SACHEM 1983

North Haven High School
North Haven, Connecticut

As the golden thread of knowledge weaves a path
into the light,
We will always carry with us mem'ries of maroon
and white.
Singing loud and clear your praises, we raise your
banners to the sky;
Striving forward Alma Mater, for you, North
Haven High!

The years are quickly pas-sing by leaving mem'ries
fond and true,
But with-in our hearts we'll always be fond and
loy-al un-to-you.
Singing loud and clear your praises, we raise your
banners to the sky;
Striving forward Alma Mater, for you, North
Haven High!

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Prologue
 "Youth is laughter ...
 The soft murmur of voices
 Beneath a glistening canopy of blushing flowers
 On a balmy April afternoon.
 Youth is tears ...
 The bitter heartbreak of a first tragedy,
 The sweet sadness that comes
 With an understanding just now beginning
 To blossom.
 Youth is wistfulness ...
 A vague yearning stirred
 By a haunting love song, a sad poem, a December rain ...
 Youth is restlessness and burning ambition ...
 Wanting to follow the scarlet sun at dawn
 Rising above the amethyst mountains
 And on, to heights untraveled.
 Most of all, Youth is hope and endless tomorrows, Tomorrows that will glow with the golden radiance
 Of today's Youth."
 Carol Moore

Into my heart's treasury I slipped a coin
 That time cannot take nor a thief
 purloin-
 Oh better than the minting of a gold-crowned king
 Is the safe-kept memory of a lovely thing.
 -Sara Teasdale

WITH SPECIAL THANKS . . .

Vi's many, many kindnesses to her students, to the staff, to her friends, and to her family are innumerable. They could easily fill a book. I think of Vi as a combination of four precious and priceless gems - the ruby for her cheerfulness and heartwarming compassion; the pearl for her purity of soul; the emerald for her belief in the fullness of life and the joy of growing as a person; the diamond for her brilliance and the value she has continued to place on human relationships. To her students year in and year out Vi was truly dedicated. They say of her that she was one of the most helpful teachers they've ever had.

-Lois Haseltine

In October of this year, Rebecca Satterlee Robbins retired from teaching in the North Haven School System after a long and distinguished career in her chosen profession. Her students, over these years, are now as numerous as the progeny of her biblical namesake, Rebecca. Those who were fortunate enough to have Mrs. Robbins as their teacher have as a keepsake of this experience, a vivid sense of the beauty and majesty of the French Language.

We wish her well in her golden years of retirement. She was our teacher. We were here students - her "kiddos."

-Marie E. Diamond

IN MEMORY OF . . .

Someone wrote, "Love is immortal, life is eternal, and death is only a horizon; and a horizon is but the limit of our sight." Vincent Mark Anthony Basilicato met his horizon, where the completeness of our lives is realized, on April 22, 1981 in the middle of the tenth grade. Although he was taken from our midst when he was still so young, he shall always be remembered with admiration and fondness. As each person who enters our lives becomes part of us, so too will he hold a special place in our hearts and in our class of '83.

TRIBUTE

The Sachem staff of 1983 would like to extend a very special thanks to Mr. Dean. Back in early October, when he came to the yearbook's rescue and accepted the position of advisor, Mr. Dean made a very big sacrifice in his time for the next several months. His guidance and support has kept all of us going when the pressures were getting to be too much and we were ready to give up. Without him, we never could have done it. Thanks Mr. Dean!

CHANGES

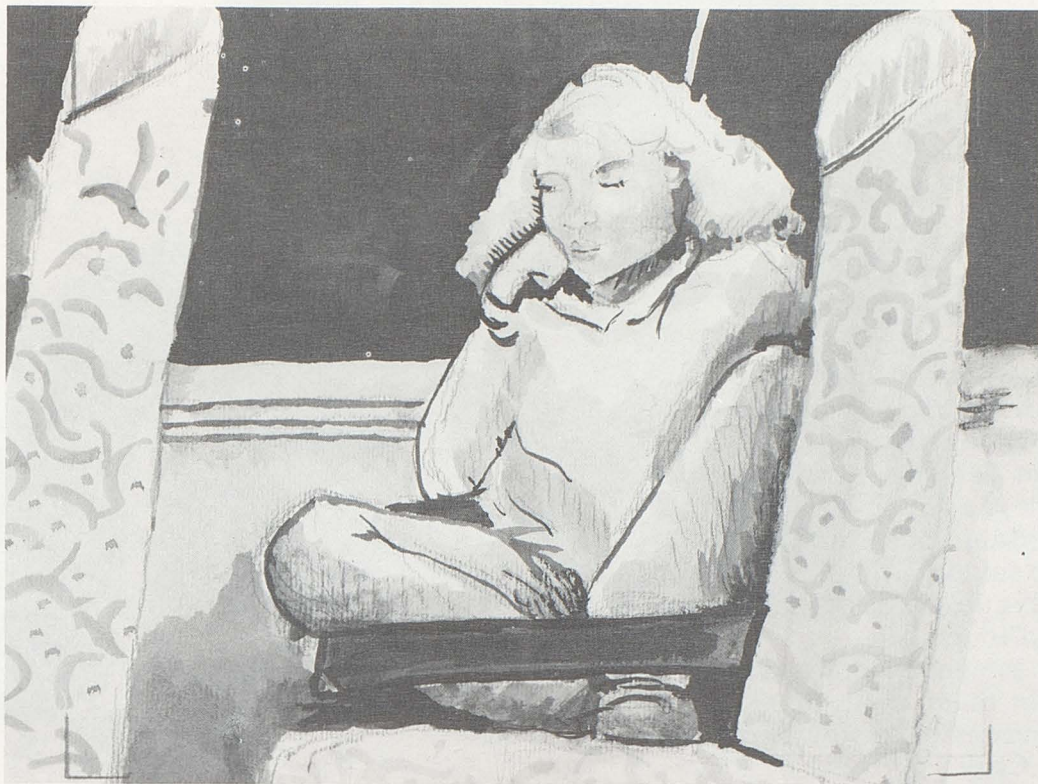

The changes occur
On the way to the top
Priorities mix up
You can't seem to stop.
The thirst for power
Your goals within reach
What's right and what's wrong
You no longer preach.
Concerned with the money
You lose complete touch
With all of those values
That once meant so much.

Don't look at yourself
You won't bear what you see
You're caught in a trap
You're no longer free.
A pawn in the game
Which no one can win
You're full of corruption
You're living in sin.
Had someone once told you
It would end up this way
Would you have listened
Or chosen to play?

Life's lost all it's meaning
You want a clean slate
But no one can help you
You've realized too late.
-E.A. Clark

SOLITUDE

Walking alone by the
sea at night.
Walking alone on a path towards light.
Walking alone in the rain and snow.
Walking alone with no place to go.
Walking alone by the shores of the sea.
Walking alone, no one else but me.
- Linda Iadarola

JoAnna McCort

It was all so new at one time. Getting lost and feeling small were things we all experienced during those first few days. But soon we found our way and began to feel more at ease. We grew accustomed to our new place and achieved a sense of independence.

As the months passed and we slowly climbed the ladder to the top we experienced a wide range of emotions. We felt proud when our athletic teams won Housatonic and state championships. We felt angry with the construction of the guard-house and the elimination of the rotating schedule. We have shared good times at dances and proms and experienced the anxiety of final exams and SAT's. We've had our share of personal triumphs along with defeats, but we've always managed to come out on top.

Now that we are at the top of our ladder it is time to move on and reach for new heights. The friends we've made and the times we've shared will always remain a part of us no matter where we go or how high we climb.

- Diane Corcoran

DESTITUTION

How am I to survive?
The money's gone; but to whom?
I don't feel ambitious and alive.
Am I headed for some sort of doom?
No jobs, no rents, no money coming in,
The waiting and praying has taken its toll,
My faith in God has gone to sin,
I can't live in this rat-hole.
The emptiness and self-hate is great.
The government has taken my pride,
I feel like a second-rate.
This is my last night in the unemployment line.

Is there any place where I can turn?
I want success, let me learn!

IMAGINE

Try hard to imagine
That you were in their place.
Would you then feel different?
Is it a disgrace?
Can you judge your neighbor
If you don't know where he's been?
What gives us the right
To condemn another's sin?
You too have made mistakes,
And hoped for understanding.
Are those who have the faults
Worse than all those branding?
Forgiveness is a word
That's forgotten more than not.
But it is so important
When you're in the guilty spot.
So try hard to imagine
Next time someone's done wrong
It's you, not them, that's done it.
Does forgiveness take so long?

Sitting on the waterfront
In the darkness of the night
The sky is a painted canvas
Dappled with stars
The earth below me
Is silky sand
Comforting each step I take
And for the lonely rock
I rest upon
Allows me to find inspiration in solitude
It is real
More real than any moment I've experienced
More captivating than a summer breeze
And I am learning
By merely living
Gazing above
The moon radiates light
Enough light to guide me to my destiny
But I fear to venture
Although my need is strong
Because my body reacts to the beat
Of a totally different tune
Body and mind stay together
For in unity
We'll be inseparable
And someday, one day
Our heart will lead us steadily on.
So tonight, I will be satisfied to follow
The course the shimmery waters travel
Letting imagination take the lead
And again I will experience
All of what I wished could be

FIRST LOVE

Never wanting to say goodbye
 Longing to hold forever
 Lips unable to pass a lie
 A warmth that is unfettered,
 Adoring each word that is spoken
 A feeling of ebullition upon every sight
 Knowing that the door will always be open
 A smile from him will make your darkest day bright,
 Watching the sun set over the hill
 A kiss may cause you to melt away
 Throughout your body doth spread an eternal chill,
 But from each others arms one will not stray
 Two hearts that beat as one
 First love is as bright as the morning sun.

-Marghie Schoolfield

So beautiful inside
 Not so outside
 Must he always hide?
 He is laughed at Hollered at Made fun at.
 Must he always live this way?
 From dawn till dusk
 Day in and day out
 Day by day
 Such a wonderful mind
 So sweet and so kind.
 Outside is so much different
 When you can see inside.
 Looks are no match
 With a heart as warm as one.
 Must he always be an animal?
 When he is only a human being.
 If people could only realize
 How it would be
 If they could see
 He is just like you and me!

CLASS WILL

We, Beth Clark and Kathy Riggs, gladly leave behind all the bad memories collected over the past four years and take with us all the good.

I, Phil DeCerbo, leave NHHS all the good memories that seven friends had; even though there were rough times in between.

I, Annette Cofrancesco, leave all those fun high school memories of being late each morning, to Mrs. Buturla, to remember always.

We, Janet and Peggy, leave the B hall lav to all our underclassmen who smoke.

I, Patty, leave to Mr. Bischoff four pennies - Good Luck!

We, Mike and Mike, who were placed 1st and 2nd on the senior "hall walkers" hit list, dare any sophomore, junior or senior to accomplish the same feat before they graduate.

I, Brian, leave all my locks and lockers to Chuck.

I, Dianna Petrillo, leave a bunch of bananas, a box of Goobers, and a gorilla suit to Kimbie Ferrara.

I, Joe L., leave to super my locker and all the foxy pictures in it, except a certain one which I leave to Iggy.

I, Kathy Riggs, leave my LOUD voice ringing in the ears of the many deaf sports spectators of North Haven High.

I, Kirstin Jensen, leave to Michele, Nancy, and Donna, my #22 shirt and my spot on the soccer field. They better find someone just like me to fill them.

I, Clarki, leave to my beloved 2nd half the memories of all the tears, the laughter, the mood-swings, the crazy times, and everything else we've shared with the thankfulness that we'll never really have to leave at all.

We, Priscilla and Anna, leave all our tears of laughter to anyone who can have the same good times as we did.

I, the Puddle, leave to Butterball, all the memories and all the love I found that very special year. Thanks.

I, M.C., leave Rose DeLucia the hopes for the best senior year - have fun and be happy!

We, Lisa and Kirstin, leave Sandy Brink our favorite test tube and goggles.

We, Cheryl, Dina and Curl, leave Rose DeLucia our 38-specials on the weekends.

I, DB #1, leave DB #2 the knowledge we both had to learn to grow up.

We, Peggi and Anne, leave Scott Weidenhammer another note from a lonely girl.

We, Amy and Cindy, leave the ACCA Society to any two best friends who clean blackboards for Mr. Dillon as often as we had to.

I, Annette Co, leave Leslie Johnson all my BK hats, BK uniforms and also all my high school books to cherish always!

I, Priscilla, leave Mr. Bonito to everyone lucky enough to get him as a teacher.

I, Kirstin Jensen, leave my brother my grades in high school.

I, Cheryl Marks, leave Eva Carpentino all the wild and crazy times I had in my senior year.

We, Clarki and Riggi, leave Mrs. D with much sadness. We'll never forget the love and happy memories we've shared through our high school years.

We, Wendy Eligio and Dianna Petrillo, leave all our detentions to Jennifer Maturro and wish her lots of luck in her senior year.

I, K.R., leave to L.M. and M.C., all the 9th grade memories of the "Fat Little White Mushroom" whom we know all too well!

We, Mike and Cheryl, leave all our fights to anyone who could enjoy them like we did.

I, Joe, leave to Miss Lee a quieter next door neighbor.

We, Brian and Greg, leave the weight room to anybody who thinks they're big enough to use it.

I, Patty, leave to "L" the false idea of an honest "R".

We, L.M., D.D., M.C., C.M., C.C., D.C., R.D., leave you, Rose, the thought that we will never be that far away. Good Luck!

We, Patty and Renee, leave this school with pleasure.

We, Renee and Patty, leave the "Professors" and the "Attendants" behind so we can go on to bigger and better things.

We, Joe, Mike C., Mike R., Brian and Greg leave our game to Chuckles, Super, Iggy and Chris D.

I, Riggi, leave Chula a lifetime supply of pens and paper for college, because I won't be around.

We, Lynne and Rosanne, leave our bicycles to the next two people who had to peddle as far and as fast as we did, without getting anywhere.

I, Diane Corcoran, leave to Leann Ferri the best of luck in all her sports next year -Go For It Le!

We, K.R. and B.C., leave Mean Dean common sense enough never to get involved with this thing ever again.

I, Renee, leave Mr. Thompson my kick.

I, Cindy, leave Richard all my senior year homework so he can begin his "senior slide" the first day of school.

We, Trisha and Eileen, leave our craziness to Sandy Fowler.

I, anonymously leave Chris McKeon's gorgeous hair to anyone else who wants to stare at it.

I, Chubsy - Wubsy, leave someone special the memories of all the times that we've shared in hopes that he never forgets, or regrets, them.

We, Lynne and Phil, leave behind our seats on the bus, if you can catch it on time. (we didn't)

I, Riggi, leave to my very dear Clarki, all the "talks", all the tears, all the memories, but most of all, all the love and thanks for being my friend.

We, Patty and Renee, leave Kim Ferrara our D period rendezvous in B hall lav.

We, Priscilla, Anna, and Cheryl, leave Mrs. Titus' English class memories to no one because we are taking them with us.

We, The "X" class of Mrs. Pinto, leave the door jammed during the lunch waves.

We, Maureen and Mary, leave locker 275 complete with Garfield and all the memories to two people who can succeed in dropping books on each other's heads.

I, Gretchen Fuggi, leave all my computer time and programs to my sister, Juliann.

We, Renee and Patty, leave to Mr. Bradanini our long weekends.

We, Lynne and Phil, leave behind our locker without any room to put anything in it.

I, Mary, leave Karen my address at school so she can write to me for help in Accounting and my telephone number in case it's an emergency.

I, Gretchen, leave my spanish speaking ability for his next year to Vinny Santamauro.

I, Randi Olsen, leave Mrs. Cianca the keys to the music rooms, and Winski the music to "For Your Eyes Only."

We, Mike R. and Mike C., leave our "B" and "D" hall corner to anyone who thinks they're tough enough to handle it.

I, Gretchen, leave talkative Karla and calm Kristin my patience and worries to find another coach before the next tennis season begins. Good Luck!

I, Darla, leave my locker to Scotty and Spanky to spy on Calvin, just in case he doesn't leave this year.

I, Linda Iadarola, leave Karen's leftover lunches for the next person to get my locker so that I can be sure they feed the monster that lives there.

We, Audrey and Dawn, leave Nancy all the empty bottles in hope that she can refill them.

We, Rich and Gary leave all our strange ski adventures to whoever can encounter them.

We, Claire, Kelley, and Marianne leave.

We, Dina C. and Carolyn C., leave Mr. Thompson all our fake passes.

We, Dina, Carolyn and Chris K., leave Mrs. Iannone all our tests and homework with the same answers.

We, D.C., C.M., and C.C., leave Rosanne DePasquale a brain even though she's comin' with us.

I, Heidi Derbacher, do hereby leave runtime error #605 to any computer student lucky enough to get it.

We, Lisa and Heidi, leave our unique and extremely cluttered locker, complete with it own lunch crusher, to the next two giddy people who have as much stuff as we do.

We, Linda - Babe and Heidi - Ho, leave to good 'ol Mr. Connell a pair of earmuffs just in case a certain someone fails to graduate.

We anonymously leave "Gimp" an extra pair of crutches in case she slips again next year.

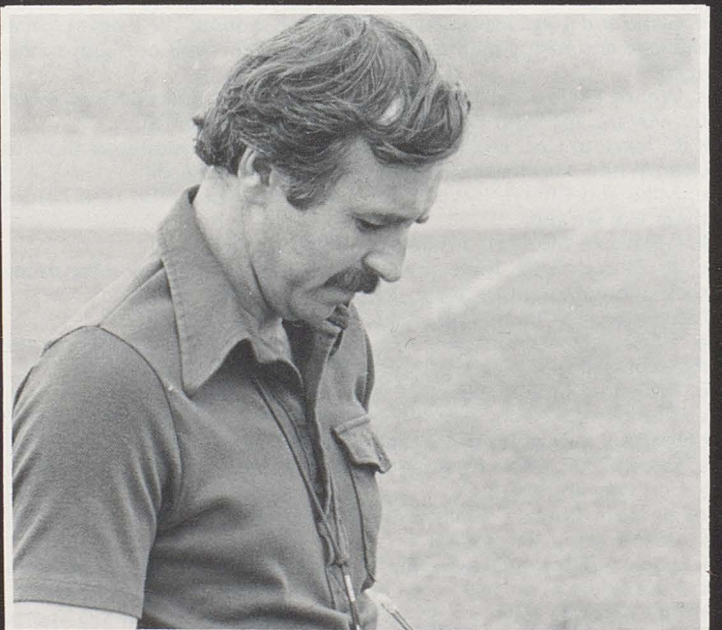

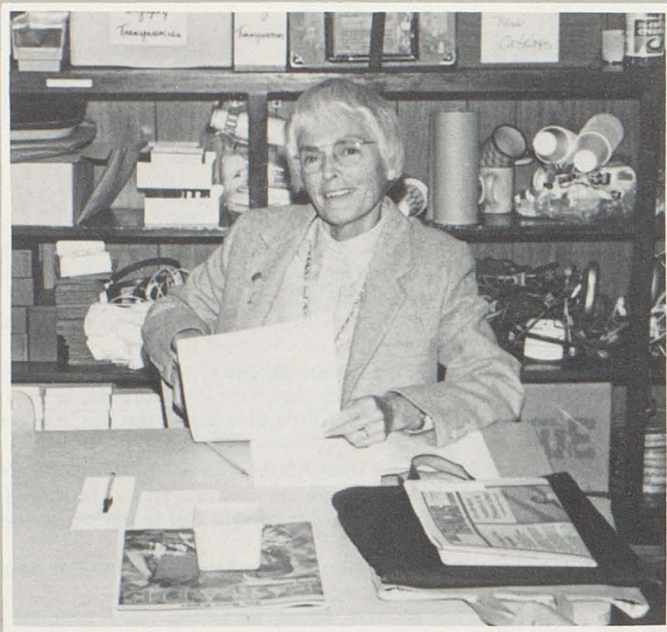

We, the famed co-captains, leave the N.H.H.S. majorette squad of '84 many unfinished routines, dropped batons, all the candy they can sell and the best of luck to the best 'of squads.

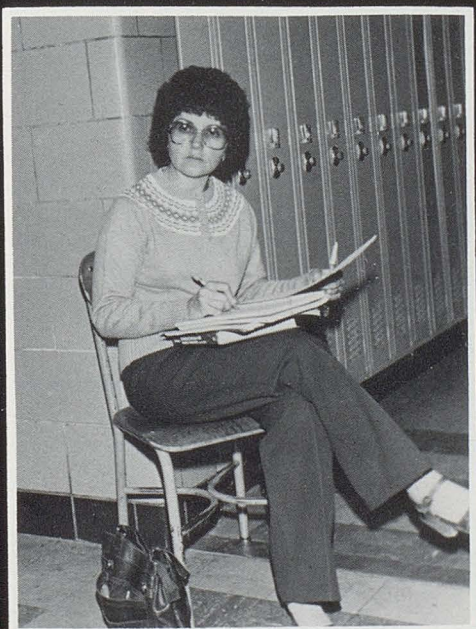

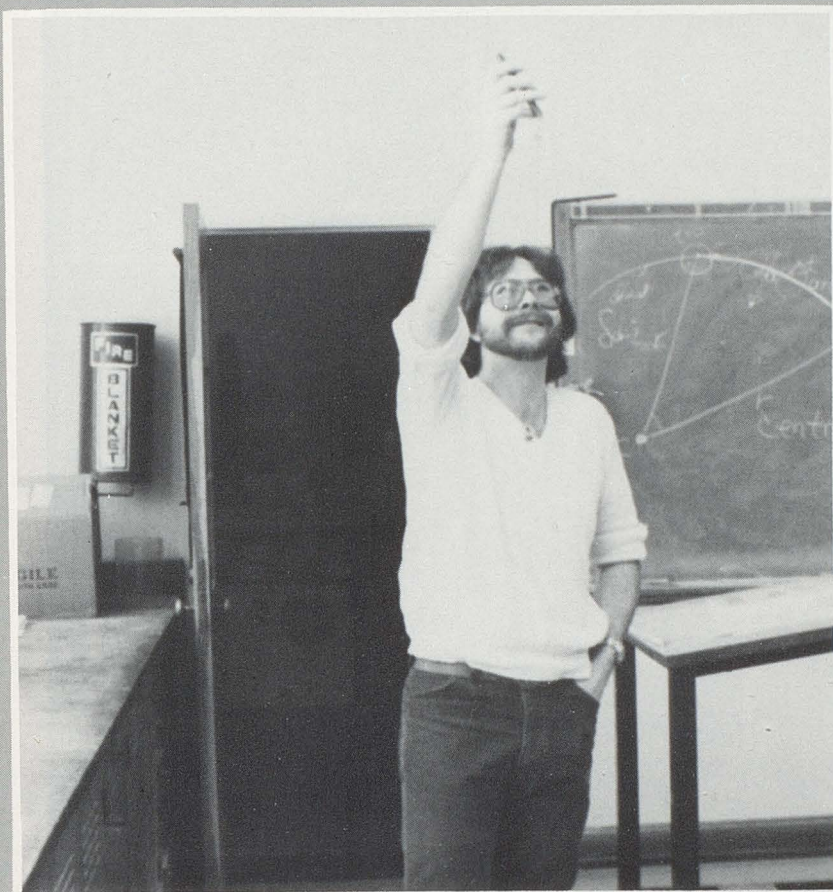

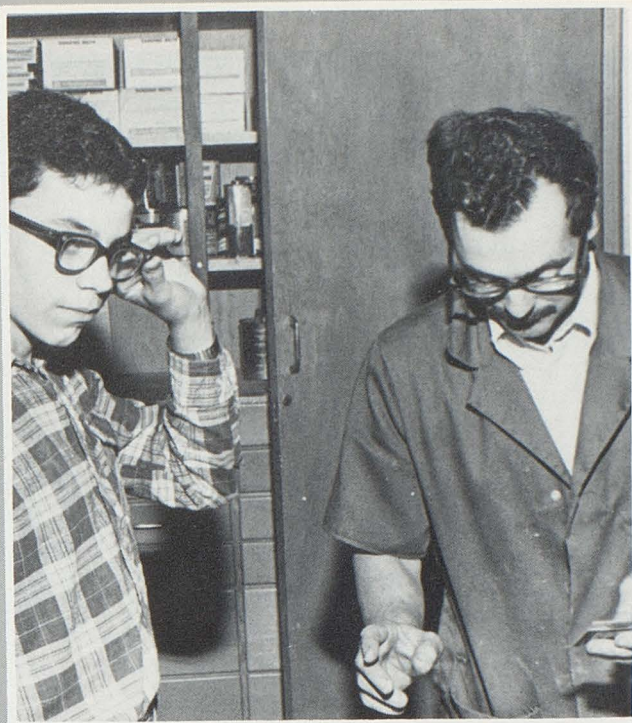

I, Ma'ura, leave to anyone staying at North Haven the hope that they can find a special friend to share the good and bad times with, like I did. Thanks Andy!

I leave to my best buddy the hope that he finds the happiness he deserves.

I, Kathy Riggs, leave North Haven High with dear memories of dear friends.

I, Renee, leave Sandy my plug.

FOOTBALL

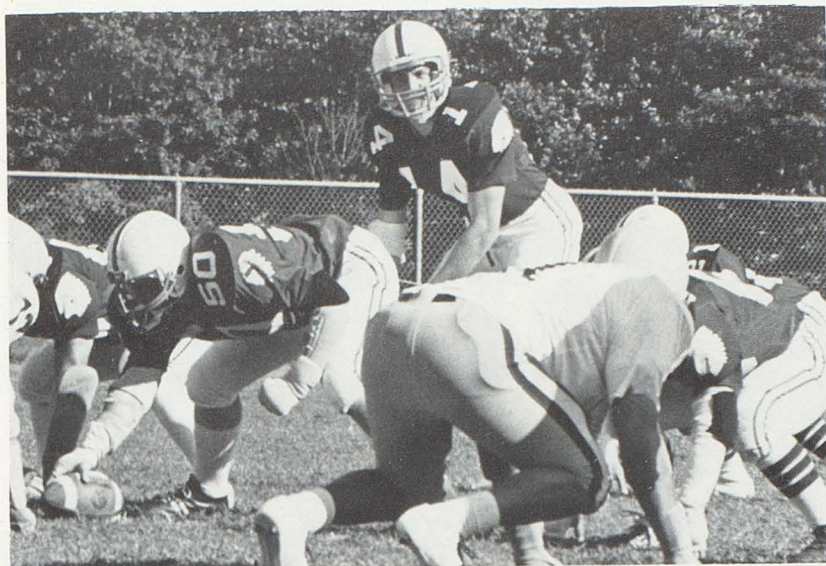

In 1982 the North Haven High Football Team completed one of its most exciting seasons ever. Although things started out rather grim with back to back losses to Hamden and Branford, the tides changed quickly. In a single week the club seemed to mature and become a powerhouse, with the potential to go all the way. As respect and recognition rose, the players continued to win five consecutive games. The streak was highlighted by a last minute win over Lyman Hall, and an overtime victory downing Shelton. The team then suffered a heartbreaking, 14-13 defeat against Seymour, and lost its last two games to league co-champs Derby and Cheshire. The team's Housatonic League record showed a winning season with 5 wins and 4 losses.

VOLLEYBALL

The 1982 Volleyball Team may have been small in size this year but it adequately made up in talent for what it lacked in number. The Varsity Team consisted of six seniors including, co-captain Mary-Rose Buller, Diane Corcoran, Anne-Marie Esposito, Cheryl Marks, co-captain Carin Mikos, and Maureen O'Keeffe and three juniors; Leann Ferri, Lenore Gambardella, and Karen Leonard. The team ended its regular season with a record of 10-6 giving it a third place spot in the Housy. The team then entered the class M State Tournament ranked 14th and defeated Stratford in the preliminaries only to lose in the playdowns to Joel Barlow of Redding. With a final record of 11-7, the players ended the season with memories of exciting victories and many good times.

BOY'S SOCCER

This year the soccer team completed a very successful season. The boys ended with a league record of 8-3-3 and an overall record of 9-4-3, qualifying then for the State Tournaments. The strong defense led the Housatonic League with a nine goal average, shutting out six of their sixteen opponents. The offense scored an average of two goals per game, outscoring their opposition 32-15. The intense desire and spirit of the team proved to be an important factor in the highly successful season.

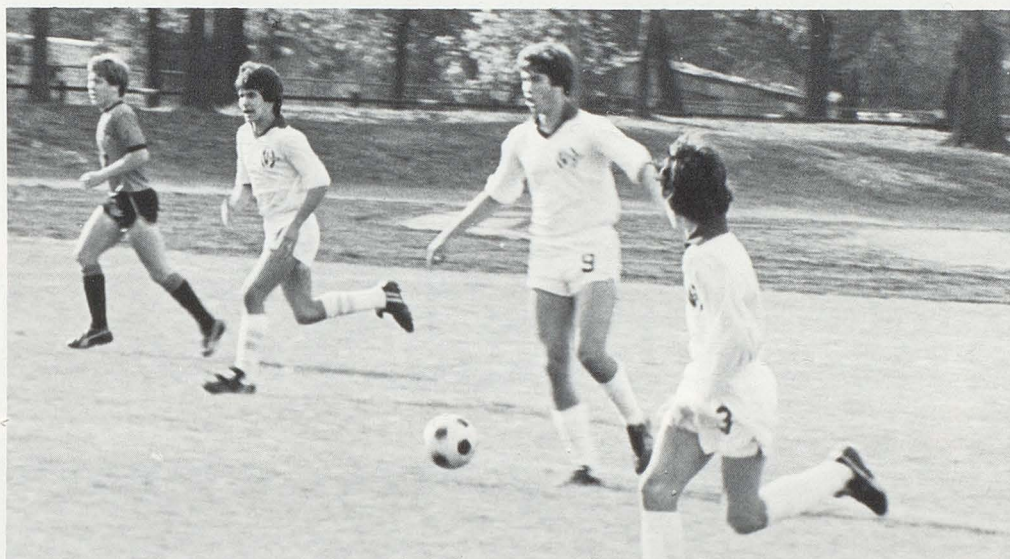

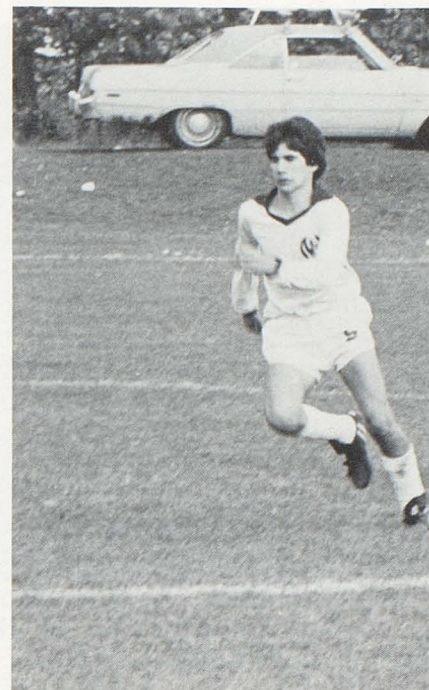

Coaches: Joe Janush, Sam Licata, Captain: Scott Taschner

GIRL'S SOCCER

Although the record for the Girls' Soccer Team does not appear to be outstanding, the team was very productive this season. We had many tough breaks; losing two games in overtime situations, and losing many close games by a mere goal or two.

In spite of our record we had one of our best seasons ever. Each and every game and practice was enjoyable. Debbie Palella, one of the most talented, dedicated players to ever play girls soccer, led the team in spirit, ability and goals scored. Captains Martha Thompson and Jennifer Dehar also contributed greatly to the team as well as the other seniors and underclassmen. All in all, despite our three and eleven record, the season was a good and memorable one.

ROW 1: D. Palella, L. Keller, K. Jensen, M. Thompson, D. Cavallaro, C. Curl, ROW 2: S. Foerster, D. Baugh, M. Volpe, J. Albert, N. Lansing ROW 3: T. Russo, L. Barnabei, N. MacDougall, B. Fritts, D. DeAngelo, Coach: B. Beale

ROW 1: M. Thompson, D. Cavallaro ROW 2: D. Palella, K. Jensen, L. Keller

Co-Captains: Jennifer Dehar, Martha Thompson

FIELD HOCKEY

The Girls Field Hockey Team finished their season with an overall record of six wins and eight losses. Finishing third in the Housatonic League, their overall season was a tremendous success. Carol Bailey made first team All-Housy and was voted Most Valuable Player for the 1982 season. Ann Manzione and Kim Barber were awarded second team All-Housy and Gayle Longobardi, Julie Giglietti and Anna Matteis were awarded Honorable Mention. The Varsity Team will be losing eight senior players in June due to graduation, but there will be many strong players returning for the 1983 season.

ROW 1: T. Valalik, C. Spignesi, C. Bailey ROW 2: G. Longobardi, A. Matteis, A. Manzione, M. Bailey, J. Giglietti

CROSS COUNTRY

The boys' and girls' Cross Country Teams completed a successful Fall Season in spite of some key injuries and a lack of experienced runners. The boys were led by Senior Captain Gary Neff and senior Vin Cangiano. Jim Reilly, Scott Parisi, Russ, Colburn, Kris Petterson, and Chris Pelligrino also contributed to the successful season.

GIRL'S SWIMMING

The Girls' Swim Team, led by Co-Captains Ann Erickson and Chris Eddy, had a successful season this year by defeating Sheehan High School for the first time and then going on to place fifth in the Housatonic League. The long standing record of 3-8 was finally broken this year as the team posted a 4-7 record. Kristin Connors, Amy Conway, Ann Erickson, Alice Christoforo, Rachel Sachs (diving), Rosemary Dell'Oro, Eileen Eddy, Kelly Griffin, and Karla Turekian all qualified for the State Class Semi-final meet. The 200 yard medley relay team of Kristin Connors, Amy Conway, Ann Erickson, and Alice Christoforo went on to place eighth in the State Finals. Ann Erickson was the only swimmer in the individual events. She placed second in both the 50 yard freestyle and the 100 yard butterfly at the State Finals. She then went on to place fourth in the 100 yard butterfly and sixth in the 50 yard freestyle in the State Open Meet. Although there will be six graduating seniors, the team has high hopes for the future.

BOY'S SWIMMING

The Boys' Swim Team experienced a rebuilding season this year, after suffering major losses to graduation. With the coaching of Chris Burns and the leadership of its captains, the team faced every meet with determination and spirit. Although it wasn't a winning season, it was a season which was filled with enjoyment and memories.

BOY'S BASKETBALL

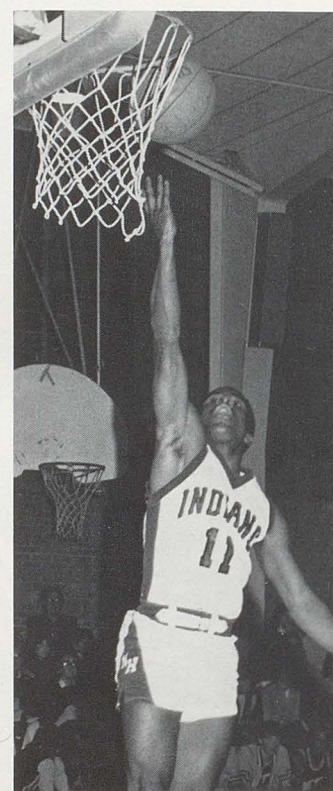

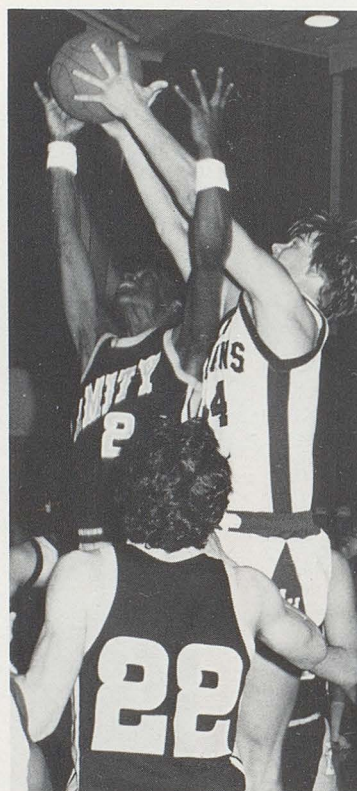

The 1982-1983 version of the NHHS basketball team was one of excitement. With the blending of talent from an experienced senior group, led by captains John Ciulla, Lenny Smith, and Mike Thaxton, to a talent-laden sophomore group, the Indians were competitive in every game, being a factor in the Housatonic League title hunt. Along with the captains, seniors Jim Langan, Barry Kleinberg, and David Ide also added valuable assistance to the varsity squad along with juniors Greg Taylor and Mike Iannone. With the juniors and the talented sophomores returning next year, things are looking good for the future at NHHS.

In October of '82, when we accepted the position of Co-editors-in-Chief, little did we know the road ahead of us! If it weren't for the dedication and hard work of the Sachem '83 staff and Mr. Dean, this book never could have been put out. It was definitely a group effort! As Co-editors we would like to thank everyone for everything as well as wish next year's editor(s) a good staff and lots of luck!

-Beth Clark and Kathy Riggs

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

MARTY

By Paddy Chayefsky

MEMORY

Midnight
 Not a sound from the pavement
 Has the moon lost her memory
 She is smiling alone
 In the lamplight the withered leaves collect at my feet
 And the wind begins to moan

Memory
 All alone in the moonlight
 I can smile at the old days
 It was beautiful then
 I remember the time I knew what happiness was
 Let the memory live again

Daylight
 I must wait for the sunrise
 I must think of a new life
 And I must not give in
 When the dawn comes tonight will be a memory too
 And a new day will begin

GRADUATION 1983

What remains within our thoughts
Is all our time together
Take the rugged sunny days
The warm and rocky weather
Take the roads that have been walked
Looking for tomorrow's time
Peace of mind

We have seen a million stars
Rising above the water
Climbing the hills to our destiny
To the mountain shelter
Taking off the days
One by one
Setting them to breathe in the sun

As all life spills into time
Changing with the seasons
Filling up the world with thoughts
Changing time to reasons

Take the lillies and the lace
from the days of childhood
All the willow winding paths
Leading up and outward
