DEDICATION

We, the Class of 1987, dedicate this edition of SACHEM to our yearbook advisor, Mrs. Jane Iannone. We deeply appreciate the many hours she has spent helping us plan and coordinate all of the many activities related to publishing a yearbook. Without her assistance, support, and dedication to our class, we would not have such a memorable treasure of our years at North Haven High School. All of us sincerely thank her for her patience, guidance, and, above all, her loyalty to our yearbook.

Principals

To the Class of 1987

Congratulations to each of you on your completion of formal education in North Haven. Graduation from high school is an important milestone in your life. However, your education does not end with graduation, many of you will go on to a school of one kind or another and others will seek employment in the world of work. Whatever path you follow, education will be a part of your life.

It has been said that a "school is a building that has four walls with tomorrow inside." It is our hope that within the four walls of North Haven High School you have gained the knowledge and insight to meet the challenges of the future.

My best to you all for a very healthy, happy and successful future.

Sincerely,

Frank Riggs

Last Will And Testament

We, the Class of 1987, residing at North Haven High School in the town of North Haven, Connecticut, being of sometimes sound mind and body, do hereby make, publish, and declare this to be our Last Will and Testament.

I, Laura Jo Fezza, leave Christopher LeGates and Kelly Crowe all of the memories that we shared respectively—may they never forget them.

I, Tina Tienken, leave Rob Santoemma all the laughs, tears, jokes, and serious talks for years of great memories, and a lasting feeling of caring.

I, Melissa Licari, leave Laura Fezza a pair of my "winter Bermudas".

I, Kelly Crowe, leave all my friends, past and present, especially, Becky, Kim, Kristen, Laura, Gina, Michele, Tracy, Keith, Steven, Frank and Andy my eternal thanks for being the best friends a person could ever hope to have.

I, Regina A. Flood, leave all my friends the memories of all my stories about Matt and thanks for being tolerant.

I, Jacqui, leave Cheryl a bottom floor window in college so we can sneak out of it anytime we want to.

I, Clifford Guest, leave to study hall periods 2 and 7 all the winnings I got from playing Black Jack.

I, Miguel Garcia, leave Mrs. Babuscio and Mrs. Feldman all the good times we had in the media center, all the last minute editing and filming, and the name Mickey in the hope that they never forget them.

I, Alexandra DellaCamera, leave my thanks to all of my teachers for getting me through high school.

I, Kristen Hinman, leave Mr. Tencza a woohie (Scarf) and the Board of Ed. rolodex!

I, Rajesh Atluru, leave all my teachers with the 1001 complaints I bestowed upon them along with deep gratitude for their efforts to enlighten me.

I, Geoff Kaczynski, leave my fellow classmates this quote "When you think of the consequences it will ruin all the fun of getting in trouble." -Boz.

I, Stephen Lacy, leave Mr. Keogh a spelling dictionary for all the words he misspelled last year and all the words he will misspell in the years to come.

I, Roseann Puchalski, leave all of Mr. Kenney's big words and the way he talked so fast to next year's senior class.

I, Jennifer Nitz, leave Janet Maiocco all my thanks and love for helping me make it though high school.

I, Annetta Savanelli, leave behind all of my memories of great times with my friends to anyone who can be as crazy, loud, obnoxious and spontaneous as we were.

I, Mary Cavallaro, leave Terri DeMatteo a great big thank you for being my best friend through the years.

I, Mike Appicelli, leave Mrs. Bingham a volume of literature written after the fall of Rome.

I, Karen McDonough, leave Karen, Rhonda, Sue, Laurie, and Sue (My dearest friends) the best of luck in the future.

I, Heidi Stuber, leave David Hacku a new walkman.

I, Tracey Carlson, leave Melissa Licari her very own set of fake blue eyes, just like mine.

I, Steve Kusmit, leave the Photography department the bill for all the objects they broke by accident on me.

I, Kristen Giordano, leave Carolyn Warner, Krista Brunson, and Angela Amendola all my love and luck for a great senior year!

I, Andrea Gamberdella, leave Mrs. Leach a 10 lb. box of chocolates in the hope that she will gain some weight, and a thank you for being both a teacher and a friend.

I, Michele Simone, leave Dave D'Errico the five sundaes he never bought me because he tried so hard to keep up with our bet.

I, Roberta Newman, leave Wes Liechti my thanks for all of his patience while trying to teach me my math homework and also his grandma's cookies!

I, Jacqueline Halten, leave my sincere thanks to Mrs. Adanti for being such a great help over the past 3 years—you're very special!

I, Terri DeMatteo, leave Mr. Fiore my admission ticket to the SAT's.

I, Steve Gutowski, leave my two sisters Jennifer and Cynthia, the best of luck in the rest of their high school years.

I, Patty, leave here knowing I'll never to sign in late again.

I, Kathryn Gherlone, leave Karen McDonough thanks for being such a great friend and for putting up with me through all our fights over the last ten years.

I, David Hacku, leave Mr. Terenzio all the bills for the saxophones I have dropped and damaged and the knowledge that in the future I can't damage anything which belongs to the school.

I, Tonia Less, leave Lou Gianfrido my pair of big earrings.

I, Jacqui, leave Joy the "Paisley Kid", the "California Cruise", and all my Navy guys.

I, Jacqui, leave Anne a baked potato, a bag of sunflower seeds, and all my Violent Femmes tapes.

I, Sue D., leave Cheryl G., Anne P., and Laura B., all the memories of our sophomore year and the hopes that maybe someday we'll be as close as we once were.

I, Jennifer, leave Ralph my thanks for tickling my arm in 4th period free.

I, Kathy Thompson, leave Steve, Jean, Gina, Andrea, Cindy and Michelle my thanks for making my last year in high school a memorable one.

I, Stacey Ewchuk, leave the Saturday Night Crew a lifetime supply of grape juice, a push-button toilet, and our 2 a.m. trips to New Haven.

I, Kristen Hinman, leave Michelle Balletto locker #98 (My locker) to kick closed every day.

I, Darlene, leave my sisters all of the teachers that I had.

I, Claudia McDonald, leave Mr. Sbabo (Math teacher) a daily weather report so he'll always know what it's like to be short in this world.

I, Susan Galiada, leave all my teachers my thanks for helping me to get out of here.

I, Ann Masto, leave a very special "Thank You" to all my friends who helped me with the Vic crisis.

I, Paul C., leave all the hall aides all of my passes that I never had, and especially to Elda my goldplated lav pass.

I, John Fuggi, leave Craig Smith, my size 13 running sneakers as inspiration to win the "Cross Country" Housy title or make the first team all Housy next year at Seymour.

I, Larry Palermo, leave Mr. Herrscher all the hair I will have cut off in the future.

I, Kathy Samosky, leave Annetta, Fee, and Susan the great times we shared together (6-13-86) as the best of friends.

I, Ann Reynolds, leave my locker, (which doesn't close right) to my niece when she goes to NHHS in a few years.

I, Ralph D'Amato, leave Speducci my locker for the times she made it a mess.

I, Rick Bush, leave my brother Marc all the Sophs he can handle.

I, Shawn Lyle Plumadore, leave Ms. Ruffolo my two years' of her English II classes, and also thanks for the help the last year I had her.

I, Tina Hodak, leave NHHS with the thought that there are no more Hodaks coming after me—I'm the last.

I, Joyce Donovan, leave Mr. Brown all the fun times we've had during and after classes.

I, the empty desk in the third row, leave Mr. Fiore, Sir, a blank Harvard application.

I, Kenneth Ferrara, leave Mrs. Michlin a box of Kleenex tissues.

I, Karen Moriarty, leave Mr. Tencza all my thanks for making me laugh and being there when I needed to talk.

I, Rajesh Atluru, leave anyone in any class below me the challenge of trying to be chased by as many park rangers or police officers as I have been.

I, Joe Mikos, leave Coach DeMayo the reassurance that I am the last of the Mikos'.

I, Becky Miller, leave all my thanks and love to Kristen, Kim, and Kelly for being my three favorite friends and for sharing all our high school years together!

I, Steve Kusmit, leave all the teachers of North Haven High to rest, knowing that I'm the last of the Kusmit's to graduate.

I, Geoff Kaczynski, leave all the sophomore and junior girls the memory of seeing my hot body walking down the hall.

I, Sandy Pepe, leave Ann Masto a car so she can provide her own rides.

I, Thomas H. Eckels, leave Mr. Brown my "Changing Me Worksheet" because I never actually changed.

I, Angie Ioannou, leave Kristen Palmisano and Norina Capodagli a time machine so that they may reach their year of graduation whenever they want.

I, Clifford Guest, leave Marc Gonsalves a cold cup of water to get him back for all the times he tried to pour water on me.

I, Miguel Garcia, leave Mrs. Leach all the stories about her daughter and the comforting thought that my sister is on the way up.

I, Dawn DeMatteo, leave Mr. Nigro my little sister Regina who also wishes to become an accountant.

I, Alexandra DellaCamera, leave my friends the best of luck after graduation.

I, Stephen Lacy, leave Mr. Garvey all the tricks of the trade, because, as I've always told him: "I taught you all you know."

I, Ann Masto, leave Miss Sanford the theme song from The Jetsons.

I, Paul C., leave all my old teachers, especially Mr. Shatz, one Debby Anderson and may she put you through the same aggravation I once put you through.

I, John Fuggi, leave my sister Kristen my permanent pass to the drinking fountain given to me by Mr. Luther.

I, Kathy Samosky, leave Mrs. Leach the words, "How ya doin'?" and Mr. Reed the words, "How's Artie doin'?"

I, Rick Bush, leave the Football Team my kicking cleat in the hope they will find someone to fill it.

I, Larry Palermo, leave Mr. Manjuck all the upcoming incompetent 10th graders who will complain about climbing the rope.

I, Angie Ioannou, leave Mrs. Blythe and her new Saheib the assignment of taking pictures at the wedding of my mongoose and Keith's garden weasel.

I, Ann Reynolds, leave all the textbooks I ever used in my high school years, to the upcoming students, in the hope that they will get better use out of them than I did.

I, Ralph D'Amato leave my polo cologne to Cherie and Michele, for all the times they sniffed all the smell out of my clothes.

I, Deanna Hemstock, leave Wesley Liechti all the times he had to sit around and hear my problems at work, school and home.

I, Shawn Lyle Plumadore, leave Ms. Lesnick thanks for all the help and friendship she has given me these past years.

I, Tina Hodak, leave Mrs. Blythe the opportunity to try and find someone else to ask for the keys to Darkroom One every morning and to learn how to say the word negatives as I did in Photography for three years.

I, Antonette Graziano, leave my brother Robert to all of the faculty with love.

I, Joyce Donovan, leave to all my teachers all the good memories I have had at North Haven High School.

I, Bob E. Maiorino, leave North Haven High with good and bad memories—mostly good.

I, an auspicious AP Chem student, leave Mr. Scimone stock in the Coors Co. so that he can profit from my clumsiness.

I, Kenneth Ferrara, being of sound mind and body leave.

I, Karen, leave Bob all the wonderful memories we've shared over the past years.

I, Sandy Pepe, leave Miss Brozek all my tardies to school.

I, Thomas H. Eckels, leave to all my teachers of the past all the cut slips I have amassed in my high school career.

I, Deanna Hemstock, leave Nancy Peckham all the memories of good times we've shared and the thought we'll always be best friends, no matter where the future takes us.

I, Laura Jo Fezza, leave Melissa Licari, the Birthday present that I never managed to get her for her 17th Birthday.

I, Tina Tienken, leave my brother Billy all the good times I had with my friends and for him to carry on the tradition with his.

I, Melissa Licari, leave Tracy Carlson part of my $3000 nose.

I, Kelly Crowe, leave Kristen Morrissey a copy of Carole King's Tapestry album in the hope that she knows she's always got a friend.

I, Regina A. Flood, leave Ms. Byrnes all my thanks and complaints about the teachers I had in the past.

I, Jacqui, leave Cheryl a diary with love.

I, Brian Cocchiaro, leave my parking spot to anyone who can fill it with a 1970 Nova Super-sport.

I, Tara Rawlick, leave a certain group of girls my thanks for the good times and lots of luck for the future.

I, Sue D., leave Mr. T. all my love and thanks for the five years he had to put up with me.
 I, Cliff Guest, leave Miss Ruffalo all the good times Joe and I had when we were Juniors in English.
 I, Paula, leave the best of luck to my cousin Scott.
 I, Maureen, leave anyone who can beat them all the special talks Jackie and I had about our boyfriends.
 I, Dawn Ferrucci, leave Mr. Keough all his big words for the next senior class.
 I, Nicole, leave Joey all the times we never got caught!
 I, David S. Rachleff, leave 100 poems by Catullus to translate with no vocabulary list to Mrs. Bingham.
 I, Brenda Palmieri, leave Chris Canney all my love and memories with him during our senior year.
 I, L. Gianfriddo, leave Mr. Brown and the entire 2nd period POD class my empty coffee cups to use and admire at your own edification.
 We, Fiona Little and Sandy Esposito, leave Lou Gianfriddo a new sink for the one he broke in science that we never let him forget!
 We, Pam, Elaine, and Laurie, leave all the good times we had in the lav to anyone who dares to top them!
 We, Beth Reilly and Lori Gentile, leave Cindy Proietto and Andrea Perroito all our good times in clothing, and especially the bucket of water.
 We, Yael, Holley, and Amy, leave the students of this school the challenge of becoming three best friends closer then we were.
 We, Patty and Brigit, leave Mr. Brown and Mr. Manjuck all our love and memories for all those pep talks that sunk in.
 We, Joe DeCusati and Chris LeGates, leave future classes of N.H.H.S. to make their own version of the "Dirty 10", because there will always be some.
 We, Deanne Elia and Ann Masto, leave the memories of August 1, 1985, with Angelo and Phil.
 We, The Powder Puff Football Team, leave Anthony, Tony, Mike, Jeff, Rajesh, Cliff, and Frank special thanks because we couldn't have done it without you guys!
 We, Anthony and Mary, leave our relationship through the years to any couple who can top it.
 We, Joe DeCusati, Andrew Scarpa, and Mark Stevens, leave Mr. DeMayo's future students all of his "key" psychology statements, his uneven, "Amityville Horror-like" dealings, and a marching band to play on his roof.
 We, Joy T., Anne P., and Laura B., leave Mr. Bencivengo a mole of Day 4's and our Larry dog.
 We, Joy T., Anne P., Laura B., and Jackie P., leave a trunk for anyone to use on Day 4 to go out to lunch.
 We, the Mission Impossible Team of '87, leave our spray paint and a 12' ditch to next year's seniors who think they can do a better job.
 We, Darlene, Missy, Dawn and Michelle, leave Mrs. Leperi all of the spelling words that she gave us.
 We, Stacey, Andrea and Fiona, leave Mr. Burns our reports from 8th grade which took us a month to write, that we never got back!
 We, the math team, leave Mrs. Knudsen an extra dozen doughnuts, chocolate, of course, and all the questions we asked 30 seconds before the start of a round.
 We, H. Y. and A leave our Junior guys (they know who they are) all our good memories and friendly flirtations.
 We Sean Cullagh and Jackie Halten, leave all the great memories to North Haven High School.
 We Cherie Graziano and Andrea Gamberdella leave Mr. Brown all the tardies that he never gave us and a special Thank-you for being such an excellent teacher!
 We, Jon Evans and Mark Edwards, leave Mr. Tennza any and all trophies/awards given to us for Cross Country and Track during our quest for excellence, plus our marshmallow cross.
 We, Michelle Treloar and Paula Buehler, leave Mr. Brown all of our running shoes.
 We, Sandy, Andrea, Fiona, Cherie, Michele, and Theresa, leave all the fun, fights, great times, and laughter we had thru our high school years to any group of friends who can survive them.
 We, Pam Pronto, Laurie Esposito, and Elaine Ferriolo leave!!!!!!
 We Beth Rielly and Wendy McLeod, leave the office all our tardies.
 We, The class of 1987 AP math, leave Mr. Dean an endless supply of coconut covered chocolate donuts so that we can all pass our final exam.
 We, Joe DeCusati and Chris LeGates, leave Boston Red Sox fans the memories of the torture we gave them the week after the Mets won the series.
 We, Ann Masto and Deanne Elia, leave our bus tickets to UCONN because we won't be needing them anymore.
 We, Sean Cullagh and Joe Iezzi, leave Ms. Lesnick all the burnt food we made in foods class.
 We, Justin and Cherie, leave all of our fun, fights and good times to any other couple who could spend all of their high school years together and still be in love!!!!!!
 We, Margaret Mascia and Michelle Treloar, leave Mrs. Adanti our good attitudes and good craftsmanship.

We, The Class of 1987, leave our sincere thanks and appreciation to everyone who has made our past four years at North Haven High School a happy and memorable time; and to all future classes of North Haven High School, we leave our sincere best wishes for a successful and unforgettable high school experience

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, We have hereunto set our hand and seal at North Haven High School, to this, our Last Will and Testament, this First Day of June, in the Year One Thousand Nine Hundred Eighty-seven.

We, Tracy Carlson and Robin Kaplan, leave Stu our phone numbers at college—make sure you come and visit!
 We, Steve Blumenthal and Steve Gutowski, leave our cavemen suits to anyone who is willing to try and fill them as well as we did.
 We, Stacy, Gina, and Tina, leave Miguel a half keg to take up to college so he can experience for the first time the wild and unforgettable times which the three of us shared in High School.
 We, Mary Cavallaro and Cheryl Goglia, leave our table at Wendy's to any two friends who can have longer and more analytical conversations than we had.
 We, Doug and Fred, leave to Tony, Mark, Dave, and Steve memories of the 1986 American League Champion Boston Red Sox—sorry Yankees!
 We, Dawn, Michele, and Roseanne, leave a certain bunch of obnoxious "animals" in 3rd lunch all the cafeteria room they need.
 We, Michele Simone and Gina Gonsalves, leave to the future classes of North Haven High our irritating and uncontrollable laughs.
 We, Kathryn and Sue, leave Rhonda . . . Rhondus, with lots of love!
 We, Dave Hacku and Jeff Haag, leave Mr. Terenzio in peace to live his life without having to worry about any more broken windows or troublemakers coming along like us.
 We, Becky, Kristen, and Kelly, leave all our thanks to Miss Cassidy for allowing and sharing the great time we had in Europe '86.
 We, Cherie, Michele, and Maureen, leave all of our good times in English and making fun of the mushroom.
 We, Kathy Samosky and Fiorella Sacchetti, leave behind the memories of the "little talks" we had on the path.
 We, Fiorella Sacchetti and Kathy Samosky, leave North Haven High School knowing that we will always be the best of friends.
 We, Holley, Yael and Amy, leave Mr. Grove all those wild nights that never were.
 We, the 1987 Girls' Volleyball Team, leave Miss Dolan a supply of Turns for next year's season.
 We, the students of Mrs. Leperi's 11th grade English class (7th period '85-'86) leave future 7th period classes the quote "The bell rang".
 We, Anne Peterson and Robin Kaplan, leave Kat-man-do a fun swimming season.
 We, a certain group of "Women" leave Brian Bogan one night out with each of us.
 We, two thirds of the High School Bowl team, leave Mr. Caruth, Chris, and the rest of next year's Varsity Scholars our mascots, Gumby and Pokey, endless Tuesday afternoons of trivia bombardment, an infinite supply of brand-new puns, and bushels of luck for the future.
 We, Lisa Giglietti and Sheila Walsh, leave Joe DeCusati and Mark Stevens lessons on "How to Play Setback"—16-6.
 We, Karen and Karen, leave our 4th period free to anyone who thinks they can have as much fun as we did.
 We, Jean Wang and Pam Pronto, leave to any two other people as many lunch waves together as we had through the past years.
 We, the dancing pig, the intelligent pig and the big bad wolf, leave the singing pig lots of fun nights and a sturdy brick house.
 We, Kris G., Kris R., and Tracey E., leave Mrs. Torcellini all our forged passes, and Mr. Pinto our sincere thanks.
 We, Andrea, Fiona, Kelly, Kim, and Janet, leave Mr. Luther all the nasty names he used to call us in the hope that someday he may be proved wrong.
 We, the Editors of Sachem '87, leave Mrs. Iannone an all-expenses paid trip to Hawaii for all of her help and patience with the yearbook—God knows she needs it!!
 We, Roberta Newman and Jacqueline Halten, leave lots of luck to anyone who can top the friendship that we have found in Sean Cullagh, Joe Iezzi, Joe Mikos, Clifford Guest and Mark Stevens.
 We, Doug and Fred, leave to Mrs. Preziosi, our wonderful laughs to help get her through the day.
 We, Kelly, Laura, and Michele, leave Tony Corniello a year's supply of bananas to make up for the one's he was too embarrassed to eat in front of us.
 We, Jean Wang and Kathy Thompson, leave all our memories we've shared through the past four years that will last a lifetime.
 We, Dina Giangola and Jodi Smolenski, leave our friendship that we've had throughout the years for two others who are as close as we are.
 We, Lou Gianfriddo and Dave Landolfi, leave all the underclassmen pamphlets of "How to Consume and Handle It"; and maybe then they can be considered worthy humanoids.
 We, Tina Romano and Brenda Palmieri, leave Mrs. Sbado all of our "passing" grades in Geometry.
 We, David S. Rachleff and Mike Appicelli, leave an American accent to Mrs. Gyorgyey.
 We, Claudia McDonald and Robin Kaplan, leave Mr. Fiore a comb for all the mornings he woke up on the wrong side of the bed.
 We, Roseann, Dawn, and Sarah, leave the Junior Class all the obnoxious pigs in the cafeteria and all the space they need to be loud and obnoxious.

The hallways will be silent soon,
and our new lives will begin.
But the school will never be the same after we, — "The Class of '87" move on to better things.

We will always remember the years we've spent here.
The parties, the dances, the football games and the battles.
We've grown up here, each and every one of us.

And finally, we've grown together.
But only after living through the little problems that arise with the maturing process.
All of the fights over who is stealing whom from whom,
whether it be among boyfriends & girlfriends,
or simply among friends.

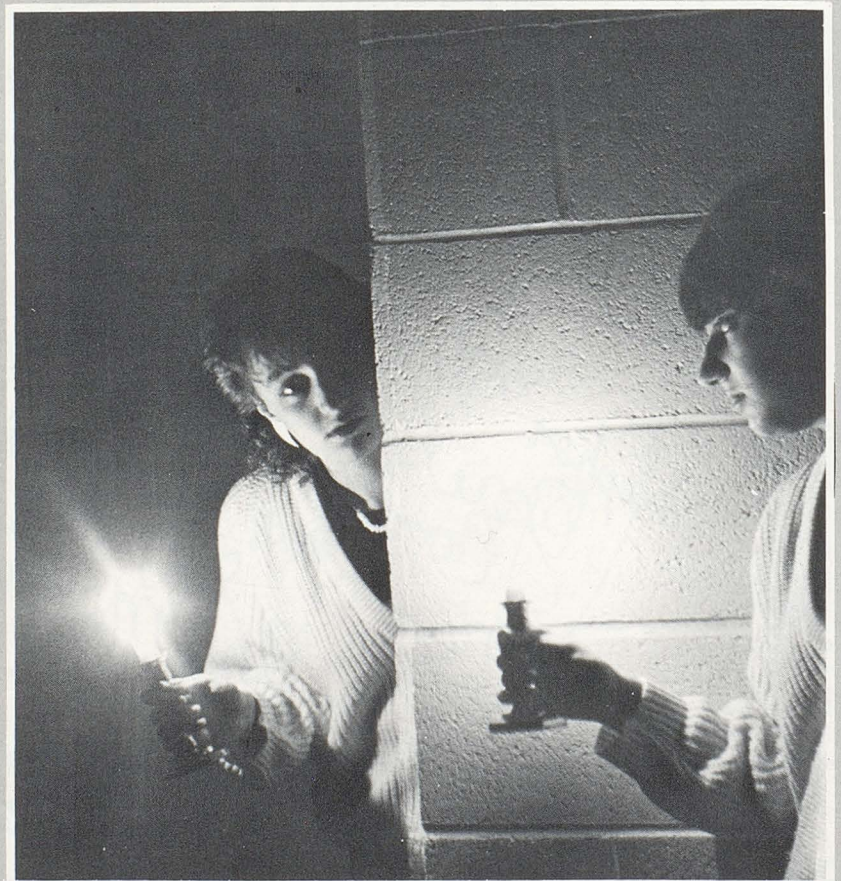

It has been put behind us now.
And we have become something we never thought we'd be . . .
The Senior Class of 1987.
But even more importantly, we've become friends.

GROWING UP

I can't get help
It's something I must do
Its gets so confusing
So many things are new.

Each day brings thoughts
Without end
From the pain of lost loves
To the joys of a best friend.

The decisions are all mine
Being a child is what I miss
It's growing up and learning
It's all part of this.

But I must not get down
Because those days are gone
they'll never be back
But my memories will live on.

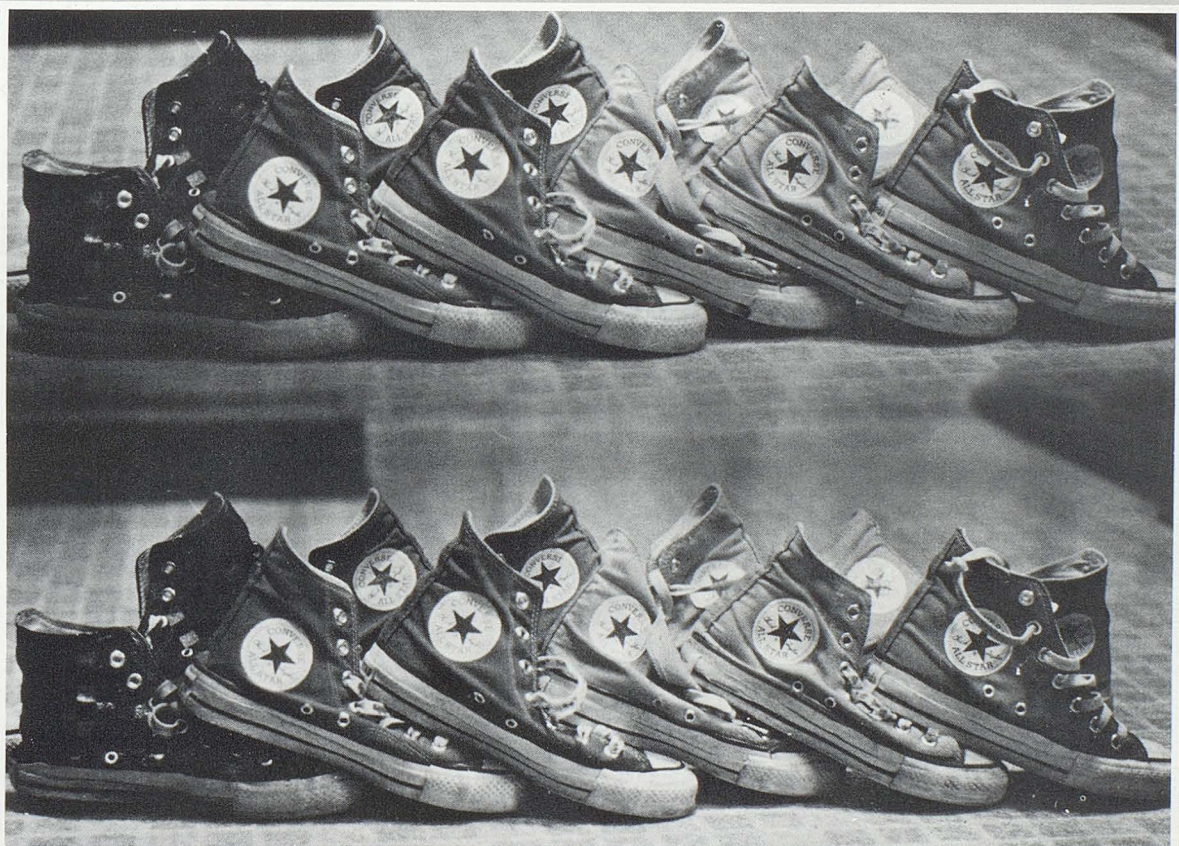

Memories of yesteryear
Both good and bad
Taking a big step in the world
More time I wish I had.

And when I make mistakes
They will always be there
But growing up should be happy
Not something I must fear.

So much time has passed,
Since the first time we all met.
And now we go our separate ways,
But do we know each other yet?

Are we just empty faces,
among the crowded mass?
Were these years merely temporary?
For they've gone by so fast.

So now we choose those separate paths,
Leaving love and memories behind.
And perhaps, we've discovered friendship,
Again perhaps, it's only in our minds.

As I look back on the last four years,
Many things cross my mind.
A sad feeling comes to heart,
It's time to leave it all behind.

We're all moving on in life,
This time it's not a game.
Things get pretty tough out there,
We'll all never be the same.

But we have our memories to hang on to,
If thing should happen to go wrong.
And we'll always have our friendships,
That have shaped and made us strong.

It's a time of joy and sadness,
In expectation of things to come.
It's an end and a new beginning,
For we've only just begun.

LIFE

*Set new goals
And make them high
Always reaching Aiming for the sky.*

*Make new friends and live life to its best being you is what counts
That's the real test.*

*Never be afraid
To say you were wrong
Realizing mistakes
Is what makes a person strong.*

*Be a good friend
To those who really care
And you'll always
Be loved everywhere.*

She loves me yeah, yeah, yeah!

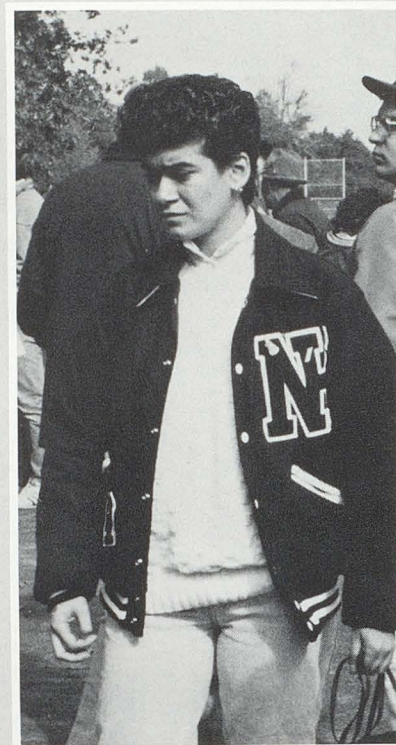

Maybe if I move my lips no one will realize that I'm studying for my chem test!

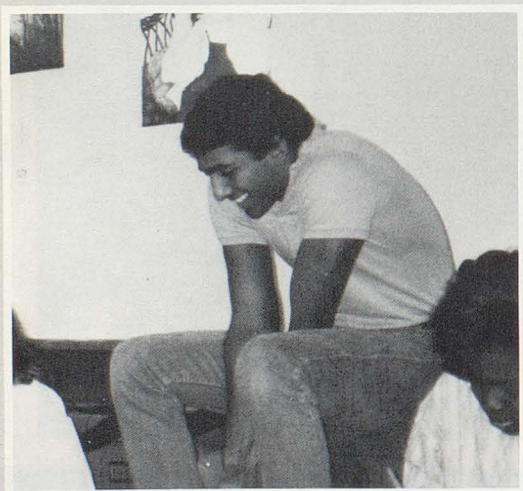

Ta, da, da, da! It's imperial!

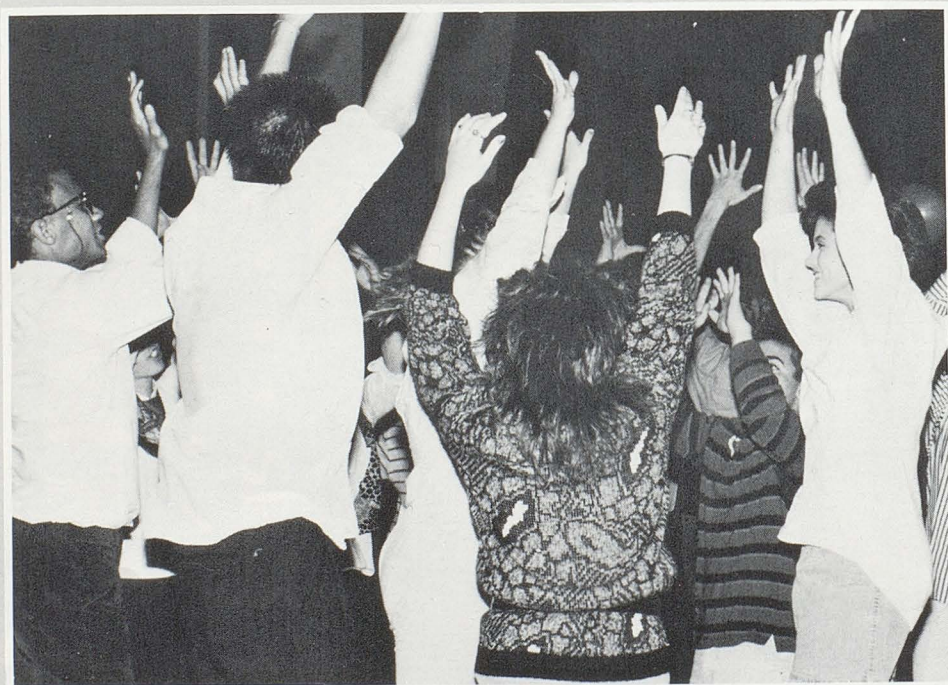

Dad! Can't it wait? I'm trying to watch the game!

I hate losing!

I'm so-ooooo embarrassed!

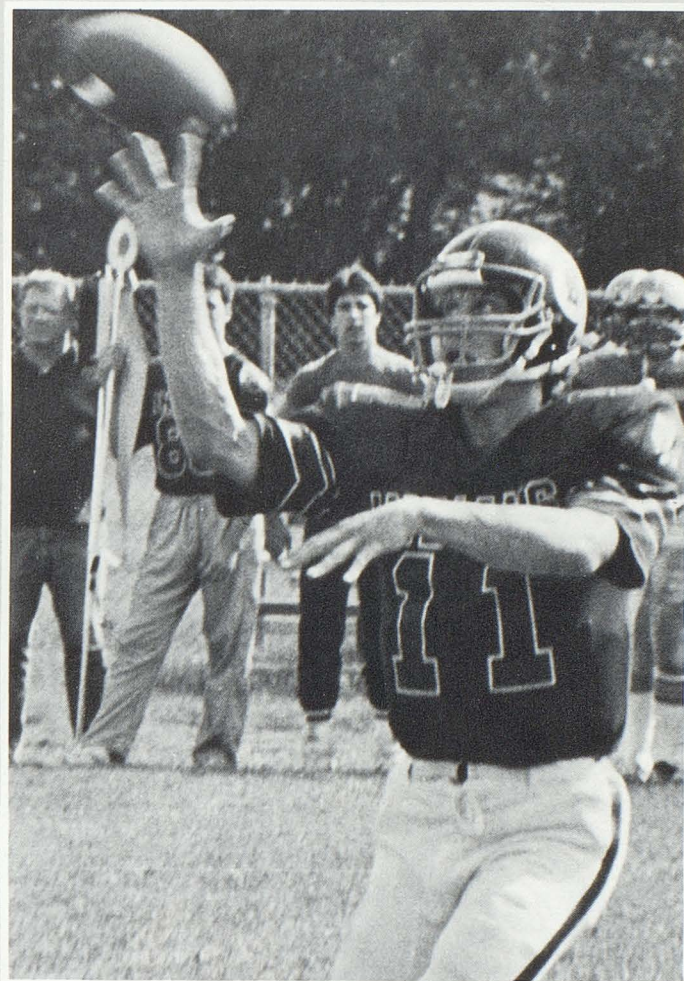

Raise your hands if you're sure!

C'mon North Haven, show us your underalls!

You're stepping on my gown!

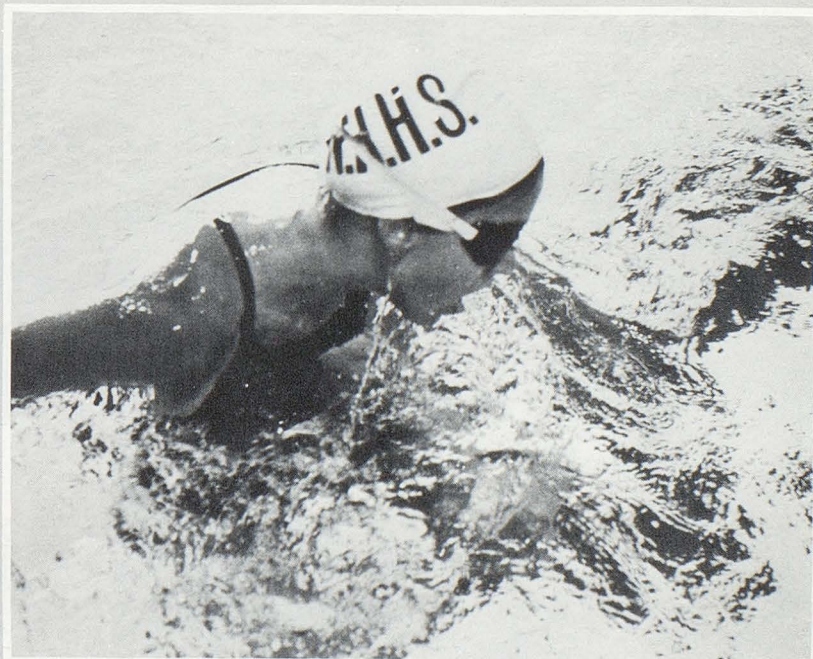

If I miss, DeMayo's gonna kill me!

Hey beautiful! Where've you been all my life?

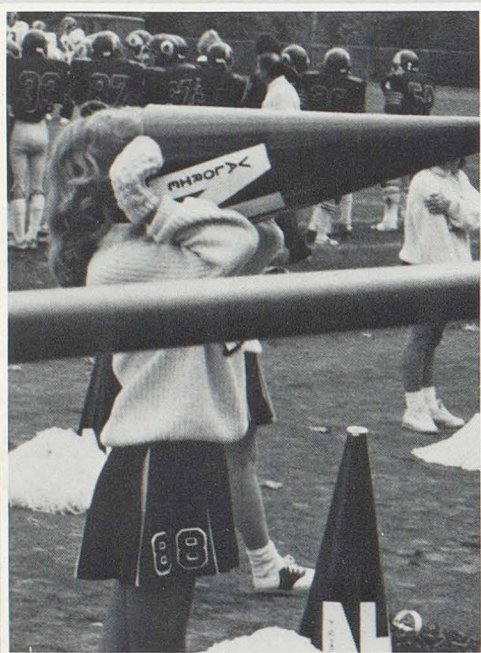

It's not me! It's them!

Help! There's a shark in the pool!

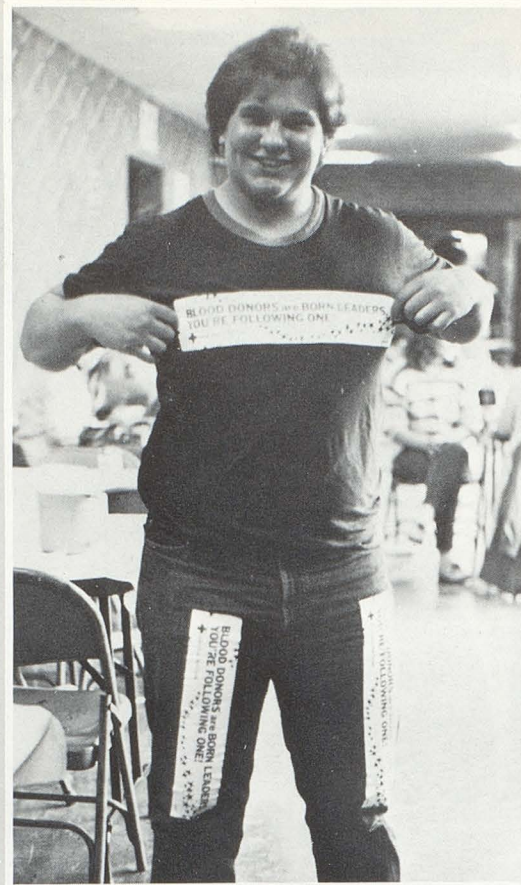

Just a little farther--stretch!

No, Val, you yell out of the other end!

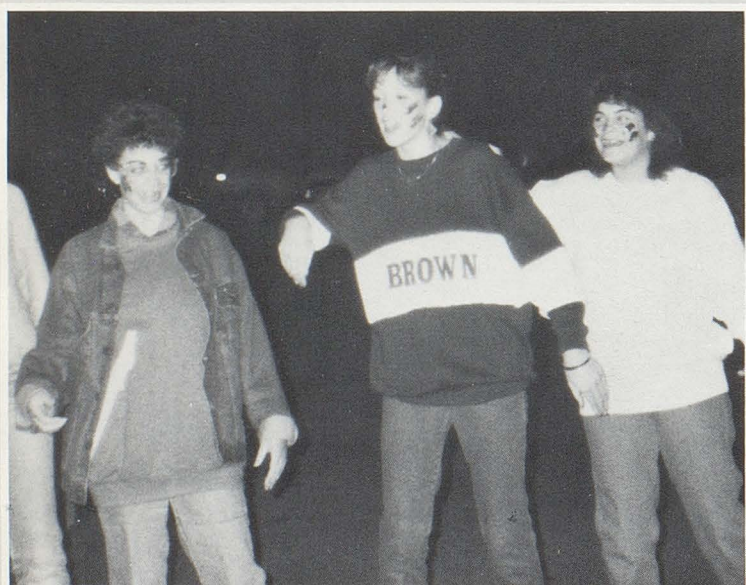

No, I really don't know how to use this thing--I'm only trying to look professional.

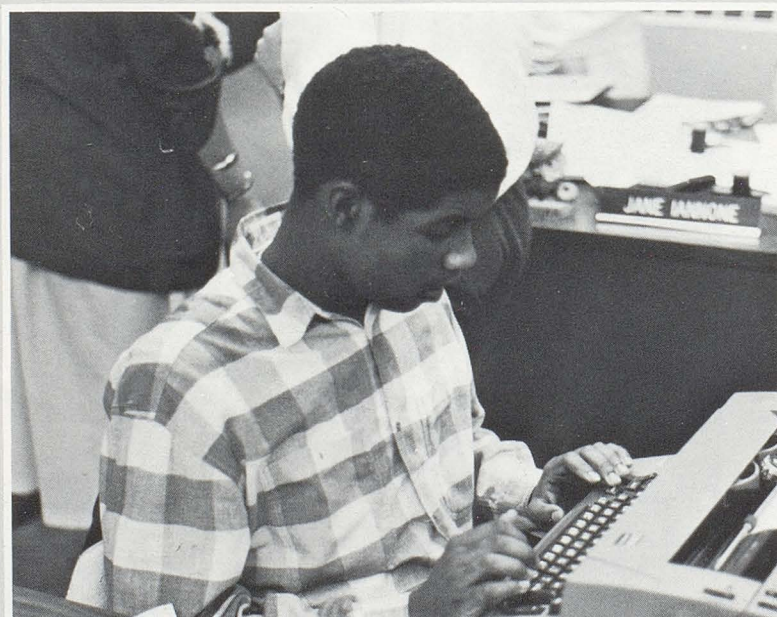

I'm special--I've got three stickers!

Want to see my impression of a goldfish?

How funky is your chicken?

Now where is that stupid key?

Naa! Bette would never do that!

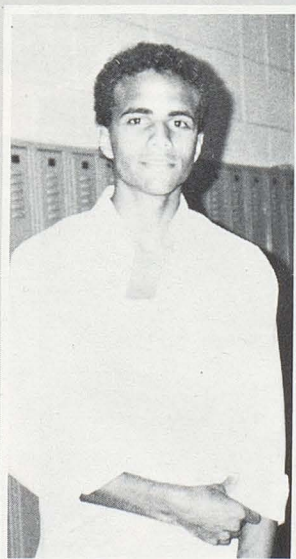

Now I really feel sick!

No, really, I'm a very organized person--most of the time.

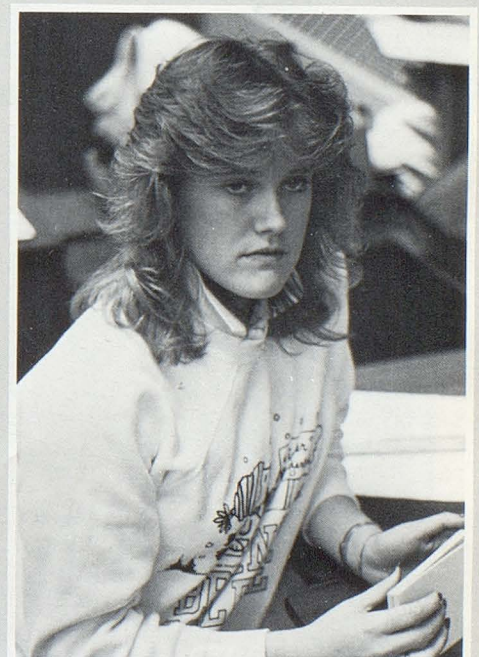

Smile--we're on candid camera!

See my booboo?

Follow me--the party's this way!

You've got to be kidding!
