From the Editor

This year, Sachem Yearbook Staff has put in long hours to create the yearbook you have in your hands. The yearbook staff captured some of this year's greatest memories to produce the best yearbook possible. The dedicated yearbook staff along with the constant support of Mr. Falcon worked to make the 2017 yearbook a product we are all proud to share with you.

Thanks to the staff of the 2017 Yearbook, Elise Symon, Katie Vidal, Ryan Scarpa, Morgan Cote, Julia Micarelli and Dave Mosher, for continually working hard to deliver a book that depicts the special moments that occurred throughout the year. I greatly appreciate all the extra work that was done to help make sure everyone's ideas and opinions got taken into consideration. Special thanks to Mr. Falcon for all the extra work he did in the classroom, as well as outside of the classroom. Without his guidance, this yearbook would not have been possible.

Thank you to Mrs. Wade for offering to help whenever anyone needed assistance. The photographs taken by her and her photography students captured the positive environment of North Haven High School. I would also like to thank Ms. Schiller for always being willing to help in any way possible and continually supporting the yearbook staff. Having so many amazing, dedicated and hardworking people help create this yearbook made the process much easier. Finally, thanks to all the parents and businesses that purchased ads in this year's book.

I feel lucky to have been a part of the North Haven High School Class of 2017 and I am grateful for the years of memories that I will never forget. I hope you enjoy the 2017 Sachem Yearbook and every time you look through the book in the years to come, you remember fondly all the times we shared.

Sincerely,

Alexis Petrone
Editor in Chief

Congratulations, Class!

It is a pleasure to offer this message of congratulations to you, the Class of 2017. I remember so many of you as freshmen, entering school the first day with a wide-eyed smile and a "good morning." Even then you were prepared and good hearted. For the four years since, you have grown into students, musicians, class officers, thespians, Future Problem Solvers, athletes, and more. You have contributed almost 25,000 hours of collective service to the community. You have become advocates for scholarship, acceptance, and service, leaving your mark along the way. Throughout all of this, you have been a genuine joy to be around, to work for, and to know.

It is bittersweet to offer you this congratulatory letter – bitter because your time here is concluding, sweet because you are ready for your futures. You are impressive, accomplished individuals. Your next step is to enter and contribute to new settings, including universities, the armed services, and workplaces. As you go, I encourage you to bring a piece of North Haven with you. Remember all the good in yourself, each other, and your time here.

I wish you happiness and success in your incredibly bright futures. I hope that you are as proud of yourselves as I am of you.
Sincerely,

Russell J. Dallai, Ed.D.

Amelia

You came into this world with blue eyes wide open, ready to take on anything. With each day passing, you have proven to yourself as well as others, that you are not only fearless, but have the resilience to exceed at anything you want.

From St. Therese Nursery to Montowese School; moving into Middle School then to High School, you did not walk away from a challenge, you worked hard at every step, and always respected yourself as well as your classmates and teachers.

Good Luck for a bright and beautiful future. We know it is going to be great and we can't wait to see what you do!

Love you - Your Family
