North Haven, Connecticut

June 1960

Hi,
We are Sach and Emm,
representatives of the Class of 1960. We'd like to show you our school.

For the past four years
we have studied and enjoyed ourselves at North Haven High School. With the prospect of our graduation we cannot forget the many happy years here.

We hope you enjoy our school as much as we have.

Sach and Emm

We want to show
you the following:

Our Supporters

We dedicate the 1960 'Sachem' to the members of the business, cafeteria and custodial staffs
and the bus drivers.

We thank these people and wish to honor them in this small way for their helpful assistance, winter and summer.

Thank you.
Sincerely,
Sack and Em

SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

To you, members of the Class of 1960, we offer congratulations. Graduation is the culmination of a period of progress which began when you first entered school years ago. In the security of home, school, and church, you have grown from the dependence of childhood to the threshold of adulthood.

Now you are approaching commencement — the beginning of a life of increasing freedom and of great responsibility. Courage, self-reliance, personal integrity, and persistence are essential attributes to the maximum development of each of you. Continue to cherish and foster these virtues, so that you may stand upright, free men and women and staunch defenders of the dignity of the individual. Rest assured, a world of challenge and tension will test you as it has each generation which has preceded you since the founding of the nation.

You are ready and able to face your future! Our best wishes and our prayers go with you.

MR. AQUILA'S MESSAGE

Goodbye to all of you, the members of the Class of 1960. You have done a superb job at North Haven High School, and we are relying upon you to continue this good work wherever you may be.

In a sense, you will leave all that has been so familiar to you. Graduation will signal the last bus ride, the last P. A. announcement, the last passing bell, the last dance, the last game, and the final goodbye to your classmates and teachers.

Then again, graduation also represents a new beginning, a whole new way of life for you. You are emerging from adolescence and entering adulthood, a period of growth, challenge, freedom, and responsibility. Meet this new beginning with courage and with integrity. Continue to strive for self-improvement, not only in technical skills, but develop and aspire for emotional maturity as well.

The future belongs to you, and you are well prepared for it. We wish you well!

THOMAS AQUILA

MR. DUNN'S MESSAGE

The senior year of high school is always an exciting one. It is both a challenge and a reward.

It is a challenge because of the added responsibilities heaped upon you as the oldest group in the school. These responsibilities take the form of leadership opportunities, the organization and completion of special class projects, and the culminating integration of all educational experiences at North Haven High School before you enter the world of business, industry or higher education.

The class of 1960 has met the challenge. Your scholastic achievements, your efforts on this yearbook and other activities, your school spirit, and your mature behavior have all set high standards for the senior classes of the future.

The senior year is also a reward. It is the time when all the training and experiences at North Haven High School reach their fruition. It is the time when you stand ready with those skills, facts, and attitudes, necessary for mature participation in adult society. It is the time when you are honored by your family, friends, and teachers for having successfully completed your formal education in the public schools of North Haven.

This message is directed generally to the Class of 1960, and specifically to each individual member of it. Each one of you has contributed his own unique talents and efforts to creating the picture of your class that now exists in the minds of all who have been associated with you. We have been proud of your accomplishments as the class of 1960, and we look forward to your individual achievements in the various fields upon which you embark.

We will sincerely miss you. We have enjoyed our roles in helping you to grow academically, socially, and emotionally. We anticipate further growth in the future. There is no end to the goals to which you may aspire. All frontiers of knowledge have been pushed to the greatest limits known to man; new careers are opening everyday; and the possibilities for individual success in making this a better world are increasing every moment. We expect great things from each of you.

As a final, parting, personal word I offer you the motto that has served me so well as we have worked together for the past few years, "Don't panic. Be flexible."

Guidance Department

The main aim of the Guidance Department is to provide a counseling system for the students of North Haven High School. A student may go to his guidance counselor for assistance regarding his school program, his problems of vocational choice, or further schooling. The Guidance Department also provides reference material, such as college catalogues and career information, for the use of the student.

This year the Guidance Department initiated the publication of the monthly "Guidance Newsletter," which is designed to inform students and their parents of college conferences, competitive examinations, and to provide information about the guidance program.

The library of North Haven High School provides a convenient place for students to find the books which they need for their classes or for their own personal enjoyment. There are many different types of books in the library. There are reference works such as encyclopedias, dictionaries, and atlases; also magazines and newspapers; novels; and nonfiction works. A student may find books on the authenticity of Shakespeare's plays, books discussing life in the time of Caesar, or books telling how to make a telegraph set. Of interest, also, to the student are those volumes analyzing the work of famous novelists, poets, and dramatists. Included, too, in the library is a good selection of the works of important modern authors.

All these books and publications are well arranged and easily accessible.

Mrs. Bearse is always ready to help a student find a book and to give suggestions on informative sources for term papers or reports. The members of the Library Club aid Mrs. Bearse in coordinating the library's facilities and make it an excellent place to browse or study.

FRANK RIGGS

MR. RIGGS' MESSAGE

May I extend to you, the 1960 Graduating Class, my sincere congratulations for a job well done. For each of you this is indeed a milestone in your life. This will be the end of formal education for some of you and many will continue on at schools or colleges in many parts of the country. Whatever career you choose, no matter how humble it may seem to you, keep interested in it, because it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time. John Ruskin once said, "The training which makes men happiest in themselves, also makes them most serviceable to others."

Good luck to each of you and may your future be happy and successful.

CLASS

At this time, we, Sach and Em, would like to tell you about the history of the Class of 1960.

We, the members of the Class of 1960, came to North Haven High School as sixth graders. We were amazed at the size of our new school, and we watched our auditorium being completed day by day. In our sixth grade classes we found boys and girls from Ridge Road, Center, and Montowese. After working and playing together, we finally got to know each other. Our first class activity was our sixth grade dance. We were all very excited and, most of us, though we hate to admit it, were quite bashful.

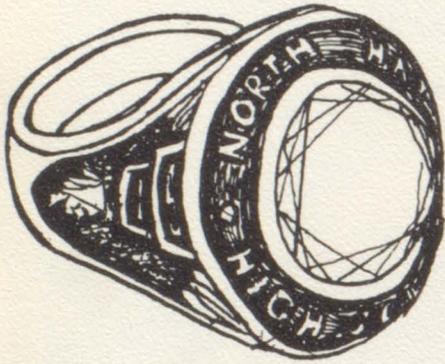

When we became seventh graders and began to change classes we found it difficult to arrive in the right room before the buzzer rang. We were exposed to industrial arts and home economics; we shall never forget the boys' cooking classes and the girls' woodworking masterpieces. /

As eighth graders we were introduced to French, Spanish, and Latin, and typing. We learned to say "Je m'appelle Marie," "Buenos días, señorita," and "amo, amas, amat," and to type ten words a minute with no less than four errors. Under the direction of Mrs. VonNeida and Mr. Thompson, our class advisors, we presented "Ship Ahoy," a shipwreck dance.

In our freshman year we took our first big step towards financing graduation — the collection of class dues. Our first semi-formal dance, "Cupid's Caper," was a success.

As sophomores, with our new advisors, Miss Anderson and Mr. Mercuri, we added to our growing treasury by selling monogrammed stationery and by selling basketball programs at each home game. We all worked diligently to make the blue and white decorations for "Silver Bells." In April, we presented two movies, "A Star is Born" and "Anchors Aweigh," as our last sophomore class project.

Under the direction of Mrs. Kling and Mr. Skillman, our new class advisors, our junior year began with the ordering of our class rings. We were very proud of ourselves and of our new rings. To coordinate our study of the Civil War in our history classes, and our reading of John Brown's Body in our English classes, we presented our version of Civil War Day. The "Charge of the Battle of Bull Run" was one of the highlights of this production. As a class, we contributed a new tradition, the school crest, to North Haven High School. This new project was kept a secret until it was presented at an informal dance, "Swinging Secret." The crest was hung in the cafeteria.

HISTORY

The biggest event of the year was the Junior Prom "Stairway to the Stars," which took place in April. We decorated for two days, and when we had finished, we had a very beautifully decorated prom. We shall always remember the false crepe paper ceiling with its angel hair, the lavender and white walls, the stairway to the ceiling, and the fountain that sprayed punch. Jerri Macina and Ken Pompilli were chosen King and Queen.

Our class party, "Beatnik's Blast," was a "real swingin' affair." The graduation of the Class of 1959 found us in a more serious mood. Some of us were waiters or waitresses at the Senior Banquet, ushers for Baccalaureate or Graduation, or Honor Guards at Graduation. Moving-up day finally brought us into the courtyard, the most jealously guarded of the senior privileges. As we christened it with a bottle of champagne, we removed all traces of past Senior classes, and cleansed the way for the Class of 1960. The week after school closed for the summer vacation, Barbara Buis, Mary-Jo Cone, Jim Hall, Bob Klaiber, and Doug McCrea represented our class at Laurel Girls' State and Nutmeg Boys' State.

From the first school bell of the year to the last, we have been busy as seniors. Added to the usual academic requirements there were other major responsibilities, such as senior pictures, the SACHEM, crest sales, and our senior play, "The Matchmaker." As the year progressed, the activities increased rather than diminished: the Senior Prom, the Teachers' Reception, Baccalaureate, and the grand finale — Graduation, brought an end to our prosperous and memorable years at North Haven High School.

CLASS OF 1961

The junior class at NHHS did an exceptionally fine job this year. It was the first class to receive its school rings at the beginning of the junior year. Later the juniors challenged the seniors to a football game, initiating the first Junior-Senior football game. The big event of the year was the Junior Prom.

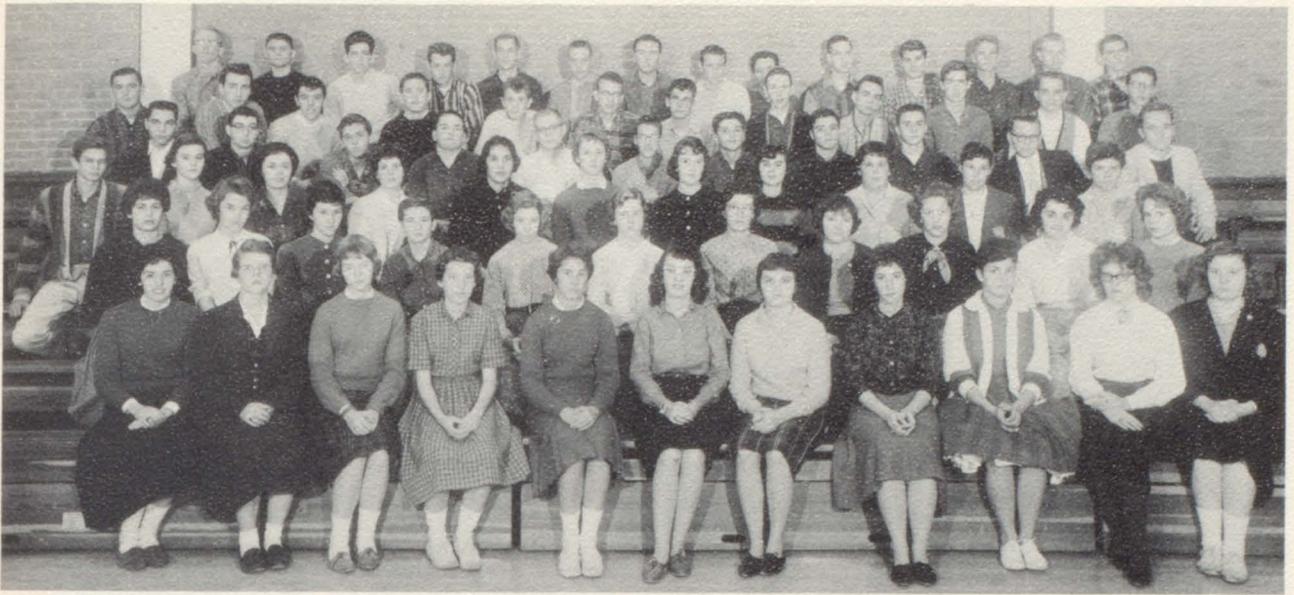

The class was led by Kent Johnson, president; John Perch, vice president; Carol Mancini, secretary; Gail Early, treasurer.

The Class of 1960 congratulates you and wishes each member of the junior class a very successful senior year.

"What do you mean you haven't done your homework?"

Life is just a bowl of cherries.

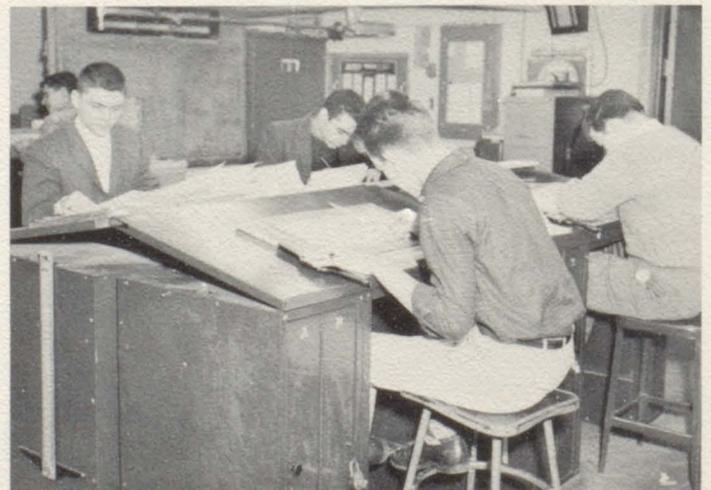

Mad scientists!

"But Nancy, you put the zipper in backwards."

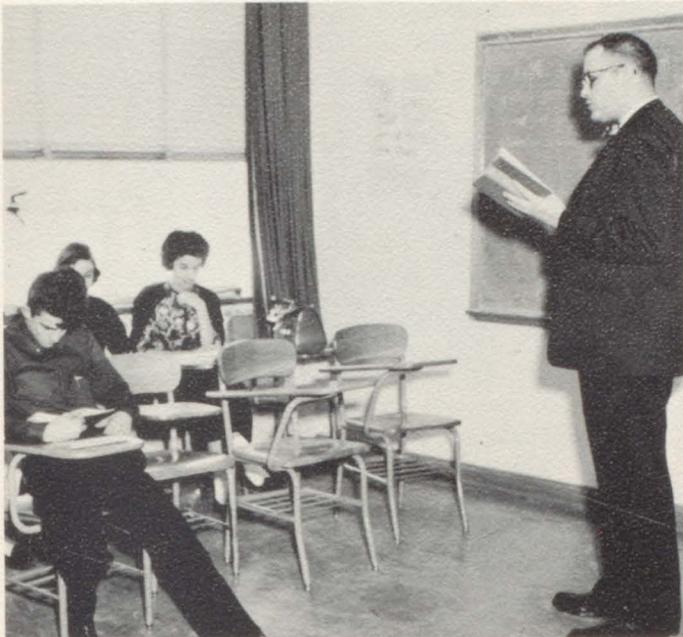

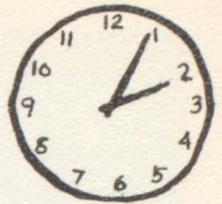

"When is fine forgiveness day?"

A three view drawing of a ball-bearing.

"Omnis gallia divisa est in partes tres . . ."

"Now you can open your P.O.D. books."

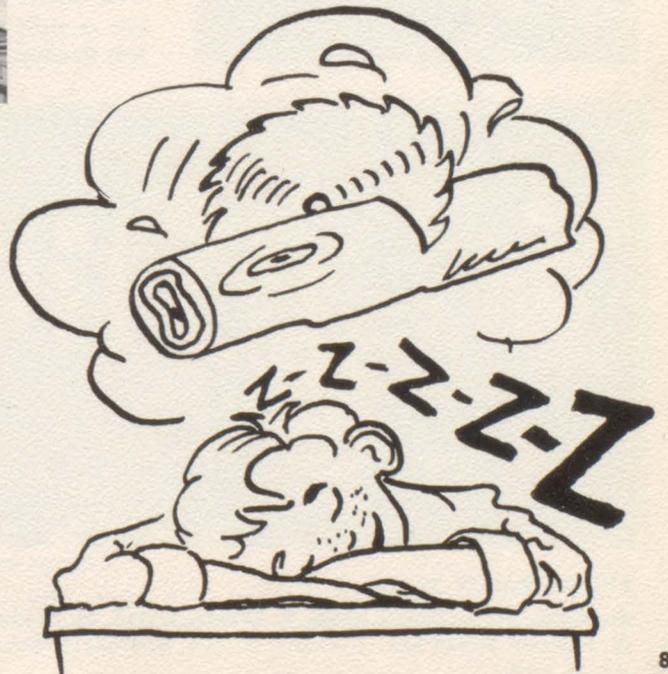

"Any questions?"

"Don't look at your fingers."

SACHEM editors argued, pleaded, wheedled and scolded, but never quite gave up in despair as they struggled to finish their innumerable tasks before their deadline. Co-editors Mary-Jo Cone and Carol Lendroth, aided by Miss Fontaine and Mr. Perrone, untangled many problems and organized the work of their able assistants.

The Art Staff made this a distinctive SACHEM through their efforts to develop a theme and carry it throughout the book. The Photography Staff, in cooperation with Jay Storm Studio, arranged the scheduling of photographs and supplied pictures of a wide variety of activities. Reams of paper were used by the typing staff which typed and retyped material submitted by all the various staffs. The Literary Staff then exercised their knowledge of printers' symbols and came out nearly crossed from proofreading.

Although it seemed at times that peace would never reign supreme, all the difficulties were eventually overcome and the "SACHEM-editors-before-the-deadline" looks were discarded for the old smiles.

The Student Council, the governing body of NHHS, is composed of three representatives from each class and is presided over by the four senior high officers. Once a week the council held meetings devoted to discussions and decisions conducted according to parliamentary procedure. It was the aim of the group to provide both scholastic and social activities for the entire student body, including the seventh graders in the off campus unit. Two successful annual dances, The Harvest Hop, and the Junior High Dance, as well as the writing of the Tomahawk were sponsored by the Student Council. At various times during the year representatives were chosen to partake in interstate activities with other Student groups and the North Haven P.T.A. Board.

TORCH

With Mary Jane Simerl as Editor-in-Chief, the TORCH continued to maintain its popularity among the students and faculty of NHHS. Everyone was informed of the activities on campus through the editorials, news stories, features, cartoons, and jokes presented by a capable staff. Advisor, Mrs. Cynthia Dreyer, directed the staff through another successful year.

Excelsior

Those white sheeted figures flitting through the halls of NHHS were not ghosts but lively members of the Latin Club. Under the direction of Mrs. Alyn Von Neida and Mr. John Lynch, III, the club has done much to further the study of Latin. Members enjoyed the annual Saturnalia and Nox Latina. The theme of Latin Night was a Roman funeral, complete with a blazing pyre. Through vivid initiations and Roman activities this club brought a new culture to NHHS.

Le Cercle Français

Informality was the keynote at meetings of Le Cercle. The club, under the advisorship of Mlle. Satterlee, provided an excellent opportunity for advanced French students to live the language. Among the earliest activities were a trip to the Lincoln Theatre and a lecture, complete with slides of France. Later the club went to New York City, where they saw French paintings, dined "au Chateau Henri IV," and saw the one man show of singer Yves Montand. At a Christmas party the members sang French "chansons" and exchanged "petits cadeaux." Le Cercle ended another successful year after creating a French atmosphere for its members.

Spanish Club

The Spanish Club began its second year under the enthusiastic leadership of its officers and new advisors, Señorita McKinney and Señora Garick. The year's activities were started with an elegant dinner at which members feasted on roast pig. This increasingly popular club is open to Spanish students desiring a greater knowledge of Spanish customs, manners, and literature.

United Nations Club

The United Nations Club, one of the most popular in the school this year, was open to Juniors and Seniors only. Under the direction of the advisors, Mrs. Ross and Mrs. McLaughlin, the club had special speakers who spoke on varied topics. The club held a Christmas party at the Children's Home, and participated in the 3rd East Coast Model U.N., held in New York. The U.N. Day assembly emphasized the importance of the U.N. in solving world problems.

Debate Club

The Debate Club provided an opportunity for self-expression through informal discussion and formal debate. This year the club expanded its activities to include discussion on topics related to the labor problem, which was chosen as the national debate topic. Several speakers addressed the group in the various areas of discussion. During the year the club conducted several practice debates and participated in two tournaments, one within the league and the other on a state basis.

Chess Club

The Chess Club, now in its second year, was organized to arouse interest in the game. Meetings are held every other Tuesday for practice sessions. The Club competed with three area schools during the year. On almost every afternoon some club members may be found in room 51 working out new strategy in the hopes of victory.

Industrial Arts Club

The members of the Industrial Arts Club have proven that from under all that sawdust and woodshavings can emerge something truly wonderful. With the expert help of advisor Mr. James Dowers, the club has done much to advance America's future handymen.

A. V. Club

The A. V. Club has completed another successful year, aiding faculty members by providing useful films for the classroom. Under the direction of Mr. Wright the club sponsored "Teenarama," which presented some of the more popular movies for the student body. The proceeds from "Teenarama" will be used to purchase a better sound system and larger screen for our school auditorium. The A. V. Club is constantly trying to expand its services for the benefit of the school.

Lighting Club

First row: S. Knopka, Secretary; J. North, Vice-President; C. Krieg, President; J. Rigby, Treasurer. Second row: G. Carpenter, G. Roman, Mr. Wright, Advisor.

Campus Store

Under the motto "The customer is always right," the Campus Store girls patiently provided us with bus tickets, notebooks, and other last-minute necessities. Before and after school the cheery faces of the girls brightened our day. For Seniors, bursting out after school meetings or rehearsal, the Campus Store was the first place to spill the latest news.

P. A. Committee

"Good morning, this is John X and Mary Z with your morning announcements. Will you please rise for the Pledge to the Flag." This greeting was a familiar one to students throughout the year, as the members of the P. A. committee waded through a pile of hastily scrawled announcements every morning. Susie King, chairman of the group, assigned two students per week to read the bulletins. Even though committeemen approached the microphone with shaky knees on Monday, by Friday, those same people could hardly wait for their next chance to read.

Cadet Teachers

Those students interested in teaching as a future career were given experience in the field through the Cadet Teaching Program. Under the supervision of Mr. Robert Watson, candidates for the program were asked to fill out various forms and were screened by the faculty. Students were assigned to subjects in which they excelled and actually conducted classes and made up tests. The program, now in its fourth year should continue to provide invaluable experience to future teachers of America.

Dance Band

A one and a two and . . . the Dance Band swung crazily into the beat of modern dancing music. This group, under the direction of Mr. Alex Winsco provided NHHS with cha-chas, tangos, and just plain rock'n'roll. They also took part in the annual Spring Music Festival.

Band

This year the NHHS Band, under the direction of Mr. Alex Winsco, played at many school programs and took part in two concerts. The Band also presented the successful show, "An Evening of Oriental Magic" with Foo-Ling. The Band now has more than eighty members and its size is expected to increase in the coming year.

Girls' Chorus

The maroon robed Girls Chorus, under the direction of Mr. Frank Hauser, and accompanied by Joanne Palmieri and Linda Benoit, is the school's official senior high singing group. The chorus added beautiful selections to the annual Drama Club Christmas Production and took part in the spring Music Festival.

Betsy and Rae Newcomb

THE NEWCOMB SISTERS

Betsy and Rae Newcomb have been singing together for many years. During the past two years, however, the entire school has had the opportunity to hear them perform. Their singing interests vary among rounds, ballads, and folksongs.

Lost Chords

The Lost Chords, now junior girls, have been singing together since they have been in the eighth grade. During their second year of singing they became a school sponsored group and have entertained at many school functions. Under the leadership of Jan St. Clair and Joyce Hansen, the Lost Chords have made many public appearances. They have entertained at P.T.A. meetings, school dances, the Christmas show, the annual Spring Festival, and several variety shows.

8th Grade Chorus

All-State Musicians

Each year in March tryouts are held for the All-State Band and Orchestra. Candidates are given music to prepare in advance and also must play a selection which they have never seen. Those students selected journeyed to Hartford where they met with candidates from the entire state. Long hours of practice resulted in an excellent performance.

All-State Chorus

The Allstate Chorus is sponsored by the Connecticut Music Education Association. Preliminary tryouts were held at various schools, and semi-finalists journeyed to Stratford for an audition. The results were announced at various schools, and it was found that Betsy Newcomb was to have the honor of representing NHHS in the chorus. After intensive rehearsals in Hartford, the group performed at Bushnell Memorial in the same performance as the Allstate Musicians.

Pep Club

By means of the Pep Club, girls in grades seven through twelve found an outlet to display and help create more school spirit. Miss DeGrande supervised the group and its activities.

The varsity and junior varsity cheerleaders under the leadership of Pat Chace and Gail Early assembled the girls and taught them school cheers and songs. Girls who are candidates for cheerleading must participate actively in the Pep Club. A point system was established whereby girls could obtain numerals and school letters. The Pep Club should continue to build school spirit in the years to come.

Radio Club

The newly organized Radio Club, under the direction of Mr. Robert Mercuri set up a sending and receiving station at NHHS. Members of the club also experimented with various parts of the radio and repaired previously unworkable sets.

Rifle Club

The function of the Rifle Club is to teach the proper firing and handling of guns. The club is open to an unlimited number of students from both the junior and senior high schools. They meet twice a week for practice under the direction of Mr. Edward Polanski.

Faced with a rebuilding year in '59, Coach Mike Vanacore made the most of the material he had. Although the Indians only won two games, one of these was a resounding 34-0 victory over neighboring rival Lyman Hall. For his efforts on that memorable day, Junior half-back George Spignesi was chosen Player of the Week by the New Haven Register. Next year, with the experience gained in this year's campaign, the present sophomores and juniors should form the nucleus of a good team.

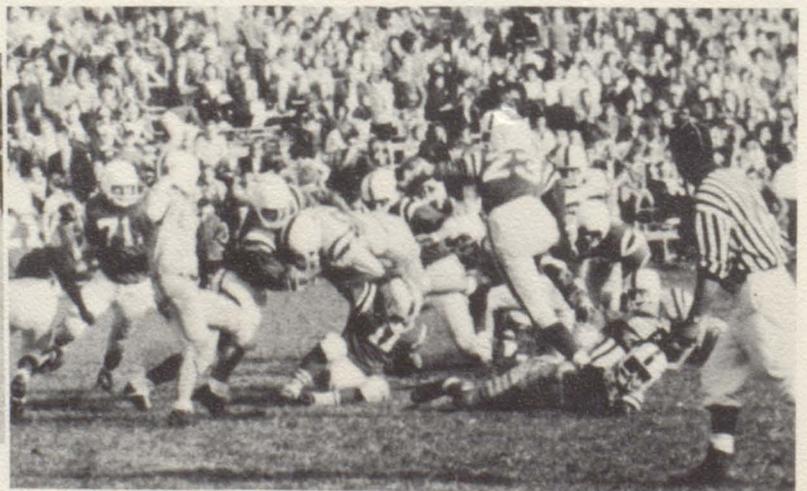

The squad was led this year by co-captains Ken Pompilli and Art Bodwell.

BOYS VARSITY BASKETBALL

North Haven's high scoring basketball team, with the season just about half over, needed to win but two of their remaining eight games to qualify for the C.I.A.C. Class B tournament for the second year in a row.

With the tournament position all but nailed down, the team could concentrate on making a bid for the Housatonic League Championship. The team made history this year when they beat arch-rival East Haven for the first time since the series between the two teams started five years ago.

Cheer

"Beat East Haven!" The girls in maroon and white uniforms cheered the valiant warriors of NHHS on with invigorating pep and never ending school spirit.

At times, when hope seemed low, the girls tried to back up the team with loud cries of support and did so successfully with the help of a very enthusiastic crowd.

leaders

A capable captain, Pat Chace led the Varsity Cheerleaders through sock hops, games, and pep rallies, striving for fun and enjoyment for all.

The J.V. squad, led by Judy Walters, did a terrific job at all the J.V. games. Whether J.V. or Varsity, the football and basketball games at North Haven excited the fans, young and old.

J.V. CHEERLEADERS

Girls'

The NHHS Girls' Varsity Basketball team was under the able leadership of Miss Phyllis Sbabo this year. In shaping up the team she was aided by Miss Rosemarie DeGrand. They have succeeded in turning out a well co-ordinated unit.

The girls were captained

"I've got it!"

"You'll never make it, shorty!"

Basketball

by Patricia Dugan, sharp-shooting forward, and Patty Chace, a guard. The girls fought hard to regain the undefeated title which they lost last year.

The JV's promise great things in future years. They elected June Menchetti as their captain this year.

"Jump it up!"

Baseball

Facing a schedule which included four Class A teams, the baseballers of 1959 compiled a 9-11 overall won, lost record. Ably coached by Mr. DeMayo and captained by Charles DeMartino, the Indians had better luck in the Housatonic League, winning eight and losing six. The most satisfying victory of the season by North Haven was a 7 to 5 decision over perennial power East Haven.

Bowling

North Haven's defending District League Bowling Champions, coached by Alphonse Cannavaciolo and captained by Alex Barboni, ended the first half of interscholastic play with a record of eleven wins and ten losses, good enough for fourth place in the loop. However, this record only placed them one game from first place.

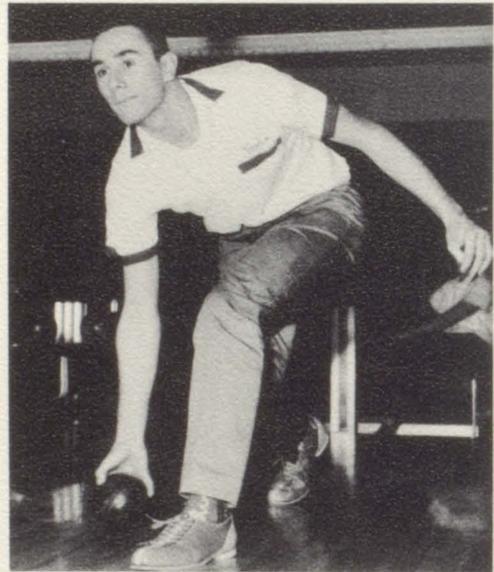

Richard Ihmels and Victor Tenedine were the club's most consistent bowlers, as the team looked forward to the second half of the season with high hopes for a second consecutive District League title.

"Ouch, my toe!"

"Who forgot to set up the pins?"

Twirlers

On hand to make NHHS's home football games more colorful and exciting were the twirlers, captained by Judy Lemieux. The girls were under the leadership of Miss Phyllis Sbabo.

When the girls were not practicing their own routines, they were training the younger set. This group is hopeful of high-stepping across the field in front of the band in the future.

J.V. TWIRLERS

Front row, left to right: J. Millest, M. Vaillancourt, K. Pope, P. Moore, B. Paulson, B. Barske.

"The first one to get out of step turns in her boots!"

Swimming Team

There is one group of boys at NHHS who don't mind being called "all wet." These are the boys of Coach Joseph Cone's Swimming Team who spent most of their time in the water. The relatively young squad was looking forward to a season of competition which included powerhouses such as East Haven and Hamden.

Girls' Swimming Club

The Girls' Swimming Club was under the direction of Miss Dorothy McLoughlin this year. The girls met every Tuesday afternoon and went to the Jewish Community Center swimming pool. They receive instruction in diving and synchronized swimming. They also have plans for competitive racing.

Fencing Club

The Fencing Club was under the energetic leadership of Mr. Philip Wilker again this year. They met weekly on the gym stage and held mock duels. The fencers wore padded jackets and wire head guards for protection. The girls fenced with light foils which were safer than the stiff saber and epee used by the boys.

This sport has become popular at NHHS in the past several years. It is a strenuous and demanding sport but nevertheless it is enjoyed by all those who participate.

Front row, left to right: S. Ryan, K. Voss, W. Herbert, M. Sperry, Mr. Wilker, R. Chichester, S. Begle, B. Nelbach, E. Hall.

Rifle Team

Due to the fact that their range is located in a position that is most easily approached by way of the courtyard, the Rifle Team has always aroused the ire of Senior Classes, past and present.

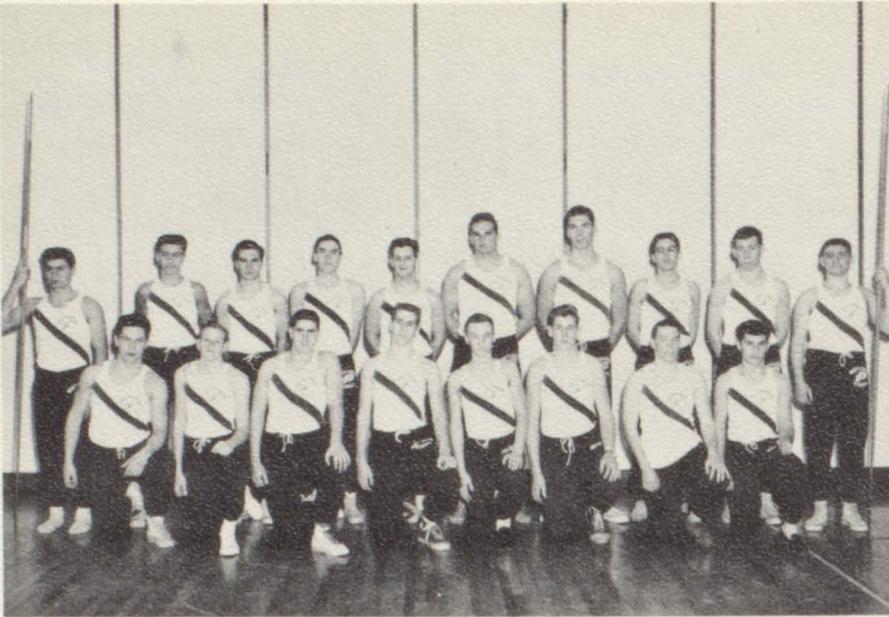

But despite these seasonal uproars the squad has been quietly gaining glory for good old NHHS. Coached by Mr. Edward Polanski and Mr. Robert Mercuri, their record was outstanding last year, with but few defeats. This year, the outlook is even more optimistic. At presstime, this under-publicized team was as yet undefeated in varsity competition.

Track

Last year, North Haven's first competitive track team, coached by Mr. Robert Meenaghan, was organized. Since the cindermen played a schedule of well established track squads such as Derby and Lyman Hall, it is not surprising that they failed to win a meet in their first season of varsity competition.

However, there were a few athletes on the team who could hold their own with anyone in the Housatonic League. This was proven at the Housy Track Meet in Derby. Dave Rosano and Bill Gould finished first and second, respectively, in the hundred yard dash while Joe Lanouette and Tim Holme tied for the top honor in the pole vault.

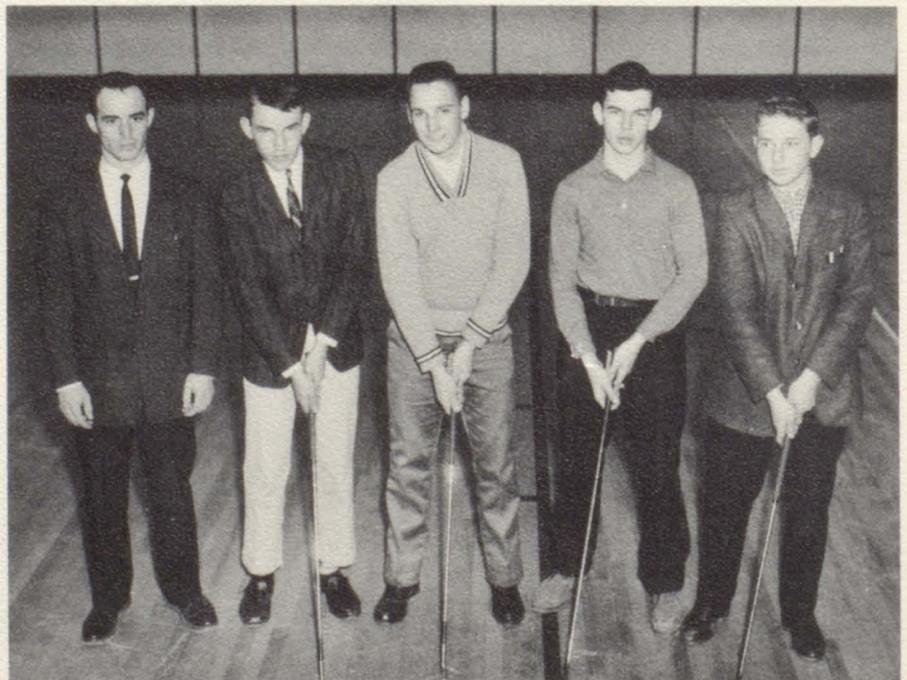

This year track will be a major sport at North Haven. The Indians hope to benefit by last year's experience and win their share of League meets.

Golf Team

The Golf Team is perhaps the least heard of competitive team at NHHS for they are forced to take an unheralded position in the line-up of spring activities. However they did complete a successful '59 season under the able guidance of their coach, Mr. Terrenzio. This year they have lost most of their varsity members, but much is expected of their younger teammates. All members look forward to a successful 1960 season under the supervision of their new coach, Mr. Michael Perrone.

"Qualls goes up for two more points."

BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT

North Haven's basketball squad experienced one of the most exciting years in its history this past season, qualifying for the CIAC Class B Tournament for the second year in a row. After compiling a 13-5 record in regular session play, both the team and the student body had high hopes for the Indian's tourney chances. However, it was not to be. After vanquishing Wilcox Tech, the Indians ran up against a hot-shooting Abbot Tech squad in the quarter finals. Playing their best ball of the season, the Northies rang up a 33-25 halftime lead over their undefeated foes. In the second half, however, disaster struck. Tech outscored the Indians by the whopping total of 21 points to win 68-55, and dash the cagers hopes for the Class B Championship.

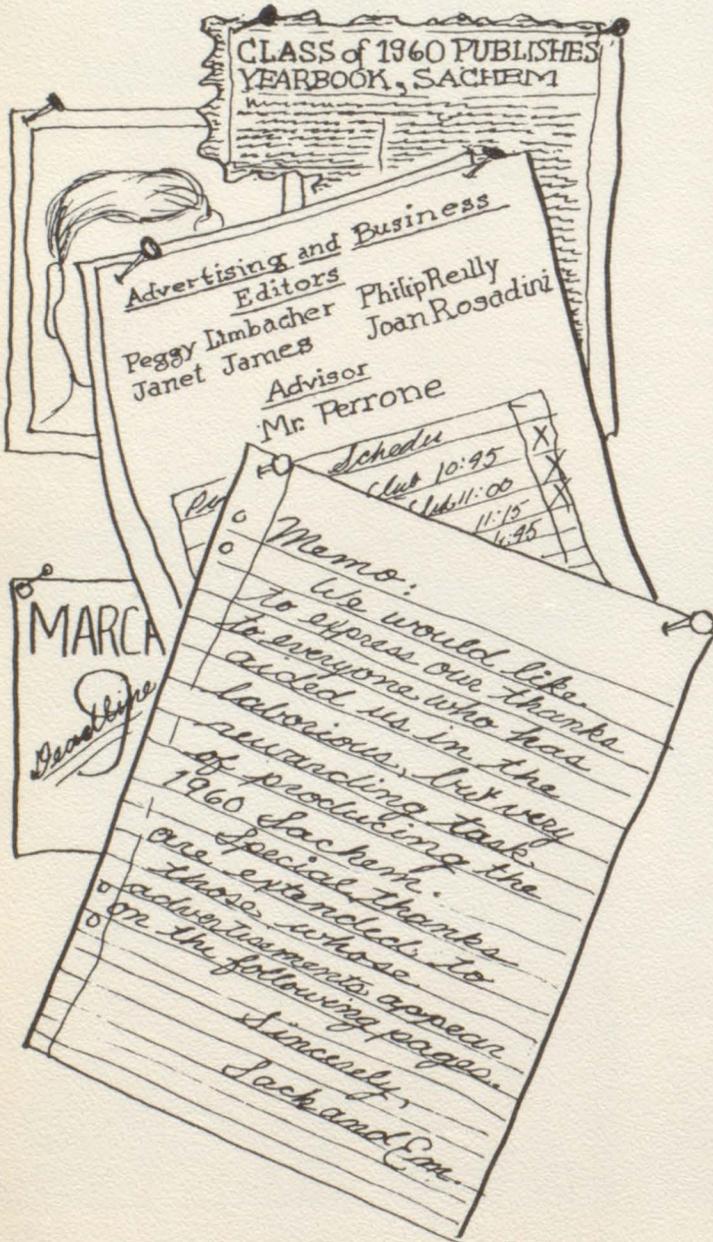

"I guess Gary uses Band-Aid Clear Strips."

"Is the ball coming down or going up?"
