DEDICATION

Dedication

The Sachem Staff would like to dedicate this yearbook to Mr. Glen Dean, a very special man and our yearbook adviser. Mr. Dean had many responsibilities this year and Sachem '84 was only one of them, but he never stopped giving 100% of his effort to our yearbook. When our staff was completely frustrated Mr. Dean was there to provide support and encouragement, and when our staff was triumphant he was there to share in the laughter. The Sachem Staff is proud and pleased to publish Sachem '84 in his honor.

Carrie and Andrea

TRIBUTE

Tribute

This year Louis Cavaliere found it necessary to retire for health reasons after twenty six years as a biology teacher at North Haven High School. Mr. Cavaliere was well known for the high standards he set for his students and he felt strongly that to expect less was a disservice to the students and the school. His outstanding service has set an example for all of us to follow. We wish him well.

Don Deloge

SPECIAL TRIBUTE

The Sachem Staff and Class of '84 would like to pay a special tribute to Mrs. Bingham and Mrs. Diamond, class advisers for the past three years. Their dedication, thoughtfulness, and hard work has made these a memorable three years. Mrs. Bingham and Mrs. Diamond have done an exceptional job in providing us with the leadership needed during our many class activities and functions. The Class of '84 truly appreciates everything that Mrs. Bingham and Mrs. Diamond have done for us. THANKS

Class of '84

Mrs. Pat Bingham

Mrs. Marie Diamond

ALMA MATER

As the golden thread of knowledge weaves a path into the light,
We will always carry with us mem'ries of maroon and white.
Singing loud and clear your praises, we raise your banners to the sky;
Striving forward Alma Mater, for you, North Haven High!

The years are quickly pas-sing by leaving mem'ries fond and true,
But with-in our hearts we'll always be fond and loy-al un-to-you.
Singing loud and clear your praises, we raise your banners to the sky:
Striving forward Alma Mater, for you, North Haven High!

CLASS

We, Carrie Janush and Andrea Jermine, leave the Editors of Sachem '85 all our patience - they'll need it.

I, Lynn Petrosemolo, leave my sister Sue all of the happy memories and fun that I've had at N.H.H.S.

I, Steve DeFrancesco, leave my job at Montowese Meat Center to Chris Pelligrino.

I, Susan Berner, leave Kelly Ryan my moralizing sermons and my brother.

We, Amanda and Jan, leave Mrs. Hilton, the nicest teacher, to anyone lucky enough to have her.

I, Michelle Salz, leave James Ward all my unfinished art projects in Mrs. Chapman's period D class.

We, Sherry and Dawn, leave Tommy P. with the hope of finding two better friends to laugh with during his future free B periods.

We, Playper and Otter leave to Rabbit and Squirrel all the problems and headaches of the itchboy.

I, Nicole Lansing, leave my car to my brother Joe so he can get to school on time.

We, Nicole and Nathalie, leave the memories of homework papers, writing in folders, and coming in late to Miss Byrnes.

I, Jeryl Massini, leave to my good friends the memories of all the wild, "high" times on the path, the field, etc. I leave my sisters, Paula and Tina, my unused English books.

I, Michele, leave any lucky upcoming senior the chance to find someone as special as Tom is to me.

We, Jacky and Sally, leave the two back seats in Mr. Nigro's room to anyone good enough to put up with the heat.

We, Jacky and Karen, leave to Jacque and Travis the best of luck in being accepted at Katharine Gibbs.

I, Jeryl Massini, leave to Joanne Podgwaite a terydatle egg, a matchbox van, and a dinner at Ponderosa.

We, Jeryl and Judy, leave our period B radiator to anyone who likes it hot.

I, Judy, leave the school. Ha, Ha

We, Therese, Judy, Jeryl, and Joanne leave to the next in line the ability to make fun of people like we did.

I, Judy, leave Cecilia all my best wishes.

I, Kim, leave my brother, Bud, all the fun times that I had without getting caught.

We, Eva, Kim, and Maria, leave all our crazy adventures so we can move onto new ones.

I, Ella Lascelles, leave all the Christians in this school my prayers. Be bold and take a stand for Jesus - Good luck Kelly Ryan and keep smiling.

I, Sandie, leave the Indianettes to Katie for 1985 and I leave everyone an easier year.

I, Carrie Janush, leave all my beautiful high school memories to the incoming students - may you have the best of times.

I, Carrie Janush, leave a copy of "Presence" to Mark Kankel-listen to it Kanky and may you always be Zeppelinized.

To B.E. I leave all my memories of majorettes and this high school - all the good times and bad - all my triumphs and failures.

To J.F. and J.I. I leave the best of luck in their future together and apart - all the good times at the dances and at the "party".

I, Tracy Gelo, leave my sister Dawn all the crazy times I had in Ms. Ruffalo's class.

I, Robin Jones, will my sister Karen to my volleyball coach, Miss Dolan. Good Luck.

We, Tom, Tim, Phil, Annick, Scott, Karla, Paul, Scott, and everyone else leave all good memories in North Haven High.

I, Kirsten Scott, leave my brother Brian the cold, wintery days and damp, rainy days to walk to school.

We, Amanda and Jennifer, leave our best friendship to anyone who can top it.

We, Mandy and Leenie finally leave.

I, Amanda, leave my allergies and asthma attacks to anyone.

We, Kim Ferrara, Sue Cassella, and Astha Schaefer leave Mr. Nigro's next year's seniors "you're late" speech.

We, Sue Cassella and Michele Seaver leave all our talking and arguing to Miss Brozek's next year's class. Good Luck.

I, Gail Parks, leave P.J. another freckle.

I, Gary Schreter, leave Mr. Manjuck all my preppy clothes if he ever decides to go preppy and enjoy.

We, Maria, Wendy, and Chris leave to Mrs. Dellert our Planarian worm, "Mochong".

I, Cathy, leave Dotti with a special friendship.

I, Denise Burkle, leave my interesting locker to any future student who can figure out what all the weird abbreviations written inside stand for.

We, Michele (mother) and Carrie (sister) leave to Andy "Chris" Davis (our son and brother) our family heirloom, the soccer ball.

I leave Kenny's birthday present to Mr. Pinto.

We, the AP Math Class, leave Mr. Dean a bottle of turtle wax.

I, Andrew Harris, leave to all my classmates my most sincere wishes for future success and happiness.

I, Carol, leave lots of good luck to Sue as captain.

I, Sue Foerster, leave NHHS with the unforgettable memories of the good times I've shared with my friends; let's keep in touch and always remember those times.

I, Michele Holland, leave Nancy MacDougall all my Chester jokes.

I, Cathy Miller, leave my brother Greg to all the teachers who can tolerate him.

I, Terri A. Gray, leave Mrs. Schonberger love, peace and joy.

I, Andrea Jermine, leave a special "thanks" to some very special friends, C.J., B.N., E.M., M.B., P.C., L.V., L.L., M.L., and J.R. for making my high school years the most memorable and enjoyable times. I wish them the best of luck in everything, always.

I, Tom Dacey, leave Vera Eddy and Joanna Beckwith my candy supply. I leave my typewriter to whom ever whats it. To Flash Fiore I leave my Red Sox shirts. To Mr. Riggs I leave my nieces and nephews to come in the future and lastly to Mr. Antonelli, I leave my thanks for getting me a job.

We, Robin and Claire, leave our laughter and happy memories to N.H.H.S.

I, Claire, leave the NHHS Majorette squad much luck and success.

WILL

We, "The Crashers", leave all of our awesome times to whomever is lucky enough to capture such special moments between friends.

We, Eva, Mary Ann, Maria, and Ann Marie leave Mrs. Iannone some patience because we used up all she had.

I, Mary Ann Salzano, leave a lot of thanks to Mrs. Buturla, to whom I owe a lot.

I, Mary Ann, leave Judy Rubino a bottle of RC Cola.

I, Kim Ferrara, leave Liz Cantore to torment a Junior next year the way I tormented her.

We, S.F., L.S., S.S., K.F., C.B., S.C., and V.D. leave our friendship to any group who thinks they can hack it.

We, Tracy and Tim, leave Mr. Payne a normal tie.

We, the C period English class, leave Mr. Thompson the instruction manual for the videorecorder.

I, Pat, leave my father's homemade wine to anyone who is daring enough to drink it.

I, John Kaklik, leave those athletic Juniors all the experience they gained the last two years. Win the Housy in all three sports.

I, Robin, leave Sue a hundred super squirrels to take to college next year.

We, "The Crashers", leave Stacy Falcigno all helium balloons to signify her being an airhead.

I, Maggie, leave all the awesome finds in all the area tag sales to Beth, Laura, Mary, and Donna - Have a blast.

I, Maggie, leave all the peace and love in the halls to Kelly.

We, Jennifer and Shari, leave Mr. Burrill all the memories of having us together in typing.

We, Amanda and Jennifer, leave our silliness to anyone who finds humor in anything, like we do.

I leave my brother John all my unused books.

I, John Gangi, leave Reid the thought that No, I won't fail English and be with you next year.

I, Mark Regan, leave the Friday jam to those punks who criticized us all year and thought they could do better. Good luck - it will never happen

I, Kristin Connors, leave Amy Conway a math tutor because she will need an excuse to get excused from study hall next year.

I, Playper, leave to the Rabbit my blue robe along with my leadership position in the 3K Club.

I, Michele Lavanway, being the last Lavanway to go through North Haven School, leave NHHS with fond memories of great times and special friends that will remain with me for the rest of my life.

We, Scott Parisi and Michele Lavanway, leave our three classes we had together, Psychology, English, and Physics to any two other people who wish to struggle like we did.

I, Lori, leave my past three years' complaints to Mrs. Leach for faithfully putting up with them.

I, Sandy, leave Jay with the hope he'll always be able to escape those "Bedroom Blue Eyes"

We, Sandy, Barbara, and Laura leave Paul B. to Karen L.

I, J., leave to Angie and Kent many boring classes, incompetent teachers, and cold days on the path.

I, Angela Tarantino, leave Raffaella Riccitelli the mirror in the East Campus girl's lav to look at herself all that she pleases

I, Angela, leave Carla Pandolfi with the sadness of never being in the same school as me again.

We, Denese and Lisa, leave our laughs in the cafe to anyone who can top them.

We, Denise and Leslie, leave Miss DeCarlo and Mrs. Lenoco and Mrs. White, hoping they realize how much we love and appreciate them.

I, Leslie Johnson, leave the care of my brother Billy to Cindi, who I know will protect him.

I, Leslie, leave happily.

I, Leigh Hines, leave Mr. Nigro all my thanks for writing an excellent recommendation for me. (Your check is in the mail)

We, Sandy DeMaio and Leigh Hines, leave Mrs. DeMayo a tape recording of "99% of the time."

I, Kathy Haggerty, leave my buddy, Mr. Burrill, all the undone homework.

The Steno II class leaves Mr. Burrill his own words of wisdom - "When all else fails, follow instructions."

I, Leann, leave Miss Dolan 10 pushups . . . 20 . . . 25 . . . Remember?

I, Kari, leave Billy with a tear in my eye knowing that all good things must come to an end. I'll miss you.

We, JoAnn and Anita, leave Mr. Brown all our excuses for coming to class late.

We, Kari, Karen, and JoAnn, leave NHHS with memories of our special friendship with Billy, Eddie, and Elmo in hopes that we'll never lose touch with them. We'll miss you.

I, Wendy Hammond, would like to leave Mr. Brown a bronze pair of running shoes.

I, Wendy Hammond, would like to leave Mr. Besec a front row seat at my first performance.

I, Sean Kelly, leave Ed Bullen another one of my headaches.

I, Lisa Madigan, leave Mr. Antonelli my favorite saying - "I don't feel like working."

We, Co-Captains Sarah, Sue, and Annick leave the Girl's Fencing Team the great motivation that we have given throughout the year.

I, Gus Kakalow, leave my good looks, charm, out-going personality and friendliness to my younger brothers . . . they need all the help they can get.

I, Chris McKeon, leave Jon Kaplan a year full of "bursts" to Walt's for some "Grizzlys."

I, Karen Leonard, leave Gina my number 14 volleyball shirt under one condition - that I can rent it back someday.

I, Karen, leave Gina a box of kleenex and a red rose for when she starts to count the games left.

We, Sue Schleifer and Carol Barclay, would like to leave Candy and Alice our destroyed recipes.

We, "The Crashers", leave our smoking lounge to the aides.

We, Rose DeLucia and Art Miller, leave our heater to Mr. Brown.

I, Rose DeLucia, leave my cousin Maribeth all my B-hall lockers.

Shen and Deek leave Mrs. Gyorgyey a box of chocolate bars cause she's Hungry.

I, Eileen Mulqueen, leave Mike Bathrick and Wendie Howd crossing campus G period and the "swim bus."

GOOD LUCK CLASS OF 1984

As our Senior year comes to a close, we all find ourselves reacting differently. Some are sighing and wearing wide smiles as they think of finally being able to get out into the Real World and on to new challenges. Others are rather somber and quite emotional as they think of all the wonderful times and friends to whom they are bidding farewell, and then there are those of us who don't realize that it is all ending. We find ourselves thinking about graduation and our futures, but then shaking our heads in disbelief.

Never the less, the Class of '84 is ready to depart North Haven High School and fulfill our goals. It is time for us to begin a new chapter in our lives, as we finish this one. Our futures are bright and hold many dreams and happiness, so we must keep our minds towards the future and most importantly, believe in ourselves. We can achieve in life; we are strong; we are the Class of '84. The 1984 Sachem Staff would like to extend a "Good Luck and Congratulations" to every member of the Class of '84.
