Only two people in love Can share the excitement of togetherness.
May your deeds be good or may they be bad
Does not matter.
Sharing that moment. Oh, that private and intimate moment
Which no memory can erase.
While holding hands
The feeling of love flowing from one body to another Your own fantasy world, which no man can trespass.
Call it love, call it passion
Yet this can never be defined,

The rusted chains of prison moons

Are shattered by the sun
I walk a road, horizons change
The tournament's begun
The yellow jester does not play
But gently pulls the strings
And smiles as the puppets dance
In the court of the Crimson King.

All the knowledge out of books
Can't make you wise
To be wise is to be loved
Unified with others
Wisdom is understanding nature
And living with her
Being out in the world
With so many people forces you to seek wisdom
And this little school with so few types of people is little preparation.
