North Haven, Connecticut

DEDICATION

When we look back on our past four years at North Haven High and remember the many activities and endeavors in which we took part, two very special people come to mind. For it was the continued help and support of these two people which gave us the chance to participate in so many of the experiences which made the past four years special for each one of us. Rarely is one class lucky enough to have both a grade principal and a class advisor whose dedication and concern is so clearly apparent. In sincere appreciation of the time, effort, and energy they have devoted to our class, we, the members of the class of 1981 dedicate this edition of Sachem to Miss Maryanne Cassidy and Mr. Robert Scelzo.

In Memory
Of
Karen E. Cordeiro

In Memory of Karen E. Cordeiro
7/25/63 - 7/8/80

In every friendship
we see the beauty
the joy
and the laughter shared throughout the years
as we saw hers
In every day
we grow learning more feeling pain and love
yet it seems so unfair
for her days
to have been cut short and her laughter to have been stopped
In the last few months of her time here
she was so happy and carefree
those of us who knew that she suffered had no words to express the love we felt or maybe we couldn't face
the fear

She
so strongly pushed aside
She has taught
those of us who knew her well just how precious each moment really is taking things
as they come
and living each moment to its fullest with no fear
just courage and patience
She made us realize just how much love
one person can bring into our lives
and how quickly
it can be taken away without it even being acknowledged 9/12/80

It is with deep humility and great affection that I write these words of tribute to a little girl who embodied the epitome of courage. The first day that Karen realized something was wrong, she came to me saying: "Mrs. Robbins, look at all these black and blue spots." The very next day she was in the hospital which was going to be her home away from home every so often until the fatal day in July of 1980. As we gaze at this lovely smiling Karen, it is with intense difficulty that we realize that she was keenly aware of her fate. Even though she knew the final hour was approaching, never did she shed a tear. Perhaps we can all learn a lesson from the courage of this child who was very dear to me and to all those who knew her.

Winter Sorrow

Her tears stung bitterly against her cold cheek,
As the wind whistled mournfully
through the valley.
It would be hard now,
Without him there, as he always had been.
Her protector, her friend.
But, he was gone, forever.
The soulful cry of the wolf, echoed sadly through the frozen peaks.
It too seemed to feel her loss,
her sorrow.
The glowing light in the cabin was no longer a welcoming sight
For, it only illuminated her emptiness even more.
And the warmth of their snug home
 could not penetrate
her iciness.
What was she, where was she without him?
Even the snows came that night,
 trying, in vain, to cover grief.
But she always knew that out there,
beyond the far knoll,
He lay in peace.
Amongst the wilds and the freedom
he had loved,
That they had shared.
Nothing had ever objected to their presence
But she now felt an outcast,
an intruder,
And she was left to survive
alone,
In his world,
In his dream.

A Brother

I see a giving hand
I see a loving heart
I see an honest person
And this is just one part

I see a flying truth
I see a caring way
I see the trust in Jesus
In you every day

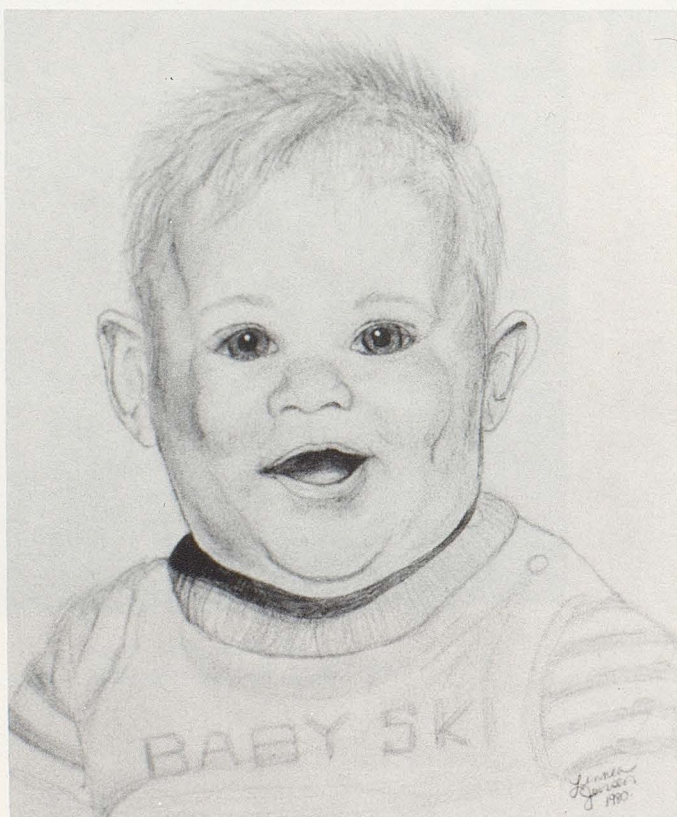

I see the courage that you have
I see the faith you know
I see a shining light
And that very special glow

I know that I can trust you
I know you really care
You're not just any person
But you're someone who will share

I love the tears you've shown me
I love your glowing eyes
I love your reassurance
You're not just any guy

I need to know you're there
I need to show you how
I need to tell you why

I love you very dearly
And for just one special reason
God gave you to me, to have for every season

I Have Watched You Growing

I have watched you growing,
Straining
Working to get into
This hard cold structure
That excludes you.

I see so many others
Who tried to penetrate
This martern shell
But only you
Have succeeded.

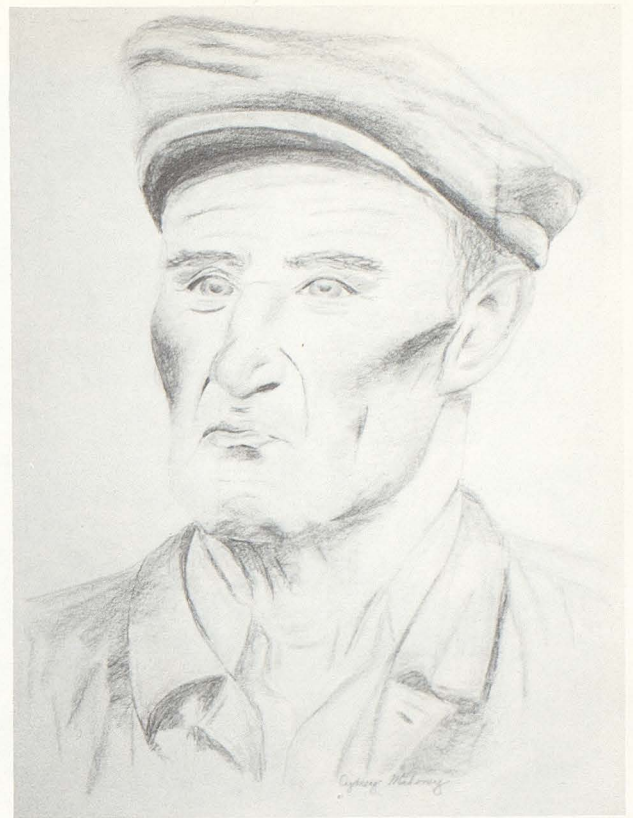

And I am so proud of you.
Even though I know
That you will be hurt,
Maybe even fatally,
For having come here.

Someone will force you
To leave (Wouldn't want you to Think you could slip
Past their defenses.)

But I thank you,
And I'm grateful.
Because you have been
A living example of how
A little softness can Work it's way
Through a lot of hardness.

Ideas

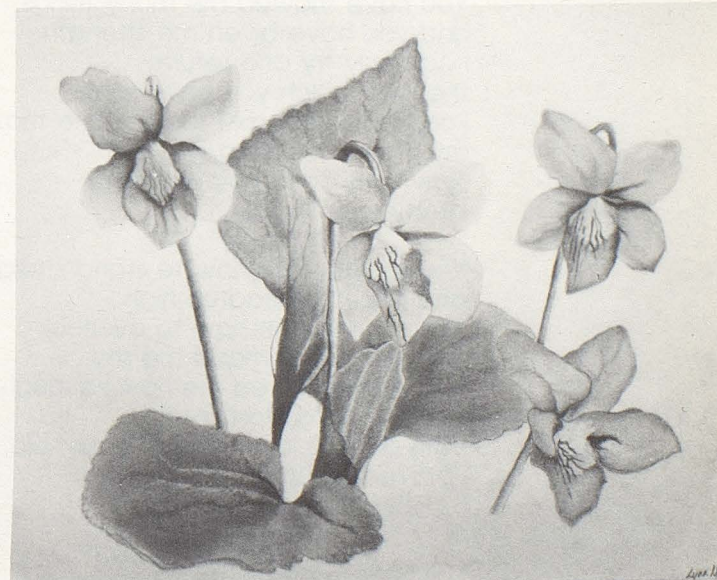

All life is a repeating cycle.
Not just in the reproduction of new beings
But in thought.
Even though we are all individuals,
we have all existed before.
Our ideas are rarely unique but rarely understood.
One must alienate himself from the crowd,
To look at mankind objectively.
To see that what man wanted,
so long ago,
he still hasn't obtained.
Man must learn that he cannot change the world.
He can only contribute to its evolution.
But no single being can change such a complex thing.
People of long ago seem very different and distant to "modern" society.
But these people existed.
and had feelings that were just like yours and mine.
They worked with what they could in their time and they tried to change when it was necessary.
But to us it is still the past.
And few of us can realize that we are bridging the future with the past and that life is again repeating itself.
It is so sad not to understand such a basic idea.

Upset

I can tell when you're upset, your eyes look so confused.
 You mumble softly to yourself,
 a tear comes trickling down.
 I wipe it gently from your cheek,
 your skin's so so soft and smooth,
 I hold your body close to mine,
 and whisper in your ear.
 "I can tell that you're upset please trust me, I'll stay near."

A Passing Thought

Hold on to the past
 that's where it all starts.
 Pace yourself in the present for somehow, it never lasts
 as long as you'd wish.
 Keep the future "hope" filled
 it's a place where dreams can sometimes come true.
 Time, it's here, and it's gone.
 You realize it's all over with a passing thought.

You have showed me many things,
 and you have given me strength.
 I can only try and return
 the love which you have sent.
 For you alone have showed me that my life is something good.
 Now I will try to help you too,
 in any way I could.

You showed me how to stand straight and hold my head up high
 You showed me how to overlook the things that made me shy.
 You even showed me how to laugh,
 when I would start to cry.
 With all your love, and all your help,
 I'll love you until I die.

Deep Reflections

Come here little child,
You are crying, I will help you.

Oh God, please tell someone,
I am crying, I need to be comforted too.

Come here little boy who is lost,
You are troubled, I will help you.

Oh God, please tell someone,
I am lost in the world,
I am troubled. Please someone come help me too.

Come here new girl, I'll show
you around,
I will help you make it through.

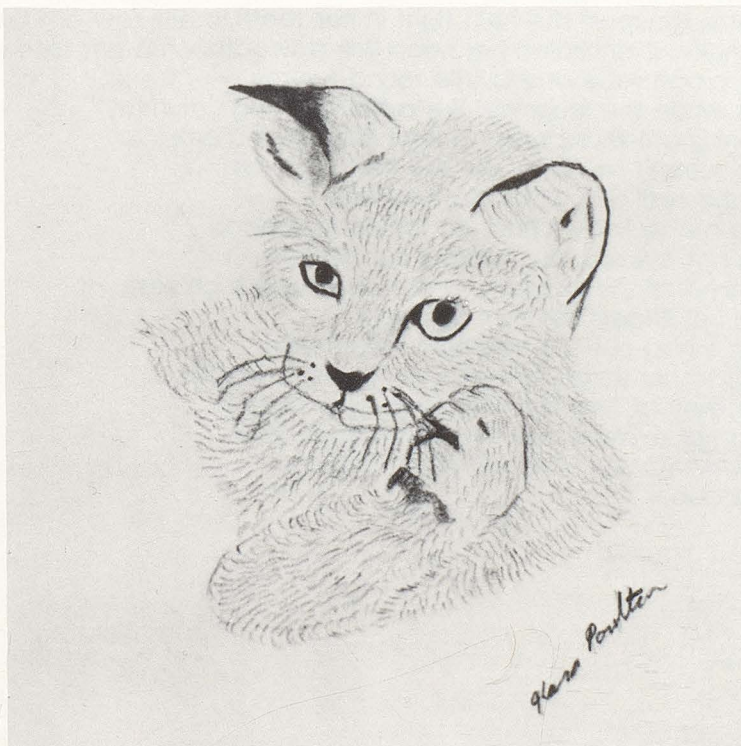

Oh God, please tell someone,
I need to be shown around,
I need to find where I belong.
Please someone, come show me too.

Hey mister with the cane,
Don't be so depressed,
You aren't old,
You have so much going for you.
You're loved very much.
People do care.
I will help you.

Oh God, please tell someone,
I'm depressed too. I need to be told I'm loved. I need to hear I'm cared for too. Please someone come tell me too.

Yes people you can count on me,
I will always be here for you.
I will do my best to comfort you anyway
I can. I really care

Oh, God please let me begin with myself

Friendship

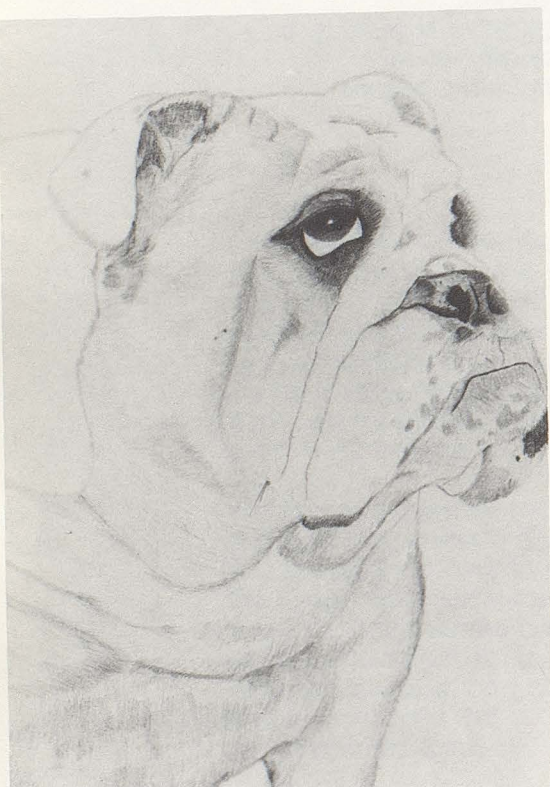

In order to be happy in this life
you must have friends.
Relationships can be created by caring, trusting, sharing and being honest.

Friendships have to include one more quality; Love.

A Visit From St. Doree

Twas a minute before Exams, when all through the room,
 Not a student was stirring, not he, her or whom;
 The cheat-sheets were hidden in desks with great care.
 In hopes that St. Doree would never look there;
 The students were nestled all snug in their chairs,
 While visions of Shakespeare danced through their hairs;
 And Matt in his Levi's, and I in my vest,
 Had just settled our brains for a long English test,
 When out in the field there arose such a clatter,
 I sprang from my seat to see what was the matter.
 Away to the window I flew like a flash,
 Tore open the blinds and threw out the sash.
 The guardhouse on the breast of the new fire abound,
 Gave a lustre of midday to objects around,
 When, what to my wondering eyes did beseech,
 But a miniature sleigh and eight tiny teach,
 With a little old driver, so lively and glory,
 I knew in a moment it must be St. Doree.
 More rapid than eagles her courses they came,
 And she whistled, and shouted and called them by name:
 "Now Tr'passo! now, Lois! now, Viola and Dotty!
 On Francis! on Nancy! on Becky and Willie!
 Now into the parking lot, now into the hall!
 Now dash away! dash away! dash away, all!"
 As dry leaves that before the wild hurricane fly,
 When they meet with an obstacle, mount to the sky,
 So into the hallway the courses they flew,
 With the sleigh full of tests, and St. Doree, Too.
 And then, in a twinkling, I heard on the floor
 The prancing and dancing of each little paw.
 As I drew in my head, and was turning around,
 Through the threshold St. Doree came with a bound.
 She was dressed in maternity, from her foot to her hat,
 And her clothes were all spotted from painting a flat;
 A bundle tests she had flung on her back,
 And she looked like a peddler just opening her pack.
 Her eyes- how they twinkled! her dimples, how merry!
 Her cheeks were like roses, her nose like a cherry!
 Her droll little mouth was drawn up like a bowl,
 And the hair on the head was as black as coal;
 The butt of a Newport she held tight in her teeth,
 And the smoke, it encircled her head like a wreath;
 She had a broad face and a little round tummy,
 That shook when she laughed like a babe crying "mummy"
 She was pregnant-thus plump, a right jolly ole ma'am,
 And I cried when I saw her - for she had an exam;
 A flash of the test and what she had said,
 Soon gave me to know I had, oh, much to dread;
 She spoke not a word, but passed out her test,
 And equipped all the students; and turned with such zest,
 And laying her fingers aside of the door,
 And giving a nod out the threshold she soared.
 She sprang to her sleigh, to her team gave a whistle,
 And away they all flew like the down of a thistle,
 But I heard her exclaim, ere she drove from all us,
 "HAPPY EXAM TO ALL, AND TO ALL A D-PLUS!

The Math Teacher (This one's for you Mrs. DeMayo.)
 Gesturing wildly
 And making jokes
 While into our brains
 She's trying to coax

The difficult problems
 That Algebra poses
 I'd sure like to give her
 A bunch of fresh roses

For all the times
 I gave a shout
 And she was there
 To help me out.

Such A Comfort

So fickle!
 First I wanted to be a ballerina,
 (like Ballerina Bess)
 Maybe an author
 (I've always written)
 Then an artist
 Or an art teacher
 Next a singer
 Perhaps a songwriter
 (Parents have been patient.)

In the beginning:
 No dancing
 "You'll never lose that much weight."
 No writing
 "You have to earn a living."
 No art
 "Do you have more talent than others?"
 An art teacher
 "There are no places in the schools."
 Songwriter?
 "Everyone and their brother wants to write songs."
 Doctor
 Ma, Can I be a doctor??
 (Relief . . . sigh)
 "Of course dear,
 But do you have the grades?"

IN MEMORIAM

Dr. Delio J. Rotundo

We remember Dr. Delio J. Rotundo best as the tall, handsome chief of the North Haven School System - a man with a soft voice and a broad smile - a kind of father figure who watched over us from early grades to high school graduation. With his job went the loneliness of the man at the top - a maddening mantle that he wore in a manner that bespoke the quiet courage of the unsung her. If we could not share in his loneliness we did benefit from his leadership of eleven years as Superintendent of Schools. Those who knew him well tell us that Dr. Rotundo had two great passions in his life- his family and his job, no less - no more. We are deeply saddened at the loss of this fine man - Dr. Delio Rotundo - an educator who gave us the best years of his life. We mark his memory with esteem and appreciation.

Mr. Joseph Cone

Besides serving as one of our Junior High School principals for two years, Mr. Joseph Cone will long be remembered by many French students with whom he shared his traveling experiences in France. He generously gave his time and enhanced many French classes with his interesting lectures and picturesque slides. Through his slides he gave to us a part of him. He shared with us his happy memories of France, and in turn created for each of us a memory of our own. He will surely be missed by all who knew him.

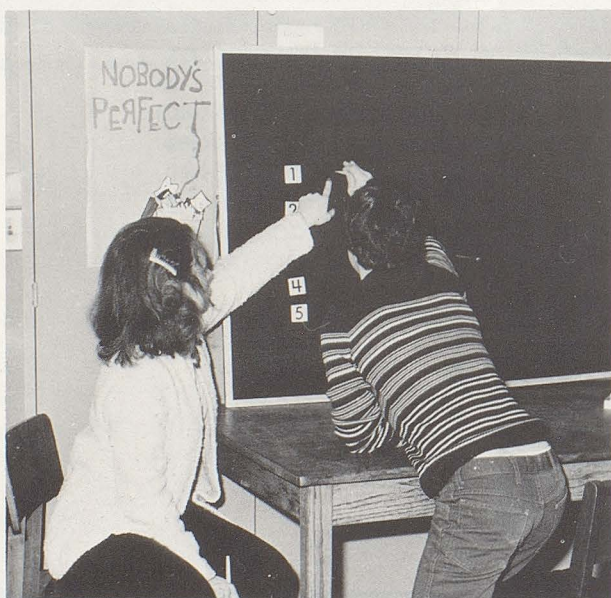

SPECIAL EDUCATION

The Pre-Vocational Secondary Skills Program housed at North Haven High School emphasizes functional academic instruction, physical and social skills and pre-vocational orientation, all necessary to encourage successful and independent community living.

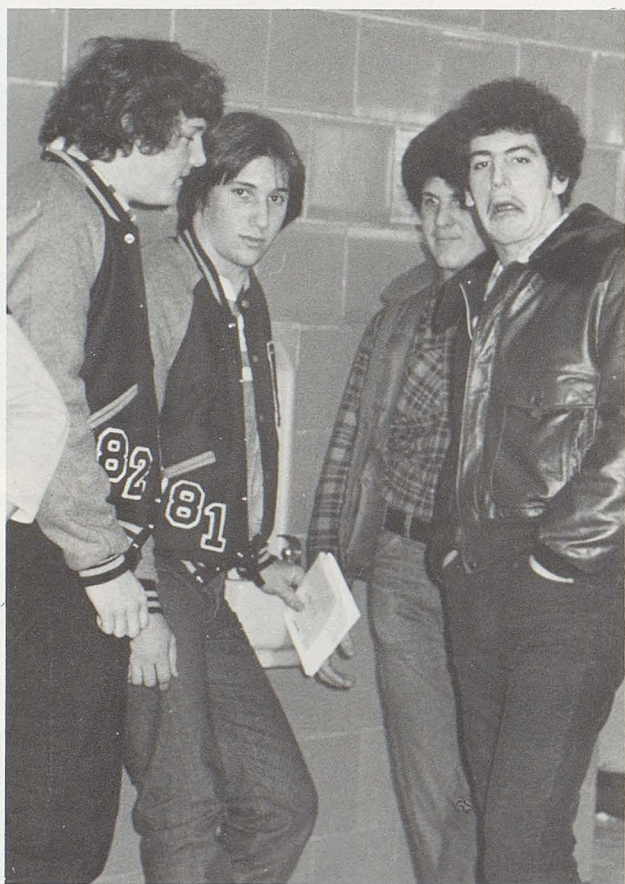

The program is designed to meet each student's individual abilities and needs. Students benefit from a structure setting where the necessary instruction and reinforcement of skills is provided.

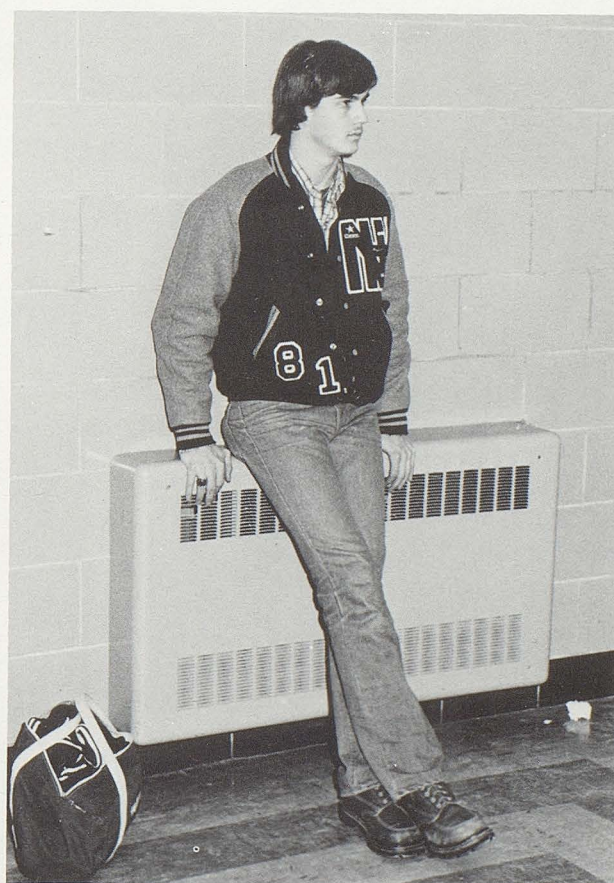

Curriculum objectives include self-realization, self-care, pre-vocational training, social responsibility, physical and recreational education, health, safety, and functional academic skills such as money, time, measurement, and developing a useful vocabulary.

Students receive specialized instruction through the Industrial Arts, Home Economics, Music, and Physical Education departments.

BOYS' SOCCER

Team Makes State Tournament

Under the coaching of Joe Janush, the 1980-81 Soccer team had a somewhat successful year. The team finished with a 7-8-2 record and made the state tournament, which they lost in the first round to Simsbury. Co-captains Matt Cahill and Brian Sauter, plagued with injuries during the middle of the season, were able to come back and finish the end of the year. Sophomore goalie Ricky Gherlone had a most impressive season, as did senior Mark Volpe (All-Housy 1st team) senior John Reilly, Junior Dave Gumbart (All-Housy 2nd team), and Junior Mark Sola. All team members gave excellent performances.

GIRLS' SOCCER

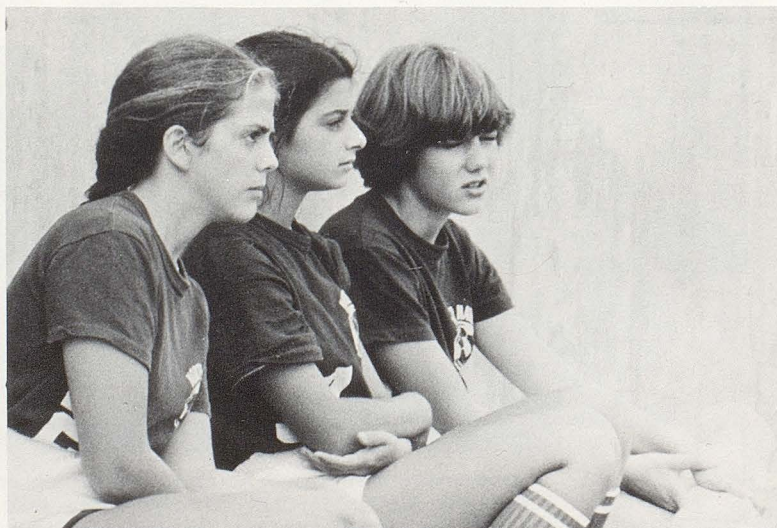

Girls Hit Double Digits

The Girls Soccer Team ranked up a 5-8-3 record this year. Outstanding performances were noted by all players, as once again they beat their rival, Hamden, with a score of three to one. The girls broke their own record this year by scoring 10 goals in one game, as they defeated Ridgefield with a score of 10-2. The future looks bright for this young team, as this was only their third year of playing.

ICE HOCKEY

Indians Scalp Spartans In Overtime

The North Haven High School Hockey Team, guided by Head Coach Jim Riccitelli and assistant Coach William Reagan, compiled a 9-4 record after the first thirteen games. The Division II State Champions in 1979-80 moved up in class to Division I this year and qualified for the state tournament.

The team was lead by senior, Co Captains, Marty Harrigan, and Neil Johnson. Harrigan was the leading scorer and in doing so scored his hundreth career point. Johnson, an all-state performer in 1979-80, led the always tough defense. Mike Silengo, a junior, all-state goalie in 1979-80 was outstanding in goal again this year. The teams most outstanding victory of the season was an upset of perennial Division I power Amity Regional, 4-3 in over time.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

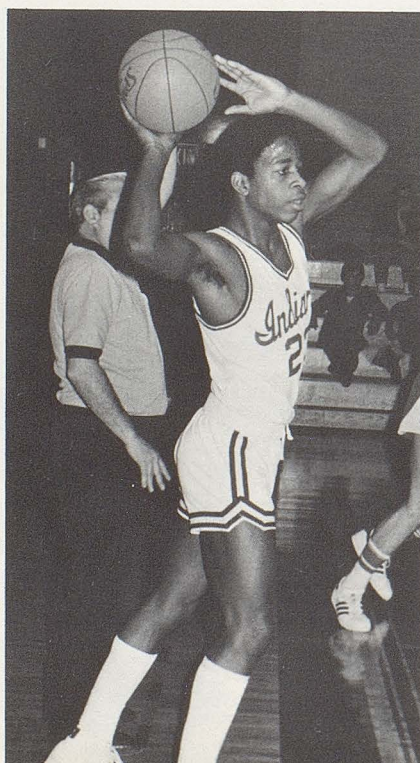

Double Overtime Victory Over Guilford

This year's varsity basketball team began its first season under head coach Mike Proto and his assistant Ed Crisafi. Although this year was viewed by many as a rebuilding one, the team did register such exciting upsets as a 61-59 double overtime victory over Guilford in the season opener. The varsity team was captained by Tom Bisighini, John Glenn, and John Reilly. In addition to the three captains, the team consisted of senior Walt Kenney and such promising underclassmen as John Ciulla, Mike Thaxton, Kyle O'Brien, John Wezowicz, Dave Diehl, Mike Canney, and Ken Vallone.

The junior varsity team was composed of players Jimmy Langan, Lenny Smith, Barry Kleinberg, David Ide, and Charlie Carmody.

Co-Presidents Alisa Boltman and Elizabeth Murray held many home meetings and arranged short term student exchanges with High Schools in Easton, CT and Springfield, VT. The club raised money by holding rummage, plant, and bake sales. Through hard work and generous donations the club was able to sponsor a foreign exchange student for the first time in quite a few years, at North Haven. The students name is Debbie Denis and she is from Kenya. It has been a learning experience for both Debbie and the students at North Haven, since her culture is so very different from the American way of life.

The Drama Club participated in many activities during the 1980-1981 year. In November the club, along with advisor Mrs. Roberts attended an all-day drama workshop sponsored by the Hartford Stage Company. While there, they learned about anything from script writing to stage combat. After Christmas vacation the club traveled to New York City to see the play "Deathtrap" on Broadway and everyone had a thoroughly enjoyable time.

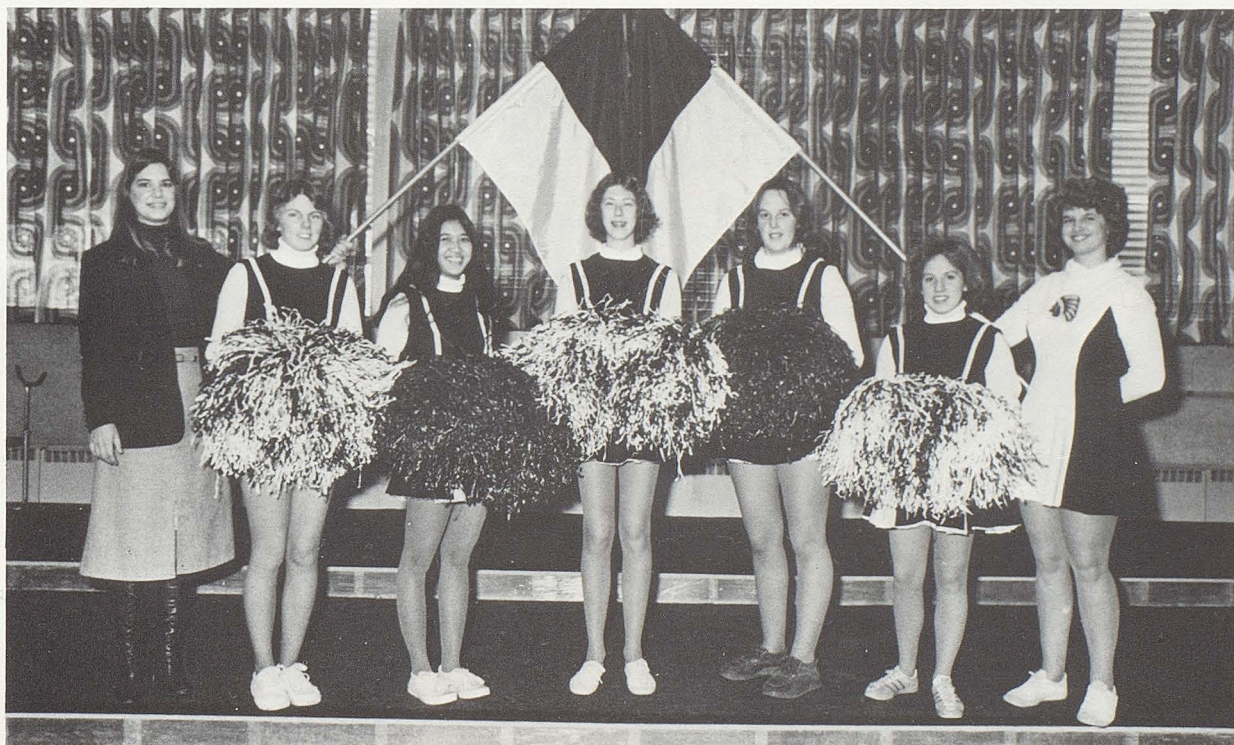

The club itself put on its own production of "Harvey" in December. Directed by Fred Prout and Dorothy Roberts, it received rave reviews. The Senior class hopes to put on an equally successful production in the Spring.

CONCERT BAND

MARCHING BAND

At the football games, the Marching Band entertained during the halftimes with lively music and routines. In the Fall, they sold candles to raise money for new uniforms. This year's officers were elected for the band and two small groups, a brass ensemble and flute quartet, were formed. Mrs. Cianca and Mr. Winsco are the advisors of both the Concert and Stage. The annual Band Concert was held in the Spring.

Preserving the memories of our years at North Haven High School was an honor. In designing Sachem '81, it was my goal to produce a yearbook that would be unique. At the same time I wanted it to represent the hard work and fun we all shared during our senior year. With the cooperation of the specific section editors and the undying patience of everyone involved we were able to overcome difficulties and finish our book. Special thanks go to our advisor, Mr. Nick Iannone, our sales representative, Mr. Bruce DuPuis, and Mr. Gerry DeLucia, from Creative Studios, who were there whenever we needed them. I would personally like to thank every yearbook editor and staff member for their cooperation in completing a book we can all be proud of. I would also like to extend, to each senior, congratulations on four years well done and wish everyone a very prosperous future.

Good Luck,

Jeffrey S. Deutsch

1981 Editors

We would like to take this time to write a few words about this year's Sachem and all the work which went into producing it. When we started to meet back in the fall, everyone who attended the first meeting was very enthusiastic. However, as time wore on some of the interest wore away as well. Many thanks should go to Mr. Iannone for pulling us together and pushing us along to get the work completed.

We speak for all the editors when we say that the yearbook was a lot more work than any of us had anticipated. Our first chore was to chart out the different sections of the book and to allot the pages to each section. With this job completed, we picked our theme and began to collect information and pictures to layout the book.

Probably the biggest problem which the staff faced was with meeting deadlines. It seemed as though they crept up on us more quickly than we were prepared for. We made a few, missed a few, but in the end we finally caught up with all the work and finished the Sachem '81.

Thanks once again to Mr. Iannone, Bruce Dupuis, and all our teachers, who were very patient with us when we needed class time to get the yearbook finished. We hope that this book has captured much of our four years here in school so that you will enjoy looking at and reading it in future years to come, after your years at North Haven High School are through.

Sincerely,

*Paula DeMeola

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, Jeff Deutsch, Editor-in-Chief of Sachem '84, leave all of Mr. Iannone's tremendous ability and patience to next year's lucky editor.

We, Jane and Dawn, leave a certain fence in the woods to someone who can climb better than we can.

We, Lori and Lori-Anne leave our adventures of four-wheeling in the Corn-field with Scott and Herman to anyone who can have as much fun as we did.

I, Janet Homa, leave with pleasure!

I, Mike Dellavalle, leave my skates and memories to my three nephews who will play in the future.

We, Brenda and Lori-Anne leave to the squad of 81-82 getting into a slight car accident going to a 6:00 a.m. practice.

I, Mike Ellis, leave the Astronomy class to Mr. Pesticci.

I, Angela Vinci, leave my excellent driving skills to Maureen McInnis who will take my drivers seat next year in the following of the varsity football bus.

We, Beth & Jan, leave Will & John a crowded tent, oreo cookies, "fish" and a black truck on Cape Cod.

I, Cris Criscuolo, leave this school to all those underclassmen, have a good time.

I, Elizabeth Bleicher, being of sound mind (occasionally) do hereby leave the telephone and my Parental Terrorist Society paraphernalia to Ricktopher. The summer parties to Larry McCarthy, Ms. Schonberger to Liela Tofig, and the very best hopes of happiness to BOOBY-who I really don't want to leave at all.

We, Lori & Lynne, leave frozen puddles in back of motels to adventurous ski-club members.

I, Pam Buehler, leave all the bad times I had in this school and take the good ones with me!

We, Donna & Cathy leave our B period free to whoever may take our places. We'll miss you!

I, Charlene, leave Joe's nasty comments and biting to anyone who could put up with it.

I, Sharon Desmond, (Tishabelle) leave Lyle Co Crocodile with all our saxophonic memories, hoping she'll always keep her "forf"'s and "fifs" straight, but never parallel.

We, the Rochester Beatles, leave our video tapes to ... no were taking them with us.

I, Peggy Walker, leave the West Campus wishing I was leaving the East.

We, Lynda & Donna leave all our great times in gym with Mrs. Urbanski to anyone who can take her exercises ...

I, Donna Mangino, leave my cousin Joey all the luck in the world with his High School years.

I, leave Danny Roberts to Barbie. (Have fun B.J.)

We, Donna Tiberio & Angela Romano hope that two friends, like we are, can share all the happy times that we shared together.

We, A.G., J.L., F.M., T.L., leave all of our D.S. talents to anyone who could fill our shoes.

We, Julie & Donna, leave all our great senior memories to anyone who can find them!!

I Bogie, leave my spot on the heater in cafe B to my buddy Mrs. zpPalumbo.

We, Maria, Suzanne, Beth, and Laura, leave all our undone homework and all our sick jokes to whoever wants them.

I, Darcy Red, leave my jumping abilities to the squad of "82" (you'll need them)

We (Cochise & Crash) leave Mrs. Johnson her basketball.

We, Peggy, Arnie, Leslie, Janice, & Jane the McDonalds song to Dawn and the cop. 11/14/80

We, Lynette and Leah leave Scott with what he got.

We, Frank & Suzanne leave Miss Co. the last part of a three part film strip, erased of course.

I, Sue Gherlone, leave Sandy Howd and Dave Diehl the honesty, friendship and love of "Sue & Brian's" relationship.

I, Anna Block-Hedqvist, leave my Swedish accent, nobody such as I needs to use it in Sweden.

I, Charyn Levin, leave to anyone who wants them, all the baby, ziplock, fetal pigs I worked on in Bio.

I, Tina, leave Debbie and Paula any good time they could possibly have in the state of CT, and Paula #9 is now yours.

We, Wendy & Fran (The Reilly Sisters) leave Tom (Lil Bro) Reilly, our locker, an excuse list, a stick of gum, and a fresh fly.

I, Lori Schreter leave my brother Gary, a successful and rewarding experience next year when he enters high school.

I, a concerned party, leave the party of my concern to "Glor".

I, Donna Devito, leave my third pole to Sned, Midget, and Tink.

I, Lisa Astarita, leave Jean and Dolly lots of luck to cope with this school next year.

I, Patty Esposito leave locker #276 with all the writing on it to Curt LeQuire.

I, Mary-Beth, leave my seat in Mr. Grove's room to anyone who can stand his singing.

I, Cris Foley, leave behind my unique hand gesture to Matt, Kyle, and Todd.

We, Patty, Lisa, Donna, Lauren, Marie, Paula, leave the 8:30 New Haven Bus for everyone else who needs a break every once in a while.

I, Mary-Sue Acquarulo, leave all my good times and memories to my brother Dom.

We, G.T. & S.E. leave Miss Ruffolo Mr. Darcy.

I, Steve Sosensky leave one Gillette Altra Razor to Kenny Imperato for his 21 birthday.

I, Linda, leave all the good times that I've had at North Haven High School to my sister, Susan.

I, Ralph Black, wish I could kick a field goal as good as Tommy Casey did.

We, Lori-Anne & Mary Beth leave our friendship to anyone who can be as good of friends as us.

We, Lynne & Lori leave the ditch behind Zion Lutheran to those coordinated enough to flee across it as swiftly as we did.

We, Lynne & Cara leave the spirit of F.A.S. to Jo & Sue.

I, Lori Woytowich, leave my #7 soccer shirt to anyone who can be as crazy as I was.

I, Steve Sosensky, leave all my cheatsheets and shifty eyes to anyone who wants to brag about good grades.

I, Nancy Hunt, leave my top PSAT/NMSQT scores to the next nerd dumb enough to get them.

I, Lori Schreter, leave Mr. Groove memories of our interesting discussions at various times, and the wall space reserved for me to the next unfortunate student, who also has to put up with his singing!

I, Cris Foley leave my expert debating skills and yelling of "point of personal privilege" in Model Congress to Todd, Matt, and Kyle.

I, John Swinger, leave my sousaphone to whoever gets suckered into playing it.

We, Neil & Lori, leave our unforgettable fights to anyone who could make up as fast as we did.

I, Tina, leave Jen-ni-fer all my trinkets so she may be as wild and have as much fun as I did.

I, A loving student, leave wishing I could come back.

I, Bruce Wegner, leave my car and spelling ability to my sister, Diane.

I, Scrub, leave my unused razors to Mike Capasso.

I "klutz" leave all my special memories of the Mad Gremlin with this school!

I, Adina McGee, leave with the wonderful memory of my junior year and all the fun we all had before the change.

I, Angela Romano, leave my typewriter to my sister Mary and hope her fingers turn black like mine did.

I, Angela Vinci, leave my famous "Mastromarino" football shirt to #43 himself, Tony.

We, Mary-Beth & Donna leave our 1980 New Year's Eve "Experience" to anyone who would like to have it!!!

I, John Glenn, leave my memories to Mr. Demayo, who taught me the true meaning of "Baseball".

We, Cecil & Eggy, leave the future girls' swim team members at the mercy of Mr. Burns.

I, Bronco, leave my Donald Duck sneeze to Doris, Michelle, and Melissa.

I, Karen Clarke, leave Physical Ed, Cosmic Ray, and Pro A with deep regret.

We, MarySue, Charlene and Andrea leave our watergirl's job to anyone who could stand the cold weather.

We, Donna, Julie, and Stephen leave all our good times in "1980" to Mark, Freddie & Dennis.

I, Laura Koutsopolos, leave Danielle Boileau my smile.

I, Cara Malavoti, leave all my completed laps at Brookside Field to anyone willing to endure the pain.

I, Sue Evans, leave my brother Karl, the good times to come in his junior and senior year.

I, Lori Schreter, leave all my logic to Mr. Pesticci.

We, Janice, Diane, Cathy and Lori, leave the Food Mart gang all our empty 5¢ returnables.

OF THE CLASS OF '81

I, Joe Murphy, leave to all film interested students, the extensive film courses and film library of N.H.H.S.

I, Laura Hartman, leave this school to my two sisters, who will get stuck with it for another year.

We, the chain (Chris, Marty, John, Greg), leave our collection of returnables to anyone brave enough to fight through the pricklers at Blue Cross.

We, Cathy Janice, & Diane, leave North Haven High School with pleasure.

I Rajiv Sawhney, do hereby leave the whole spectrum of "spronting" terminology to all those wishing to indulge in it, especially Dave Karas.

I, John Hong do hereby leave my bow tie to anyone who needs extra points in chemistry.

I, Ted Jasmin, leave North Haven High School with its status minded, unfunny overly sarcastic students, who have little or no intelligence what so ever.

We, Lori & Leslie, leave our rectal thermometers to anyone who would put them in the wrong place as we did.

I, Bob, leave my large amounts of chest hair to Tony Mastromarino.

I, Greg Barbiero, leave my empty bags of sand to anyone who feels they can fill them.

I, Neil Murphy, leave my underground knowledge and Finesse to Chris, who will need it.

We, Cathy & Sharon, leave all our early dismissals to anyone who needs a break once in a while.

I, Cathy Massa, leave all my agrivation and headaches to anyone who might be able to handle them.

We, Lori & Leslie leave Mr. Schatzlein to rest in peace knowing he will never have to put up with our annoying attitudes and not having us in his class again.

We, Linda & Stacie, leave nothing because we are taking it all with us.

We, Spock, Walkhead, Vig, and Arnie, leave our paintbrushes and paint cans to anyone who can paint a classier number on the pressbox.

We, the rowdies of '81, leave our blecher section to any underclassmen who can yell as loudas we can.

I, Bob Brancato, leave my J.V. Baseball scrubship and my tremendous upper body strength to Dave Diehl.

I, Chris Foley, leave behind my lust for Triple Decker hamburgers to Matt.

I, Patti leave my success and fond memories to my brothers, Brian and John, who I hope will succeed in all their future endeavors at North Haven High.

We, Bern, Cat and Shar, leave all our excuses, stories, and compulsive lying because we hated doing them.

We Lynne, Maire, & Cathy leave the memories of Explorers, New Hampshire, BlackBerry B, Booman, Super Activity and Cape Cod to future post #1 member.

We, Lori, Donna, Leslie, & Julie leave our center food lunches on the Green to anyone who can sneak out of school.

I, Steve Sosensky, leave Dave Karas not only my fluency in the language of the unemployed, but also my exquisite debating skills.

We, the cheering section at the 1980 Volleyball games, leave our tremendous voices to Miss Dolan for next year.

I, Chris Foley, leave behind N.H.H.S., in hopes to find a Barbi Benton with brains.

I, David DeAngelo, leave my trumpet playing ability to anyone good enough to play.

We, Leah, Lisa, Laura, and Lynette leave Mr. Keough to the people who get him next year.

I, Broncomania, leave a can of Cruex to Tony LaVorgna.

We, Dawn, Peggy, and Leslie, leave Mr. Keough our "typical female responses" so he can use them to pick on someone else.

We, Solar Poky and One Shoe Dotty, leave all the memories of pokadots to Mr. Burt Room 501.

We, Diand, Cathy & Janice, leave Shelly & Aimbow all the good times we had last year!

We, Donna, Julie, Mary-Beth, and Lynda, leave our rented A to Z tent to anyone who can stand the smell for a whole week.

I, Moto, leave my Trolling techniques to anyone who finds it useful.

We, the Cheetas, leave all are monkies to Ms. Sanfrancisco.

I, Tina, leave Karne, anything she needs to make the best of her senior year even thou I won't be around.

We, Lori-Anne and Mary-Beth, leave our night watching "10" to anyone who can put up with Donna saying ... "Wanna Velamint?"

We Andy Decusati & Mike Dellavalle, leave our memories of #52 Ralph Black to anyone who can fill our captains shoes.

I, Captain of Majorettes, leave Kathy Riggs and Beth Clarke the N.H.H.S. Band(?), frozen fingers, dropped batons, and Friday uniforms.

I, Lynne Kelsey, leave 16 Roundhill Road and it's memories to Cara, Dawn, Jane, Helene, Janis, and especially Peggy.

We, Wers, Walkhead, and Vig, leave our tardy records to anyone who thinks they can come close to breaking them.

We, Schatzy, Skett, and Diz, leave Mr. Demayo a pacifier, for those times when he regresses into the "Oral Stage."

I, Peter Reilly, have left my teeth on the forty yard line.

I, Fran, leave Wendy and Jan, our late night adventures as the "PPP"

We, The class of '81, leave reorganization and all the fun that goes with it, to future classes.

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE CLASS OF '81

FROM THE CHEERLEADERS

GOOD LUCK SENIORS

FROM THE MAJORETTES

Sea Winds

The silhouette of the sails against the sunset
Mirrored my own thoughts.
The golden ball of fire
set slowly in the west.
And I too, set out to new adventures.
I was committed to the seas.
Their whims and fancies
could show me all.
To sail the swells and
ride the winds;
That was my answer.
To discover and learn
All that I could
And only then would I be free to choose
Which of the many winds would guide me
into the future.

Susan Lamar
