desiderata,

the desire to achieve one's goal

You are a child of the universe,

no less than the trees & the stars;

you have a right to be here.

And whether or not it is clear to you,

no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should.

with all its sham,

drudgery,

and broken dreams,

*It is still a beautiful world.
Strive to be happy.*

Take me to the sea, or take me to the mountain, or to the meadow that lies beyond the city. If we arrive at a town, where lights are dazzling and faces dancing with slight fear I shall paint a thousand faces, each lit brightly in its image. And if we part, wherefore you may go to the lights and faces, and I to the wilderness, promise to bring me your tales, and I to you shall bring, some dried flowers of wisdom. O gifts of the trail. Our paths shall cross many time.

"All of my life I've waited for this year to come and now that it's here I kind of hate to see it go. We all will go our own way in the new world ahead to seek the best of what life has to offer. The last twelve years were only preparation for everyday situations and problems in the future even though you will never really know it when you apply what you've learned. Now it is different, now it has to be right. Be careful, some mistakes can never be changed and they may be the worst. Strive for success and happiness always and when things look dim remember the good times and everything will be just that much brighter and that much easier to bear."

"People change, time moves on. Every midnight gives itself to dawn; when you left, I didn't think it strange, after all people change. People change, so it goes, comes the fall, the cold wind blows. Give your love, get heartbreak in exchange; after all people change. You know as well as I, with just the same old sky, a bird gets mighty restless and has to fly. People change, now you're back, if there's something my smile seems to lack; I don't love you now, but if you think it strange -

People change."

"It is a book of plays and I wonder if perhaps you might not wish to read it with me.

We could even take off our leashes and let our minds roam into another world."

KIM SIMON

7 Garfield Avenue

"One generation passeth away,
and another generation cometh;
but the earth abideth forever.

The sun also ariseth, and the sun goeth down, and hasteneth to his place where he arose.

The wind goeth toward the south, and turneth about unto the north; it whirleth about continually, and the wind returneth again according to his circuits.

All the rivers run into the sea; yet the sea is not full; unto the place from whence the rivers come thither they return again."

"This is a stone, and within a certain length of time it will perhaps be soil and from the soil it will become plant, animal or man. Previously I should have said: This stone is just a stone; it has no value, it belongs to the world of Maya, but perhaps within the cycle of change it can also become man and spirit, it is also of importance. That is what I should have thought. But now I think: This stone is stone. I do not respect and love it because it was one thing and will become something else, but because it has already long been everything and always is everything."

Coach, I think I did it.

Jerry's doing the Charleston.

I sure wish they'd clean up this place.

CLASS WILLS

I, Joanne Camarota, leave NHHS with many happy memories and good times that I will always remember and look back on.

I, Ed Halkovetz, leave to Bob Glenn the empty net where my reputation of the Human Sieve was begun.

I, Denise Calvano, leave nine busted lockers for anyone who cares to use them.

I, Susan Kupinski, leave the noisy classrooms and crowded halls of NHHS to further my education.

We, TNT, leave locker 1342 in the hopes that someone else can straighten out the dilemma.

I, Bunny Maiocco, leave my smile to Lynn Fonda in hopes that she'll shine next year.

I, Mary Valla, leave the dress form in room 204 to my double that she may be as successful in her attempt at draping as I was. Good luck!

I, Art Aylward, leave my track shoes to Ralph Chieffo.

I, Nancy Clement, leave to Cheryl Bertolini the hope that she'll have as "regular" a senior year as I did. Have fun kid!

I, Jeanne Rosadina, leave my library leg to the memory of Charlie.

I, Timothy Marsh, leave my two Varsity letters, my gym shorts that I have never brought home, my 27 overdue library books, my broken slide rule, my old college catalogs, the inevitable Mr. Schatzlein, 2,000 extra copies of TORCH, and 4 partially burned issues of IKON PRESS.

I, Paula Matthew, leave to Mrs. Luscomb a bottle of Excedrin and to my sister Janette the hopes that she will leave NHHS with many memories.

I, Rosanne Camarota, leave NHHS with many fond and wonderful memories.

I, Lisa Gormley, leave Modern American Lit with modern American gratitude and optimism.

I, Debbie Hansen, leave Frank Fiore's kidding to anyone who can take it.

We, El-Joneso, El-Clemo, and El-Harro, leave "THE BROOK" to anyone who is daring enough to attempt breaking the world's record.

I, Pete Saldamarco, leave my L-88 to anyone who can handle it.

We, Pam, Ann and Sue, leave to Cheryl, Michele, Ann, Denise, Sharon and Lauren, thousands of cookies and brownies to give to next year's soccer, hockey and swim teams.

We, Donats, the Giant-Braids, the Shrimp and Blackie leave the library in silence.

We, Barb, Lisa, and Bunny, leave to Fiors a big mohadaney "K.M.H."

I, MaryLou, leave Bob to Bernie in hopes that Bernie will learn a few things.

We, Donna and Nancy, leave our locket, bracelet and watch to "jewelry box" McCafferty.

I, Tom Heeran, leave the teachers with less sanity than they think they have.

We, Judy and Susanne, leave Mr. Scimone's Chemistry class with about as much knowledge as we came in with.

I, Lisa Gentile, leave my mohadaney walk to my sister Mary in hopes that she'll keep up the tradition.

We, Linda Farmer, Tim Marsh, Peter Dzialo and Tom Heeran of TORCH, leave Mr. Schatzlein a little crazier, Mr. Gawron with less hair and the Board of Education with a bill for all the paper we wasted.

I, Sue Freije, leave to my sister Lisa all the happy band rehearsals she can stomach.

We, Jerry and Judy, leave behind us many memories of happiness in our high school years.

We, Ro and Jo, leave NHHS with the knowledge that we have made many friends here and had unforgettable times that we will always remember.

We, Patty and Paula, leave our homeroom seats to anyone who can follow our example of being late everyday.

I, Doreen Chapman, leave to the teachers of N.H. my brother Keith and sisters Brenda and Adrienne, in hopes that they can make it through the thirteen years ahead.

We, Ellen and MaryLou, leave Phil and Mike behind in hopes that no one picks them up.

We, Tone and Gorm, leave NHHS always remembering our giddiness, bonairs, and our sincere and very lucky friendship.

We, the Three Stooges, leave one roll to anyone who "gets stranded."

We, Don Ham and Chris Migliaro, leave the term "buffone" to any juniors who think they can fulfill this position as good as Tony Sequino.

We, Lynn, Pat and Ruth, leave Frank Fiore all his pucks.

I, Florence Smith, leave to Justin Adinolfi - Mrs. Burt, and to Mr. Simens and the guidance office to guard and enjoy.

I, Teej, leave to you, Draiz, all the chocy peeme in the cafeteria.

I, Rosanne Camarota, leave Mr. Simens' English class with much more knowledge than I went in with and for this I will always be grateful. Thank you for being such a great teacher and an equally great person.

I, Donna Tomczyk, leave NHHS to all the underclassmen who can survive their remaining years.

I, Mike Moniello, leave the title of being the biggest bull thrower of the class to anyone who can pile it as high as I can.

I, Lisa Cretella, leave "Jack" to Daine, and to Paula and Barbara, one package of Kool-Aid and a box of cookies, in hopes that they will be the lucky refreshment chairmen for next year's team.

I, Lisa, leave to my brother Drew my alarm clock, in hopes that he doesn't have as much trouble getting up each morning and making the bus.

We, Rose and Debbie, leave to Mr. Burrill all our problems and frustrations. We could never have made it through our senior year without you!

I, DeMalolay Man, leave NHHS, hoping that I have shown at least a few people what it's like to be a part of a great organization.

We, Jo-Ann, Bunny, Kathy, Ann, Ellen and Nancy, leave 6th mod on Wednesday and Friday in the cafe to anyone bold enough to listen.

We, Denise, Karen, Koreen, Sue and Tom, leave five empty seats in the library for anyone awake before 8:00 A.M.

We, Nancy and Donna, leave to "Beck" a meatball sub (to eat while rushing from a swim meet to a basketball game) and a change purse in hopes that she won't have to fish through her sandbox next time.

I, Joanne Camarota, leave to any junior the use of the tapes in the Business Resource Center in hopes that they will try as hard as I did.

I, Pam Provasoli, leave Mr. Burrill's Steno class to the lucky juniors who will have him again next year. Good luck!

We, L.G. and T.P., leave "General Hospital" and "One Life to Live" to Jesse and Josh.

We, David Glasson, Brent Rohloff and Mark Gelinis, leave all of the deadlines for next year's SACHEM photographers.

I, Janet Carafa, leave North Haven with a smile, but also with a snicker for Kirt Barker.

We, Stella and Laurie, leave NHHS to our brothers and sisters in a couple of years.

We, the girls from the window lav, leave the lav to Kathy, Darcy, Wilber and anyone else who can stand the "Blonde Bomber" and her "Alright lovely ladies . . ."

I, GERALYN Colavolpe, leave to my sister Elisa all of NHHS, hoping she will have many good years to look back on.

We, R.O. and D.J., leave Saturday nights and two bottles of strawberry wine, a pint of S.C. and three beers to anyone who can drink as much as we did and still dance without falling over.

I, Sue Abbott, leave North Haven the prayer that Our Heavenly Father will watch over you and guide you always.

We, Pam, Doreen, Pam and Vanessa, leave to Lin, Carol, Doug and Mike as many donuts as you want, and to Waffa - the strength to resist them.

I, Linda Saccavino, leave my mushroom in Mr. Caudle's room to Wilber.

I, Frank McDonough, leave this school knowing that Mr. Diamond and Mr. Mascagna are the two nicest guys I know, cause they believe all the bull I throw. Amen.

I, the final Pallatto, leave NHHS to my nieces and nephews.

We, GERALYN and Pam, leave behind at NHHS "Our List", many long talks, and also a lot of good times.

I, Rose Christoforo, leave NHHS to my sister Cindy, in hopes that she will have as many happy memories to leave behind as I have.

We, Ruth, Lynn, and Pat, leave the Horns and Ding the exciting weekends in North Haven and hope that Virginia's stereo never breaks down.

I, Bob Zarbo, leave to Rick DiLella and Bruce White all the chicks that I didn't have a chance to go out with.

I, Trina Solecki, will Mr. Rickart to any junior girl brave enough yet smart enough to take Physics!! You'll do some "cool" things!

I, Suzanne Semmler, leave to Connie Geanakoplis a perfect A and to Carol Tiedemann, the white socks that Valerie no longer wears.

We, Mare, Toni, Dor, Nance, Ro, Mare, El, Donna, Rob and Lynn leave to Becky the privilege of saying "Hub" at the start of each cheer, to Lynn, cymbals and a drum to help her keep time, and to the squad of "74", our social moth.

I, Nancy Kotchian, leave my basketball socks to Virginia and Debbie.

I, Robin McGalliard, leave my sex appeal charm, and animal magnetism to Pat Florio (who needs it).

I, Carol Proto, leave to my cousin Mike, two more successful years in sports, and to my cousin Cheryl, four happy years at NHHS.

We, Vanessa Harrington and Joanne Camarota, leave to Cathy Keefe the glare from Mr. Grove's ties in hopes that she doesn't get blinded.

I, Chris Earle, being of more developed mind and body through my experiences here, leave NHHS. To the administration and faculty, I leave my admiration for their efficient job and many minds safely in their care. To the underclassmen, one thought: There were many of us who didn't use this school as we should have. For this we will be paying eternally - don't make the same mistake.

I, Kevin Grady, leave my deepest thanks and appreciation to Coach Aceto for all the help he gave me.

I, D.C.P., along with the SACHEM staff photographers, leave a question: "What happened to L.E.C.G.'s centerfold?"

We, the 1973 Layout Staff, leave 1 broken scaleograph, 1 warped ruler, 1 half-inch grease pencil, and endless nights of madness to the idiots who do Layout next year!

We, the class officers and members of the class of '73, leave Mrs. Diamond and Mr. Reed with nothing to do next year but recuperate.

We, the editors and staff of SACHEM '73, leave our dedication to the staff of SACHEM '74. We also leave the remnants of our frayed advisors, Mr. Fitzgerald and Mr. Burrer, hoping that SACHEM '74 may piece them back together again. We thank them all for their time and trouble in helping us make SACHEM '73 a representation of North Haven High School.

DESIDERATA

GO PLACIDLY AMID THE NOISE & HASTE, & REMEMBER WHAT PEACE THERE MAY BE IN SILENCE. AS FAR AS POSSIBLE WITHOUT surrender be on good terms with all persons. Speak your truth quietly & clearly; and listen to others, even the dull & ignorant; they too have their story. ☛ Avoid loud & aggressive persons, they are vexations to the spirit. If you compare yourself with others, you may become vain & bitter; for always there will be greater & lesser persons than yourself. Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans. ☛ Keep interested in your own career, however humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time. Exercise caution in your business affairs; for the world is full of trickery. But let this not blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals; and everywhere life is full of heroism. ☛ Be yourself. Especially, do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity & disenchantment it is perennial as the grass. ☛ Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue & loneliness. Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself. ☛ You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees & the stars; you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should. ☛ Therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive Him to be, and whatever your labors & aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life keep peace with your soul. ☛ With all its sham, drudgery & broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world. Be careful. Strive to be happy. ☛ ☛
