DEDICATION

For years our class of 1994
Has been quite lucky and blessed.
While many advisors come and go,
Our two are simply the best.

Beginning when we were in tenth grade,
Two women have been great.
Mrs. Jensen and Mrs. Adanti
Were available on any date.

Mrs. Jensen the librarian,
Would help with finding books.
She never yelled or got annoyed,
Just gave us funny looks.

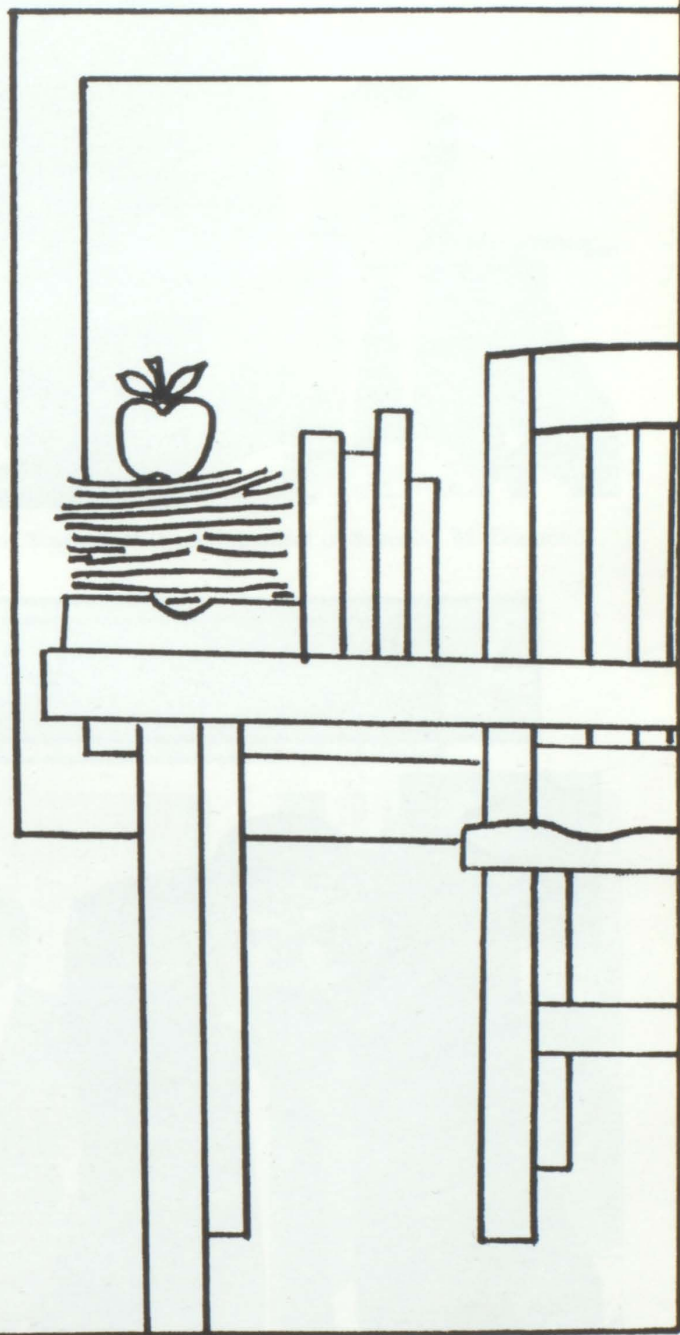

Mrs. Adanti, in the course of her day,
Would always inspire kids' art.
She'd demonstrate and discipline,
Always playing a vital part.

And with the guidance of these ladies,
Our class has come to be
The model for all other grades,
The highest standard you will see.

So here's to you, our two fearless leaders,
We can say nothing more.
Thank you for your time and enthusiasm.
Love, the Class of '94.

Entering the '93 season, the North Haven Boys' Cross Country team was picked by many coaches to finish at the top of the Housy. A talented group of seniors provided skilled leadership all season. Unfortunately, captain Joe Gabbard missed the entire season with mono, hurting the depth of the team. Despite the loss, the boys finished with an impressive 17-4 record. The team was led by two-time All-Housy and All-Country runner Steve Solecki, who broke North Haven's school course record with a time of 16:29. Senior Newcomer David Quintiliani also earned All-Housy honors.

The 1993 North Haven Girls' Cross Country team was composed of only five runners, and was hurt by injury and illness all season. With no seniors, the key runner of the season was Pam Flanagan, who finished with Second Team All-Housy honors. The team hopes to improve next year.

The North Haven field hockey team came along way in its '93 season. For years field hockey was a sport with barely enough girls to make a varsity team, but just recently the interest in the sport played with a curved "stick" and hard plastic "ball" has grown. This year the team's numbers increased to an all time high of 32, forming a varsity team as well as a young junior varsity team. Led by the three senior Captains: Rachelle Audette (midfield), Minnie Keh (defense), and Erin Seekamp (midfield), the girls finished with a record of 5-8-3. Because the Housatonic League has the best field hockey teams in the state, this record is a great accomplishment for North Haven. Although the statistics do not show a "winning" season, the team worked and played hard the entire 3 months, beating their long time rival Lyman Hall, and giving Cheshire, the class M finalist, a run for their money. The leading scorer, Jen Setaro made the All-State Team, and Erin Seekamp received honorable mention for All-State. Also, Rachelle Audette and Jen Acabbo both received Al Housy honorable mention. With only the loss of three seniors, the majority of the team, a promising group with much to look forward to, remains. Good Luck!

Although the season did not live up to the expectations of the players, the North Haven football team gave it their all and the real victory lay in the heart of every individual player. Despite their frustration, the team took the field each game, putting their record behind them and playing with as much enthusiasm as a team undefeated. The personal victory for every player was giving one hundred percent even when the chips were down. Led by captains Dan Scali and Mike Melillo, the Indians were victorious in a home match against the Hornets of East Haven. The sportsmanship award went to Sean Macauley and the MVP awards went to Jeffrey Smith and Marino Perfetti.

The North Haven Boys' Varsity Soccer Team enjoyed a successful season under the guidance of head coach, Tom Poitras. The Indians finished the regular season with a record of eleven wins and five losses, placing them third in the Housatonic League. The greatest highlight of the season was a 1-0 victory over Shelton. At that point in the season, the team was 7-2, temporarily holding a first place position in the league. During the postseason, the eighth seeded Indians advanced to the quarterfinals by defeating Ledyard 5-0. Sadly, the season ended in the quarterfinals with a 2-1 defeat at hands of the eventual state champion, Hand High of Madison.

The most valuable player of the team, voted by the players, was Jon Vail, who led the Indians with 26 goals, a school record. Vail was also selected, by the leagues' coaches, for All Housatonic Team, along with Scott Dulay and Matt Jokl. Goalkeeper Vin Lewandowski anchored the team with six shutouts, while Paul Bard and Justin Pileggi provided an excellent defensive front. Tri-captains, Walter Kosack, Chris Puglia, and Steve Vollono send their best wishes to next year's team.

The girls' soccer team, working with new goalie Sara Couture, finished their season with a 7-4-4 record. Led by captains Sarah Howlett and Cara Rescigno, the lady Indians managed to defeat league rival Lyman Hall 3-2 in overtime, as well as a tie with Sheehan's formidable Titans 1-1. After beating Berlin in the first round of the state tournament, the girls lost in the second round to number one seeded Tolland. Because of the girls' ability to come together as a team, their playing improved greatly by the conclusion of the season.

Katrina Borisjuk, Sarah Howlett, and Alycia Kowal were named All Housy and Niki Sideropolous received honorable mention. Sarah was also named All Area.

Next year the Indians will lose Sarah Howlett, Cara Rescigno, Lori Pragano, and Lisa Ranciato, but the underclassmen look forward to a terrific season.

The 1993 Girls' Swim Team, captained by Carrie Blumenthal and Rachel Solomon, experienced a record-breaking season. Tested through competition against many of the state's most powerful swimmers, North Haven's individuals and relay teams set school and class M. records. Key swimmers included freshmen Katie Armitage, Meredith Jackson, Andrea Zingarella, sophomore Lisa Pastore, and junior Laura Scarpitti. Senior diver Lindsay Maki also contributed to the Indian's efforts. A highlight of the season occurred when the 200 yard medley team attained their goal of breaking the two minute mark at states. The last home meet showcased a memorable moment as seniors swam their last lap.

COACHES AND CAPTAINS: T. DiGiovanni, R. Benarroch, K. Scafariello, M. Monaco, P. Beale.

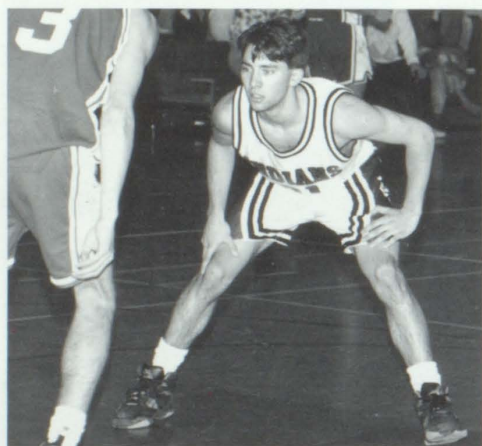

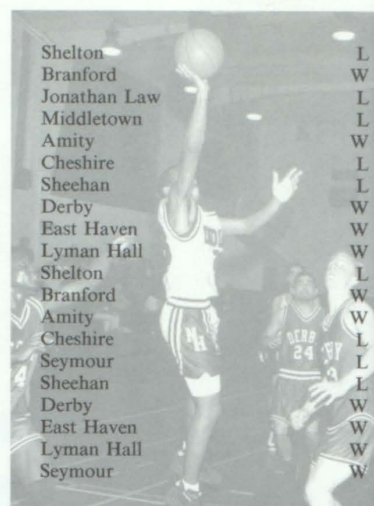

The 1993 volleyball team had a challenging fall season. Qualifying for the State Tournament, the team really persevered under the leadership of Marcie Monaco, Kelly Scafariello, and Rebecca Benarroch, the tri-captains. Coaches Patti Beale and Tom DiGiovanni encouraged everyone to stay focused and play hard. The girls took their advice and made it to the quarterfinals in the State Tournament. For their efforts, Marcie Monaco was awarded Most Valuable Player, Rebecca Benarroch received the Sportsmanship Award, and Liz Borrelli and Jen Mortimer shared the Most Improved Player title at the fall sports banquet. The team loses one senior to graduation and so it promises to be a strong unit next season.

COACHES AND CAPTAINS: M. Proto (coach), P. Civitello, R. Rafferty, T. Sasser (coach).

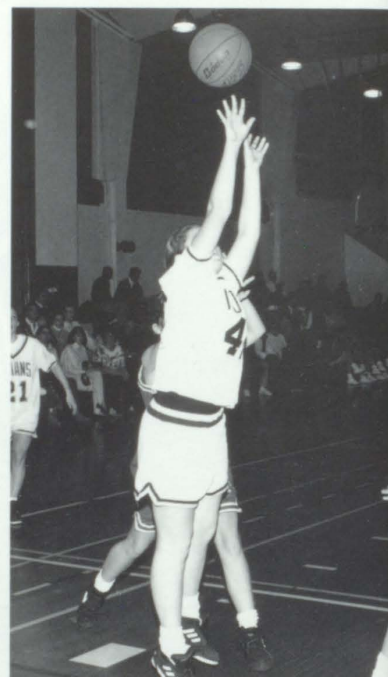

For the first time in five years, the Boys' Basketball team won their way to the Housy and state tournaments with an 11-9 record. Coached by Mike Proto and led by captains Pete Civitello and Bob Rafferty, seniors Vin Suppa, Chris Viesselman, Jeff Gallagher, John Watts, Jeff Mortimer and juniors Garrett Fitzgerald and Dion Watts shot, "no-look" passed and dunked to the Housy tournament. The first game vs. number-one-seeded Cheshire was a 62-51 victory, pushing the Indians to the finals where they lost to Sheehan 66-40. Nevertheless, the boys closed their outstanding season with a bang since this will be the final year of the Housatonic league.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

COACHES AND CAPTAINS: M. Marone, L. Ranciato, C. Rescigno, S. Maher.

The Girls' basketball team was led, this year by captains Cara Rescigno and Lisa Ranciato. The starting line-up included the co-captains, senior Kelly Lawler and juniors Sara Couture and Dawn Pellegrino. The team battled a season like no other, stressed with one disappointment after another. Despite their frustration, the girls weathered the stormy season with pure sportsmanship. One significant breakthrough for the team occurred just after their game against Amity when senior captain Cara Rescigno received honorable mention and was named athlete of the week by the New Haven Register. Proudly, the girls kept their hearts in the game, left their aggravation off the court and managed to close out their season with a win.

Led by team captains Chris Errato and Jason Rothfuss, the young team dominated the Housy. Though the team lacked consistency, the boys qualified for the Division I state tournament. Seeded eighth, the boys defeated the seventh seed Green Wave of New Milford in a 3-2 double overtime victory. In the state quarterfinals the boys were challenged by first seed Simsbury. Despite the gallant efforts of the team, the Indians lost in the fourth overtime period. Chris Errato's brilliant goal tending kept the Indians, who were outshot 71-27, in the game. Because of his phenomenal playing, Chris received New Haven Register's Player of the Week honors.

SENIORS: Row 1: R. Malerba, J. Ferraiuolo. Row 2: T. Tirozzi, K. Mitchell, K. Cargan, M. Virginelli.

The swimmers finished the season with a 5-7 overall record. The highlight of the regular season was a tri-meet win against Shelton and East Haven. Five swimmers who made it to states were Kyle Mitchell (200 IM, Breaststroke), Captain Keith Cargan (Butterfly), Jack Kennedy (50 Free, Backstroke), Larry Rudnick (50 and 100 Freestyle), and Brian Cadman (200 IM, 500 Free).

The Indians placed in the top 10 at State Opens due to the outstanding efforts of Cadman, Kennedy and the two relays. The six seniors, Tim, Mike, John, Kyle, and Keith were happy with their times and their season, and were proud to have swum for NHHS.

The Girls' Powderpuff Football team proved themselves worthy of a victory this year. They took the practice field late September, under the coaching of Todd Stoeffler and Ron Ciasullo, to learn the basics of football, not to mention 48 offensive plays. With offensive and defensive captains Tara Connolly and Nicole Barnebei, and special teams captains Lori and Lisa Ranciato, Tricia Cannavaro and Danielle Perrotto, the offense was unstoppable and the defense was unbeatable. Touchdowns by Alicia Heffernan, Jen DaVia, Krista Basilio, and Cara Rescigno gave the Indians a 49-27 blowout against Cheshire. Congratulations to these remarkable senior athletes.

Dedication, spirit, and excellence define the '93 '94 North Haven Cheerleading Squad. Settling for no less than the best, practice, practice, practice was the habitual routine for the team. Under the enthusiastic leadership of captains Nicole Prunier and Jennifer Davia, and coaches Kathleen Crisafi and Jodie Williams, the team was inspired to be the best squad North Haven had to offer! Their competition standings were remarkable and proved the hard work and self discipline displayed by the girls. Proudly and successfully, they represented NHHS.

Inspired by superb leadership, the North Haven Majorettes had a very successful year. Captain Debbie Hines led the squad of eleven girls to a memorable season while Coach Stacy Franco inspired the team to always perform to the best of their ability. The Majorettes were seen at home football and basketball games dancing and twirling to the latest music. With new costumes and a new attitude, the Majorettes made each half time show something to remember. The squad will say goodbye to Debbie Hines and Lori Breychak, seniors who certainly will be missed. Undoubtably, the Majorettes left their mark on the '93-'94 sports season.

SPECIAL EVENTS

IN MEMORY OF DANIEL J. GAGNON

October 19, 1991 was a special day. Members of the community worked together to aid high school student, Danny Gagnon. The combined efforts of high school students and faculty as well as community groups raised over $8000 to help off — set the Gagnon family medical expenses. Events such as pie throwing, face painting, pony rides, tag and bake sales, a petting zoo and the exciting "COW PLOP" helped to make the day a profitable and fun filled event.

CLASS OF '94 GRADUATES - A LOOK BACK

NORTH HAVEN - The walls of North Haven High School, which have stood daily before us, have endured the passing decades unchanged and, in all likelihood, will remain so fixed for decades to come. Yet, they retain the legacy of the days which they have endured with us, the members of the class of 1994. Within them, we watched the last follies of childhood pass solemnly off into eternity. We welcomed a breadth of experiences within the walls of NHHS and we've learned lessons which have shaped our lives. There have been great times and sad times, but alas, 'tis no hour for remorse. We thank Mrs. Jensen and Mrs. Adanti, our class advisors, for their devotion. NHHS will always remain a part of us and every hour spent at the prom, taking SAT's or at the SADD All-Nighter will become a mere memory. Still, with the passing of years, the walls of NHHS will stand upright. We, the class of 1994, prepare to depart from the sanctuary of our youth to a future that lies beyond the doors!

North Haven High School
Class of 1994

In Memory...

-We were fortunate to have had Stuart A. Elliott as a principal and a friend. In death, his legacy remains and he has touched our hearts.

-Danny Gagnon, a friend whom we'll remember and miss forever.

History- at-a-Glance

1990-91 As ninth graders, the class of 1994 completed its stay at North Haven Junior High as the last ninth grade class to graduate from there.

1991-92- In grade ten, we mourned the loss of our friend and fellow student, Danny Gagnon. In October, our class sponsored a day of festivities in his honor to help support his family.

1992-93 Before the start of our junior year, the strength and unity of the class of '94 was tested once again, when our principal, Mr. Elliott, died. Ms. Brozek replaced Mr. Elliott, becoming the first female principal in the history of North Haven High School.

As seniors, we have established our roots and for this we thank those who are responsible: our teachers, friends and families.

CLASS WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Class of 1994, residing at North Haven High School in the town of North Haven, Connecticut, being of sometimes sound mind and body, do hereby make, publish, and declare this to be our Class Will and Testament.

I, Maria Auriemma, leave all my memories behind to Christina, and more to come for Carmela. I love you.

I, Elvira Zawadowski, leave to Mike G. my fear of dead people.

I, Chris Puglia, leave my great soccer ability to my brother, Marc. I leave all my clothes to my sister, Sarah, who always takes them.

I, Lori Pragano, leave my little brother, Michael to aggravate Mr. D. now that I can't!

We, Gina and Tracie, leave our sexy purpleness to all that think they can handle it.

I, David Quintiliani, leave the giant yellow velvet banana to a thousand liberal armies in the woods.

We, Erin, Tim & Sarah, leave Bujha and the light count game to anyone who can find something better to do in North Haven.

I, Ti Reynaga, leave my notorious sick mind to all my underclassmen friends. Always use it to your advantage.

I, Debbie Hines, leave this school and I'm never coming back.

I, Kevin Umbricht, leave Art Club to "Lips", "Lips" to Anna, and "FOOG" to Anthony.

I, Jaime S., leave Jeff Tondalo my locker so no one will bug him when he "sneaks" into it.

I, John Watts, leave my family and friends my funny humor.

I, David Zembruski, leave my speed and technique to Mario (you know who you are).

I, Cheri Stannard, leave Susan Stannard all the luck.

I, Jason, leave my right hand.

I, Lindsay, leave Eric all the memories we had together at NHHS as well as a wrench to get that porcupine out of his throat.

I, Christine Sullivan, leave Julie Welles all the good times to come in her following years of high school.

I, Anthony Lombardo, leave my hopes for a Hartford Whalers Stanley Cup Victory to Sara Pawlikowski.

I, Bill Genovese, leave my tapes to Michelle, and my socks to Ms. Sanford.

I, Erin Seekamp, leave Kara Dickinson and the field hockey team the best of luck in the coming years.

I, Danielle, leave my cousin all the homework I never did.

I, Tracy Giordano, leave Gina Ianuzzi the fun I had in high school. Good Luck!

I, Kelly Dumont, leave Aimee and Jen an incredibly boring school since I won't be there.

I, Damon Gatison, leave all of my teachers my missed class notes from while I was sleeping.

I, Jessica Trenchard, leave the gym collection in locker #829 for the new comers in 400 hall.

We, Captains 1, 2, & 3, leave Captains 3 & 4 (a.k.a. Captains 4 & 5) to Jennie and Jen (Jen squared). Good Luck!

We, Marc, Joe, Chris, & Beef, leave Joe and Anthony Nigilo "Beef's Basement" and Ms. Ruoff.

I, Sarah, leave Kara all the luck in the world as well as the bottle bet she owes me.

I, Kim Verbyla, leave my body piercings to anybody ignorant enough to make fun of them.

I, Nicole Barnabei, leave to "Pig" Smitty the ability to keep your balance; and try not to take a DIGGER!

I, Cori Ruehl, leave Mrs. Blythe a clean room to find all of my lost paintings.

I, Steve Drago, leave my blue comb and utensils to Marc Puglia. Also I leave the bright lights to Laura.

I, Mark Hsu, leave bad humors and sarcasm to Mr. Dean.

I, Melanie Mantia, leave my brother Marc my parking space for your car (eventually).

I, Rose Pawlikowski, leave my sister everything she will ever need to get through high school.

I, Lindsay, leave Anthony N. a sled ride and Joe an invitation to come along.

I, Mike V. Johnson, leave this school to all underclassmen.

I, Steve Asprelli, leave this school system finally!

We, Nicole, Trish, and Kelly, leave our get away mobile to D.D.

I, Krista Basilio, leave Senora Leach a full year of gift certificates to Burger King and a life supply of my mom's eggplant.

I, Chrissy, leave my baby Melinda all the good times, all the laughs, and all the cries that we shared together.

I, Peter DePaola, leave my many parties to anyone who can fulfill their requirements (says Jodi Evans).

I, Nicole Prunier, leave Brianna Mayhew a year long supply of Kleenex.

I, Justin, Halkovetz, leave all my greasy tools to the next class in autoshop.

I, Jody, leave the North Haven cheerleaders "the Jody" dance to carry on for years to come.

I, Elvira Zawadowski, leave all the love and memories we shared at NHHS to my best friend Deanna.

I, Jon Adinolfi, leave Ralph and Andy all the good times I have had in my senior year.

I, Amanda Vercellone, leave all the love, luck, and sherbert in the world to Deanna Felicello.

I, Alicia, leave my brother Jake an endless supply of hockey pucks and the hope that one day you'll be a pro!

I, Mike R. Johnson, leave my music to the NHHS Music Department -they'll need it!

I, Shannon Cohen, leave Mr. Bonito all our talks about a certain person in the period 3 class. I will miss you!

I, Jen DeCola, leave love, peace, and respect to all my fellow classmates, I wish them all good luck in the future.

I, Zahida Farid, leave my dirty locker to my brother and my love to my niece Soma.

We, Joe and Beef, leave Mr. Reed with a thumbs up.

I, Jennifer, leave Mrs. Blythe a clean room to find my lost self portrait.

I, Chris Brenneis, leave whatever it was I had in North Haven High to whoever wants it.

I, Rachelle, leave Jennie the window she wants to break with a golf ball.

I, Peter Civitello, leave A.J., Chris R., Chris W., and Jeff D. all the responsibilities of causing new trouble and all the nights of talking about girl troubles.

I, Carrie Blumenthal, leave Jackie and Nicole all the good times I had in high school.

I, David Zembruski, leave all my INDO to all the freshmen coming to high school. For inspiration, I would like to thank "Alah".

I, Jodi Evans, leave all the good times I had in the school to all the future students.

I, Melissa, leave to my friends my moody attitude.

I, Victoria, leave the immortal "field tickets may enter only at gate C ..."

I, Chris Viesselman, leave Joe Niels all my J.V. homeruns that only went out because of the strong winds.

I, Martha, leave Blue Canary a little birdhouse in my soul.

I, M.K., leave "out of her element" Sasha some new element in hopes that she will find her place. It looks better on me!

I, John Cifarelli, leave to anyone who cares to have it my pig pen of a locker.

I, Kristen B., leave the 127 pens I bought to whoever it was that stole them.

I, Nicole Prunier, leave Joanna D., Felicia E., Sasha G., Melanie Chieffo, and Nicole Smith a punching bag and some Advil (you know why).

I, Melanie Tiberia, leave all my problems I had with certain people.

I, Jennifer DaVia, leave Joanna, Big Chieffo, Sasha, Nicole, and Felicia, the many headaches which you are about to encounter. Good luck!

I, Carolyn Kuczynski, leave my sister Jen all of the Brad stories.

I, Lori Breychak, leave all the fun times and memories to Jen and Aimee.

I, Tom Campion, leave everyone the fun times in high school.

I, Jonathan Vail, leave Timmy K. all my blue slips to go see Mr. Deloge (852).

I, Alicia, leave Sarah all those chats we had while running along the track.

I, Debbie Hines, leave Mr. Bonito my stupid questions that he always laughed at.

I, Lauren, leave Wilbur the pig to my two Wilbur friends. Good luck to Sharon and Cassondra.

I, Altoniece, leave this school for every one to enjoy as I leave with a Kool Aid smile.

I, Cindy Cicarella, leave my books and gym classes to Nikki and Heather.

I, Amy Tancreti, leave all my button downs to Danielle and Sarah.

I, Minnie, leave Julie, a.k.a. "Micro Minnie" a name to build for herself, I know you can do it. Good luck!

I, Melanie Mantia, leave Joanna, Nicole, Sasha, Melanie, Felicia, and everybody on cheerleading the dynamite cheer. Good Luck and Best Wishes!

I, Amy Hill, leave Jack, Katrina, Sue, Liana, and Lisa a life's supply of enzyme pizza at Gehorknochelechen's Place.

I, Vies, leave Ant Niels all "Beef's Basement" ideas for shows that never got filmed.

I, Billy DeMatteo, leave Joey Jay Jabroni all his socks and women at 2001.

I, Beef, leave my football ability and wise cracks to the future NH Football team and Coach Bob DeMayo.

I, Carrie Blumenthal, leave Joe and Anthony all the wonderful Sunday's we used to have. Good luck guys.

I, Cara Rescigno, leave Michelle Maiorino all three lunches and last period free.

I, R. Fazzuoli, leave all the good and bad times to next year's seniors.

I, Nicole Barnabei, leave my loud, obnoxious, big mouth to linger in the hallways.

I, Beverly Steinhoff, leave the world's supply of chocolate coconut donuts and regular coffees to Senora Leach in memory of our breakfasts together.

I, Jennifer, leave my sister, Michelle, all the threats I made.

I, Tara Connolly, leave Mr. Fiore one small cup of coffee, light, one and a half sugars.

I, Keith Cargan, leave my Goggles and Speedo's to the future of N.H. Swimming.

I, Keith Cargan, leave luck to my younger brother, as he'll need it.

I, Jay Williams, leave all the fun I had in the garage to anyone who would like to continue my legacy.

I, Kristen Coyle, leave all the study halls, and gym classes to Sue and Nikki.

I, Cori Ruehl, leave my sister, Jessie (a new comer) the following years to enjoy school and to take art.

I, "pissant", leave Jessica a chocolate & vanilla swirled cone from Dairy Queen and a safe ride home.

We, the Class of 1994, leave our sincere thanks and appreciation to everyone who has made our past three years at North Haven High School a happy memorable time; to all future classes of North Haven High School, we leave our best wishes for a successful and unforgettable high school experience.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, We have hereunto set our hand and seal at North Haven High School, to this, our Class Will and Testament, this First Day of June, in the Year One Thousand Nine Hundred Ninety Four.

MY STUDY HELL

Noise, disturbance and chaos-scream
Wake me from this hellish dream.
Papers crinkle and children yell
They do not listen, I do not tell
Shout until you throat bleeds red
Inside I feel as though I'm dead
They pick their friends by their clothes
And glare at me with a turned up nose
Believing not that I don't care
For highlighting or perming my hair
Their grades will suffer, priorities lost
Like trash their old friends will be tossed
Ignored minds not in their clique
This study hell is why I'm sick
Their minds are closed, they act like kids
Importance to them is buying prom bids
I wish the truth would knock them down
Before I'm forced to leave their town
High school for them is a popular time
But they won't be prepared for the death of their prime.

La Vita

Headed for where the grass is greener I am.
Where the days slide by like a hundred velvet bananas over a field of unshaven wooly tortoises, and where the city looms high and holy among the heavens all around a decent patch of frozen grass beneath my feet-gloved thrice over. Time now to be diced and char-broiled among an army of learned collegiate philosophers who await, manual in hand, ready to instruct with a haughty "open up and say ahh" and a wall of dimly lit computer monitors self-proclaimed friendly.

Yep. I could get to like this life. With a domestic legion of tinseltown antics proclaiming unconstrained allegiance to the purple and green dinosaur-your God and mine alike. But such is the fate of the world, I guess, burdened always beneath the thick gray cloud which revitalizes daily the American dream.
Yes! YES! The dream is yours and mine and Freud's too. And you know that all is one-friends, sisters, brothers. All is one.
Remembrance and pity and joy and light and gray-green pond stuff and la vita.
Yep. I could get to like this life.

To Break the Mold

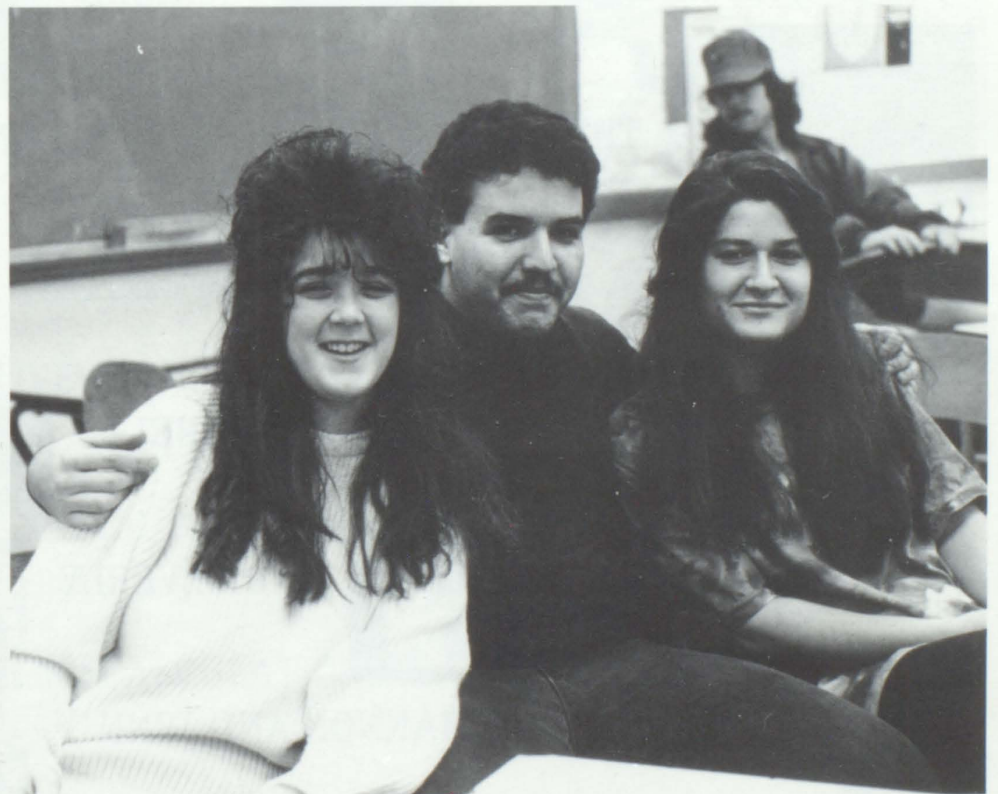

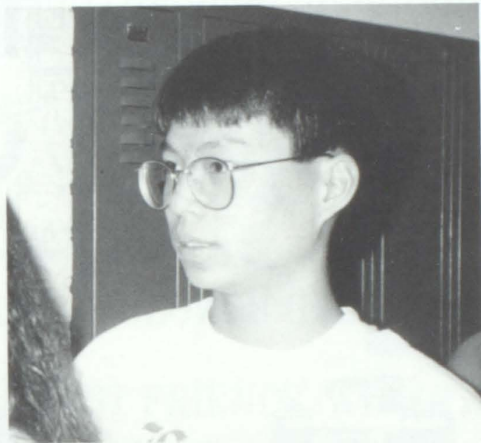

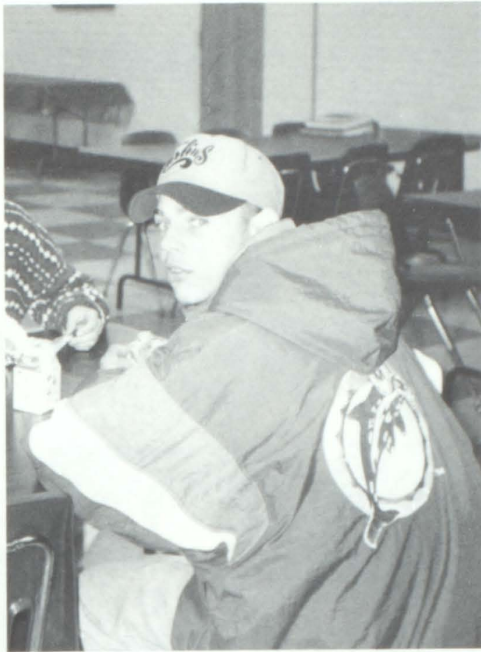

A waxen mask muffles our cries,
It hides our hearts; it blinds our eyes.
It faultlessly conceals the strain,
Of tender souls that writhe in pain.
What would emerge if the wax should melt?
Callouses? Sores? Scars from wounds we've felt?
Rotting skulls devoid of life?
Or the faces of children, vulnerable to strife?
Our masks shall disguise the emotions we hold,
Until honest soul dares to break the mold.

THE SACHEM STAFF

ONCE UPON A TIME . . .

THERE WAS A

IT WAS

A BIG BOOK. AND IT TOOK

MANY, MANY MONTHS TO

COMPLETE. BUT, A GROUP OF BUSY BEAVERS

WORKED REALLY HARD AND HERE IT IS.

LET US NOW MEET

THE MAIN CHARACTERS: "HEAD HONCHOS", ALICIA AND MINNIE; THE

"PICTURE CLICKERS"

, CARRIE

AND NICOLE

; THE

"SPORTS FANATICS", RACHELLE

AND TARA

; THE "SOCIALITE",

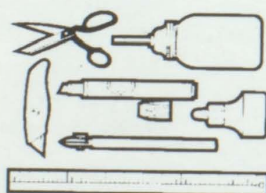

DARCIE; THE

"RECREATIONAL COORDINATOR", RACHEL

; THE "DESIGNERS"

, DAVID

AND BEVERLY

; AND THE

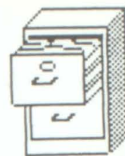

"ACADEMIC EDITORS", SHANNON AND JENN

. LAST BUT

CERTAINLY NOT LEAST, THE BUSINESS

END OF IT ALL WAS

TAKEN CARE OF BY ELIZABETH

AND JODY

, THE "MONEY

MAKERS". OK SO WE REALLY WEREN'T FINISHED, THERE WAS

THE WISE LEADERSHIP OF MRS. PREZ

, MS. RUOFF

AND MRS. HAYNES

. AFTER MUCH RUNNING

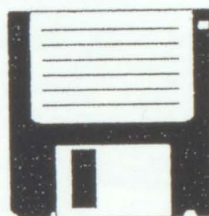

AROUND,

THE OFTEN ABSENT MINDED

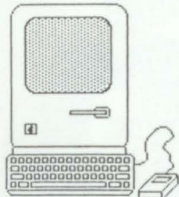

EDITORS WERE ABLE TO PULL

THINGS TOGETHER. THE FLOPPY DISK

AND COMPUTER

BECAME OUR BEST FRIENDS. WITH THE HELP OF AUTHORS,

WRITERS,

PHOTOGRAPHERS, DEVELOPERS

, TYPERS,

CUTTERS AND PASTERS,

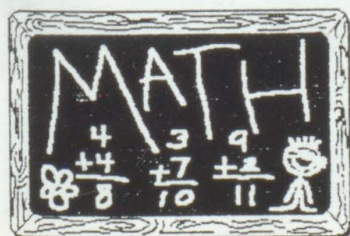

ADVISORS, BUYERS AND SELLERS,

CONSTRUCTIVE CRITICS, ETC., (DO YOU THINK WE FORGOT

ANYONE?). WE MANAGED TO PULL IT OFF. (AMEN!) DESPITE A

MINOR MISCALCULATION,

SACHEM

IS DONE!

NOW IT IS TIME TO SIT BACK, RELAX,

AND ENJOY THE STOR

DON'T FORGET, ALTHOUGH THE FOREMENTIONED ACTUALLY

PUT THE BOOK TOGETHER, THE

Class of Ninety Four

MAKES UP THE ENTIRE CAST OF CHARACTERS. CONGRATULATIONS,

WE DID IT!

EDITORS' LETTER

"Doors swinging inward began to swing outward, showing glimpses of the world beyond, of that bright thing we call 'reality'." Lillian Smith

TO ALL THAT MADE SACHEM POSSIBLE:

FIRST OFF, WE HAVE TO THANK OUR TWO ADVISORS, MS. RUOFF AND MRS. PREZ, FOR TAKING ON THE ENORMOUS TASK OF THE YEARBOOK. YOU TWO HAVE COUNSELED US THROUGH YEARBOOK AND SENIOR YEAR. MRS. PREZ, WE HOPE NEXT YEAR'S EDITORS ARE A BIT TALLER, SO THAT THE INFAMOUS CHAIR WILL REMAIN UNDER THE TABLE, WHERE IT BELONGS. MS. RUOFF, WITHOUT YOUR XEROX MACHINE, WHERE WOULD WE BE? ALSO, THANKS TO OUR BUSINESS ADVISOR, MRS. HAYNES, WHO PATIENTLY GUIDED AN INEXPERIENCED STAFF THROUGH FINANCIAL BLUNDERS. WE CAN'T FORGET MRS. HAYNES' RIGHT-HAND WOMAN, LIZ, WHOSE HARD EARNED MONEY WE SPENT CORRECTING OUR MISTAKES. YOUR TIME AND EFFORT WAS GREATLY APPRECIATED.

*CARRIE AND NICOLE, NO ONE COULD HAVE BETTER HANDLED THOSE LAST MINUTE PICTURE TAKING FRENZIES AND MAD DASHES TO PICTURE PERFECT.

*DAVID, ALTHOUGH YOU THOUGHT MOST OF OUR IDEAS WERE CORNY, WE USED THEM ANYWAYS. THANKS FOR THE ABUNDANT OUTPUT OF CREATIVE IDEAS (i.e. OUR EXTRAORDINARY FRONT COVER).

*RACHELLE AND TARA, AFTER THE QUEST FOR THE STATS AND ROSTERS, THE LAST MINUTE EFFORTS TO COMPLETE THE SPORTS SECTION FINALLY PAID OFF.

*DARCIE, RACHEL, SHANNON, JENN, JODY, AND BEV -YOUR COLLAGE MAKING, ORGANIZATION, LIST-MAKING, TYPING, DESIGNING, AND PRESENCE, HELPED TO MAKE SACHEM A REALITY.

*MS. LEACH, WE COULDN'T FORGET YOUR SNICKERING FROM AFAR AND SOMETIMES NOT SO AFAR. YOU'VE BEEN MORE THAN GENEROUS WITH YOUR TIDBITS OF ADVICE.

*THANKS AGAIN TO ALL THE TALENTED WRITERS AND ARTISTS WHO CONTRIBUTED TO OUR EFFORTS. (ESP. TO A SPECIFIC AUTHOR OF A CERTAIN POEM, YOU KNOW WHO YOU ARE).

*ALSO TO OUR SPECIAL "EDITOR", THANKS FOR SHOWING US THE ROPES, KID.

*FINALLY, TO THE CLASS OF 1994, LET SACHEM REMIND US ALWAYS OF NIHIS. GOOD LUCK!

SINCERELY;

ALICIA HEFFERNAN & MINNIE KEH

P.S. "A door is what a dog is perpetually on the wrong side of." Wash

Advancing Science. Enhancing Life.

Innovation doesn't occur in a vacuum. It is born from the knowledge, energy and imagination of talented, creative people. It unfolds in an environment where originality is encouraged. And it flourishes in an organization committed to improving health and nutrition through discovery and research.

At The Upjohn Company, the global search for innovation is our investment in the future. For more than a century, Upjohn has believed that the process of discovery not only benefits our customers and our business but produces a greater return—improvement in the quality of life.

At Upjohn, science is for life.

GOLF

Row 1: J. Harris, G. Brown, J. Beale, J. Herpok, J. Halkovetz, J. Setaro, J. Guido, C. Wayne.
Row 2: R. Nigro (coach), S. Lombardo, C. Perrotti, A. Barletta, M. Puglia, J. Heffernan, M. Colavolpe, P. Gurrieri, J. Janush (coach).

SENIOR: J. Halkovetz

The Spring of 1994 proved to be a memorable season for North Haven High School's Golf Team. Coach Nigro led a team of new players which consisted of mostly sophomores and freshmen, with only one senior, Justin Halkovetz. Captains Jen Setaro and Jack Herpok were a great asset to the team. The golfers played at the Wallingford Country Club sometimes under not-so-ideal weather conditions. The Most Valuable Player award went to the only girl on the team, captain Jen Setaro. Both Jen and Jack were eligible to play in the Housatonic Tournament, both performing well.

CAPTAINS AND COACH: R. Nigro (coach), J. Setaro, J. Herpok.

COACHES AND CAPTAINS: A. Goldberg (coach), S. Robinson (coach), S. Macauley, R. Marsoli, R. DeMayo (coach).

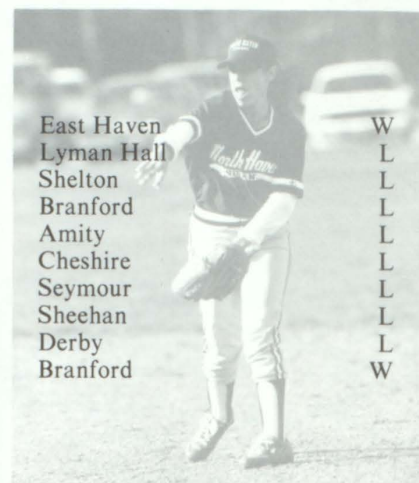

The Boys' Baseball Team had one truly victorious season in this their final year of the Housatonic League. Coached by Bob DeMayo and led by captains Rob Marsoli, pitcher, and Sean Macauley, first baseman, the team won their way to the semi-finals of the state championship and were the victors of the Tomahawk Classic tournament. The No. 14 seeded Indians hit their way to an overall record of 16-8. Rob Marsoli was named athlete of the week by the New Haven register and also awarded MVP. The Sportsmanship Award was given to Dan Lyons.

SENIORS: N. Barnabei, L. Ranciato, J. Moliterno, T. Connolly, K. Lawler, E. DeLucia.

This year's varsity softball team, coached by Sally Maher, had a less than satisfying season. Led by captains Nicole Barnabei and Lisa Ranciato, the girls struggled to a 2-18 record. Their sole victories were home matches against East Haven and Branford. Seniors Elizabeth DeLucia, Tara Connolly, Kelly Lawler, and Jamie Moliterno will be difficult to replace next year along with both captains. Although the wins were few, the girls took the field with grace and confidence and never gave up hope or effort. MVP was awarded to shortstop/co-captain, Nicole Barnabei and the Sportsmanship Award was given to the left field/co-captain, Lisa Ranciato.

COACH AND CAPTAINS: L. Ranciato, S. Maher (coach), N. Barnabei.

BOYS' TENNIS

SENIORS: J. Hsu, P. Bard, A. Lombardo, J. Leonardo, J. Garibaldi, M. Hsu, S. Galligan, B. Galat.

CAPTAINS AND COACH: J. Garibaldi, J. Hsu, D. Hurley (coach), S. Galligan.

The North Haven Boys' Tennis Team had another impressive record during the 1994 spring season. The team's new coach, Don Hurley, coached the team to an 11-3 record. Led by their tri-captains, Sean Galligan, Joe Garibaldi, and Jim Hsu, the team played impressively. Falling only to Amity and Fairfield Prep, the boys played every match to win. Sean, the team's number one singles player, played his way to the quarterfinals, and was awarded Most Valuable Player for the season. The eight seniors, Sean, Joe, Jim, Mark, Anthony, Bryan, Jarrod, and Paul, had great seasons and will be missed next year.

SENIORS: G. Angelopoulos, C. Blumenthal.

Although the Girls' Tennis Team's season began by shoveling snow off the courts, it ended on a very successful note with the team placing second in the state. Consisting of over twenty-five girls, the team was coached by Donna Neary. Senior captains, Georgia Angelopoulos and Carrie Blumenthal, played in the number one doubles spot for the team. Sophomores Jessica Coifman and Erica Musen were the number one and two single players. The girls' record entitled them to play in the State Tournament where they traveled all the way to the finals before their defeat in the championship match.

CAPTAINS AND COACH: G. Angelopoulos, D. Neary (coach), C. Blumenthal.

The Boys' Track Team had an exceptional season this year with a final record of 11-2. Coached by Steve Celmer and led by captains Steve Solecki, David Quintiliani, Steve Vollono and Damon Gatison, the team strived for victory the entire season. In the State Open, Damon Gatison, Steve Vollono, and Chris Brenneis competed for state titles. Damon won the 100 and 200 meter competitions in the Housy and Steve Solecki won the 5000 meter competition. Steve also won the 3200 meter race in the District/Housy, Shoreline match. MVP award was given to Steve Solecki. The Sportsmanship Award was given to David Quintiliani.

COACHES AND CAPTAINS: J. Munck (coach), L. Gambardella, S. Howlett, C. Rescigno, M. Kokolakis (coach), J. Price (coach).

The Girls' Track Team finished their last Housatonic season at 10-4. Led by captains L. Gambardella, S. Howlett, C. Rescigno, and K. Verbyla, the team showed spirited unity that carried them through their meets. The strengths of the lady tracksters rested mostly with the four seniors: Rescigno (jumps), Howlett (distance), and Gambardella & Verbyla (throwing). H. Walsh continued to show strength and freshmen E. Rescigno and S. Pallatto displayed promise for their upcoming seasons. In the Housatonic meet S. Howlett won the 1600m and 800m, S. Pallatto placed 3rd in the 100m and the 4X100 relay team of Gurrieri, Walsh, Rescigno, and Pallatto placed second.

SENIORS/CAPTAINS: C. Rescigno, K. Verbyla, L. Gambardella, S. Howlett.
