Farewell to you and the youth I have spent with you.
It was but yesterday we met in a dream.
But now our sleep has fled and our dream is over, and it is no longer dawn
The noontide is upon us and our half waking has turned to fuller day, and we must part.
If in the twilight of memory we should meet once more, we shall speak again together and you shall sing to me a deeper song.
And if our hands should meet in another dream we shall build another tower in the sky.
