will always remain
 — Stephanie Osmun

MEDIA CLUB

Advisor - Mrs. McGovern

Presidents - Dave Colatosti, Brendan Keefe, John Kircaldie

The Media Club offers training and experience in producing TV programs for broadcast on cable television. Students learn about still photography, darkroom techniques, computer on-screen graphics and many other phases of media production, and also produce a weekly school news program, as well as a variety of special interest shows.

SACHEM

STAFF

I would like to say this year as Editor-in-Chief of SACHEM 85 was truly a challenging experience. It was a difficult but worthwhile job selecting what would be the treasured memories later on in life. I am proud of the results of SACHEM 85 that the staff and I put together. The hard work and dedication payed off.

EDITOR-IN-CHIEF
Suzanne Fierlit

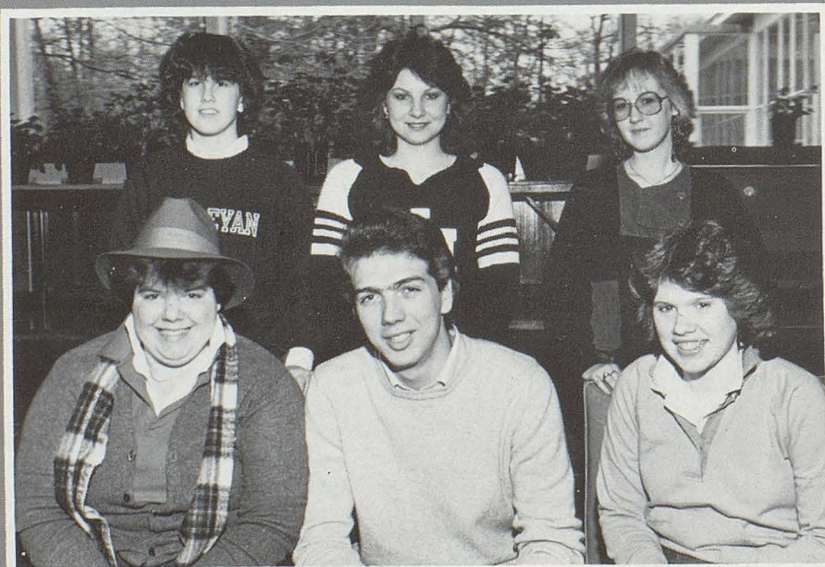

The task of capturing the memories of our past three years at North Haven High School in SACHEM 85 has been a pleasurable and satisfying experience for me. In the spring of 1984, when I first accepted the position of Layout Editor, I did not know what a lengthy, time-consuming, and demanding task I would face designing the layout for the yearbook. After many hours of hard work, some tears, and despite some major misunderstandings and difficulties, SACHEM 85 was completed as scheduled. I am very proud of this yearbook and I am certain that it contains many fond memories for everyone to cherish forever.

I would like to thank the advisors of SACHEM 85, Mr. and Mrs. Iannone and Mrs. Haynes, for their loyal support and continual guidance. Also a very special thank you to Bruce DuPuis, our yearbook sales representative, and the staff at Creative Studios for their fine efforts.

Congratulations to the Class of 1985. I wish each and every one of you the very best in the future.

TRIBUTE TO A LOYAL FRIEND AND FAN

ROCCO RUGGIERO
1914 - 1984

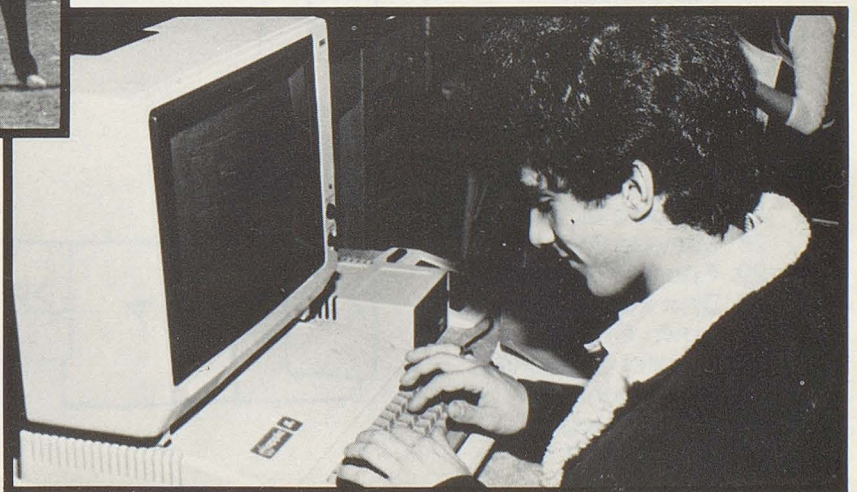

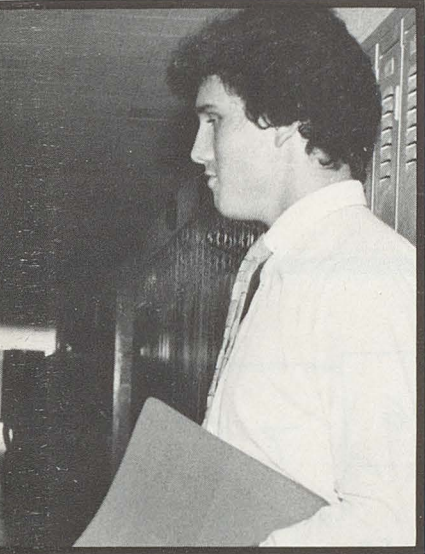

We, the 1985 SACHEM Staff, extend this tribute to Rocky Ruggiero on behalf of all of us: students, faculty and staff, administrators, athletes, coaches, parents, friends, and co-workers. Rocky, in some way and at some time, touched all of our lives. He was our favorite bus driver to neighborhood schools as youngsters and to schools and tournament sites across the state as athletes. He was our most avid and loyal fan—sitting in the front row or on the bench at times—cheering us on even when defeat seemed evident. We will never forget Rocky for his spirit lives on in our memories of childhood days spent in North Haven schools and on North Haven teams.
