*Look around.
The grass is high,
The fields are ripe,
It's the springtime of my life.*

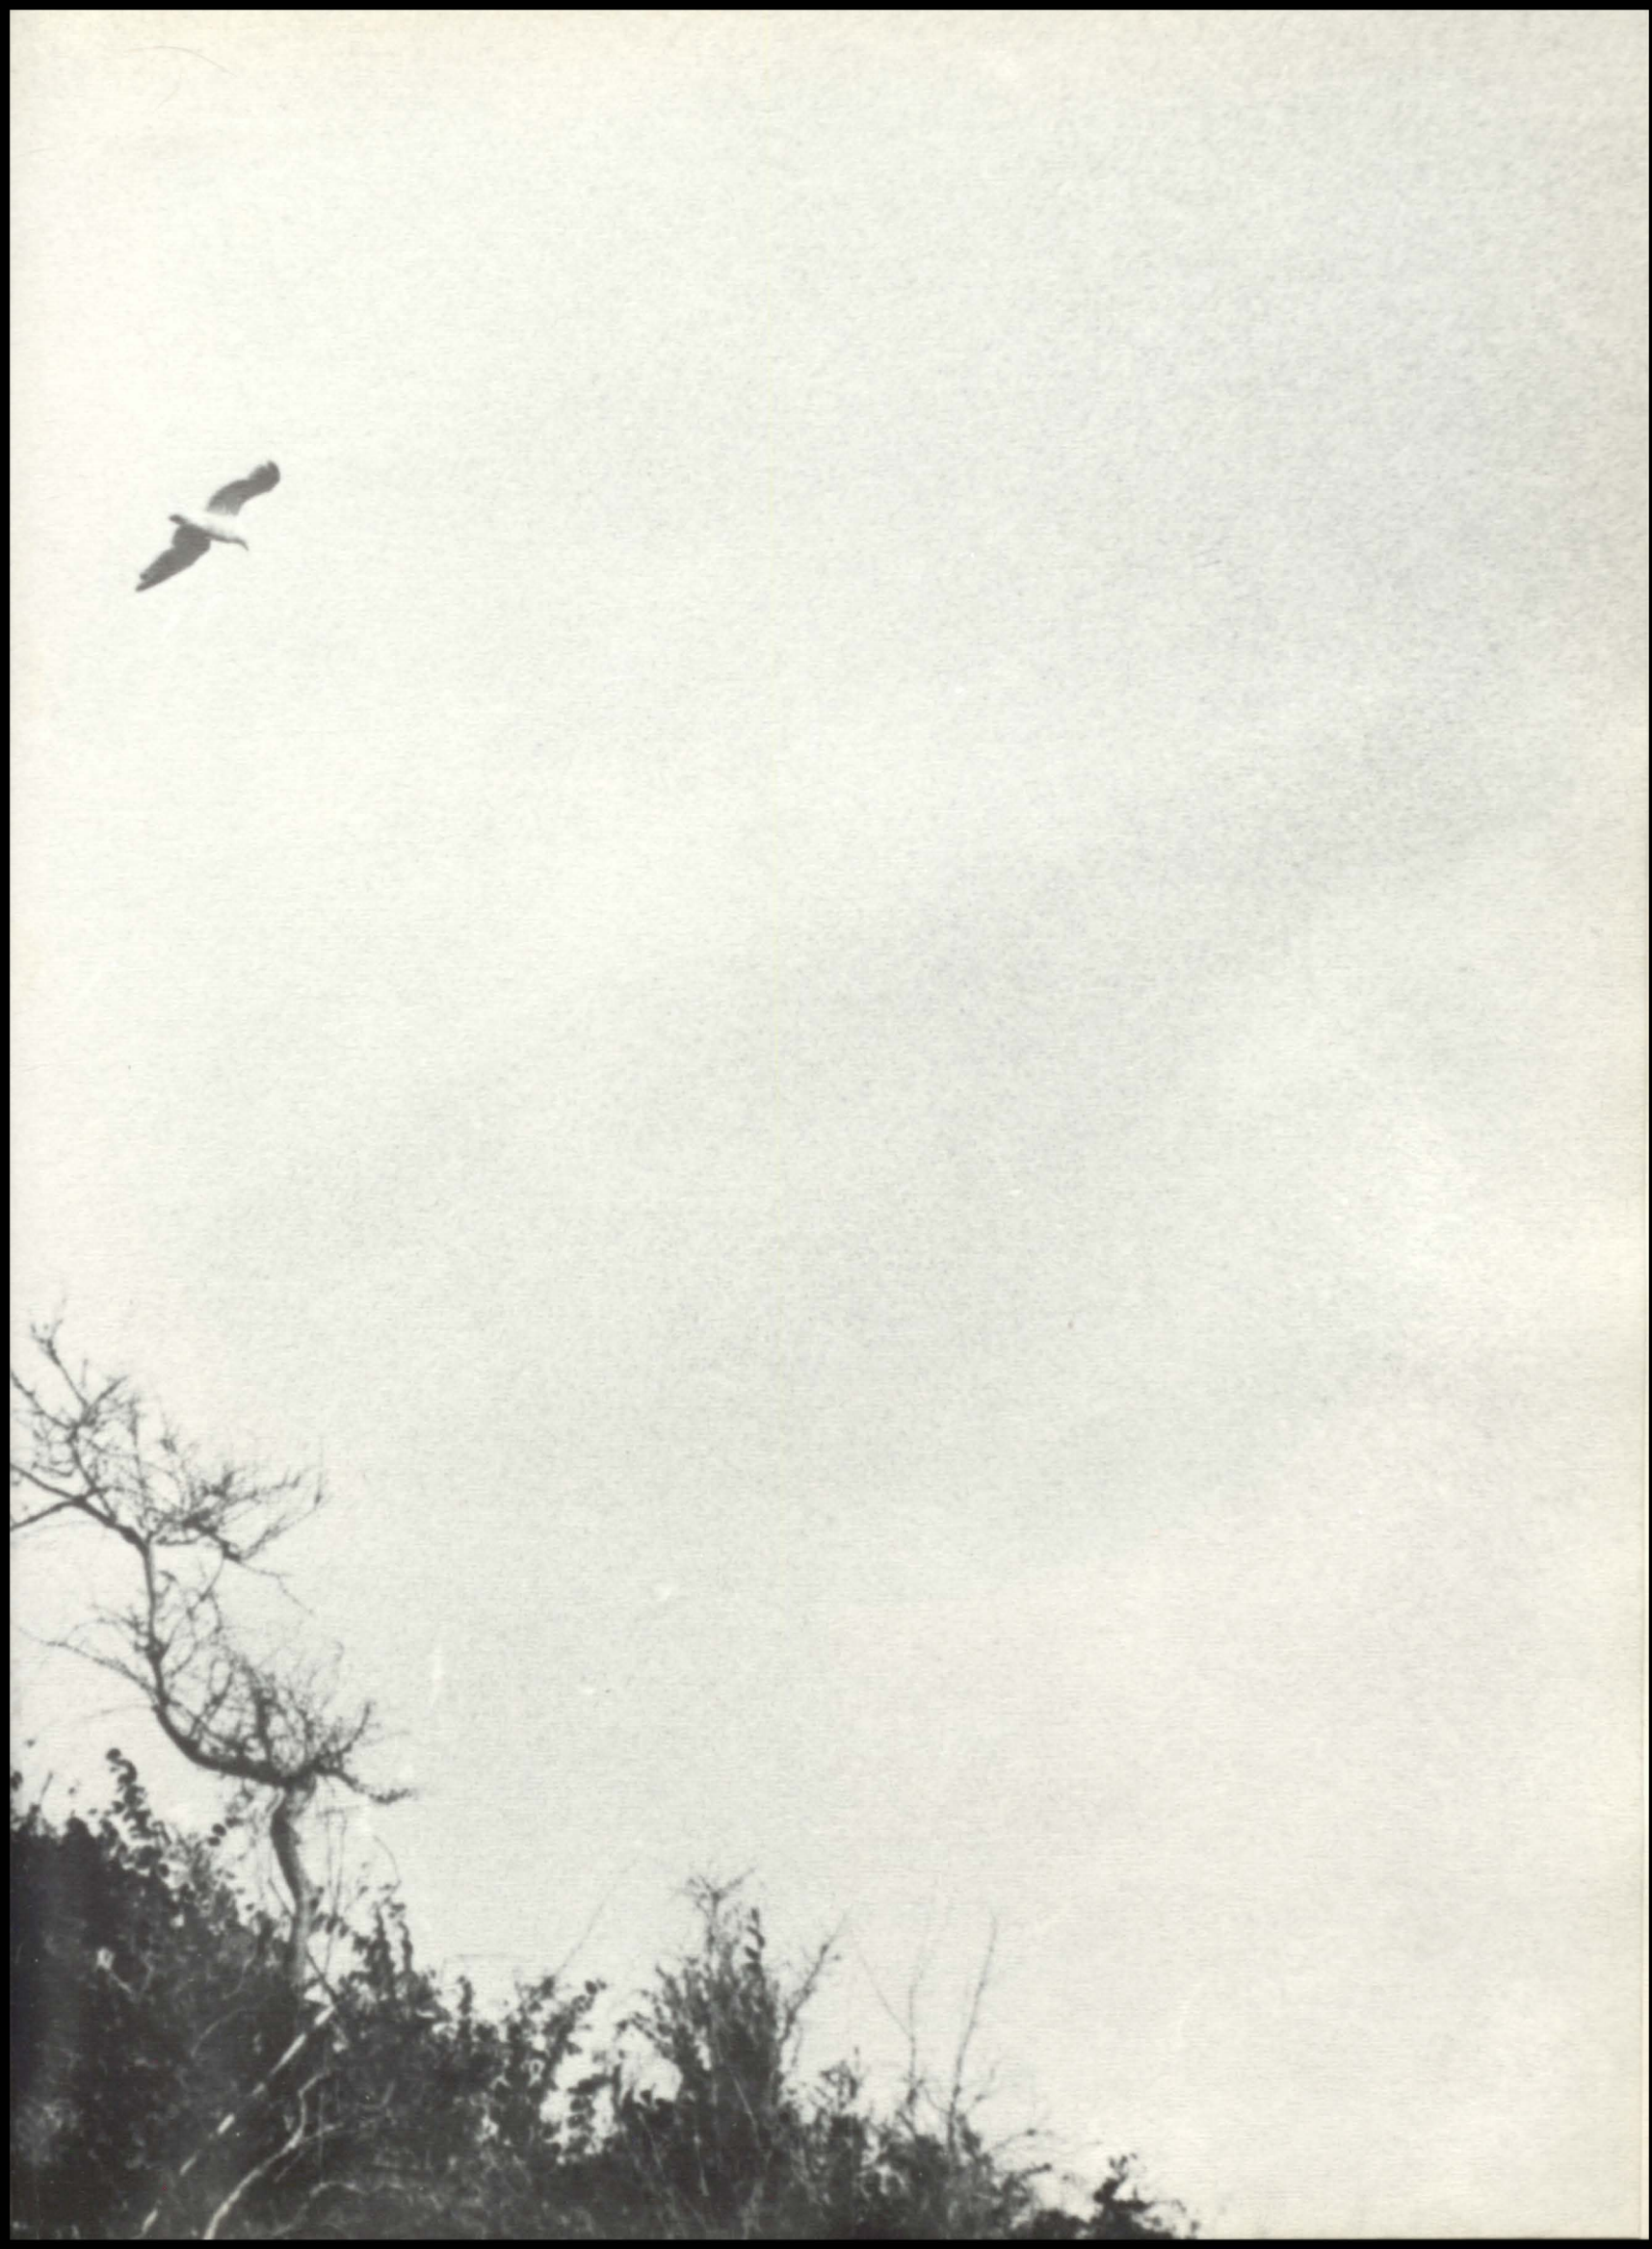

*Seasons change with the scenery;
Weaving time in a tapestry.
Won't you stop and remember me . . . ?*

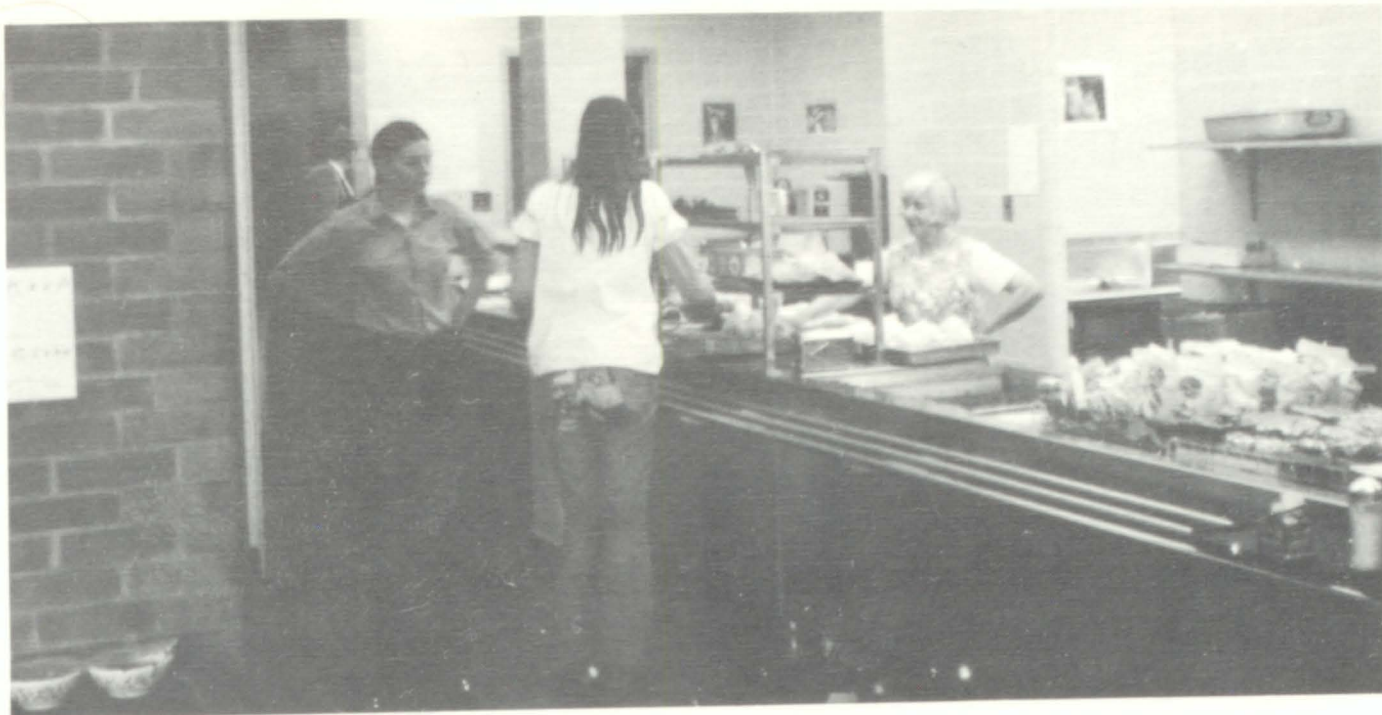

*I look around,
Leaves are brown,
And the sky is a hazy shade of winter.*

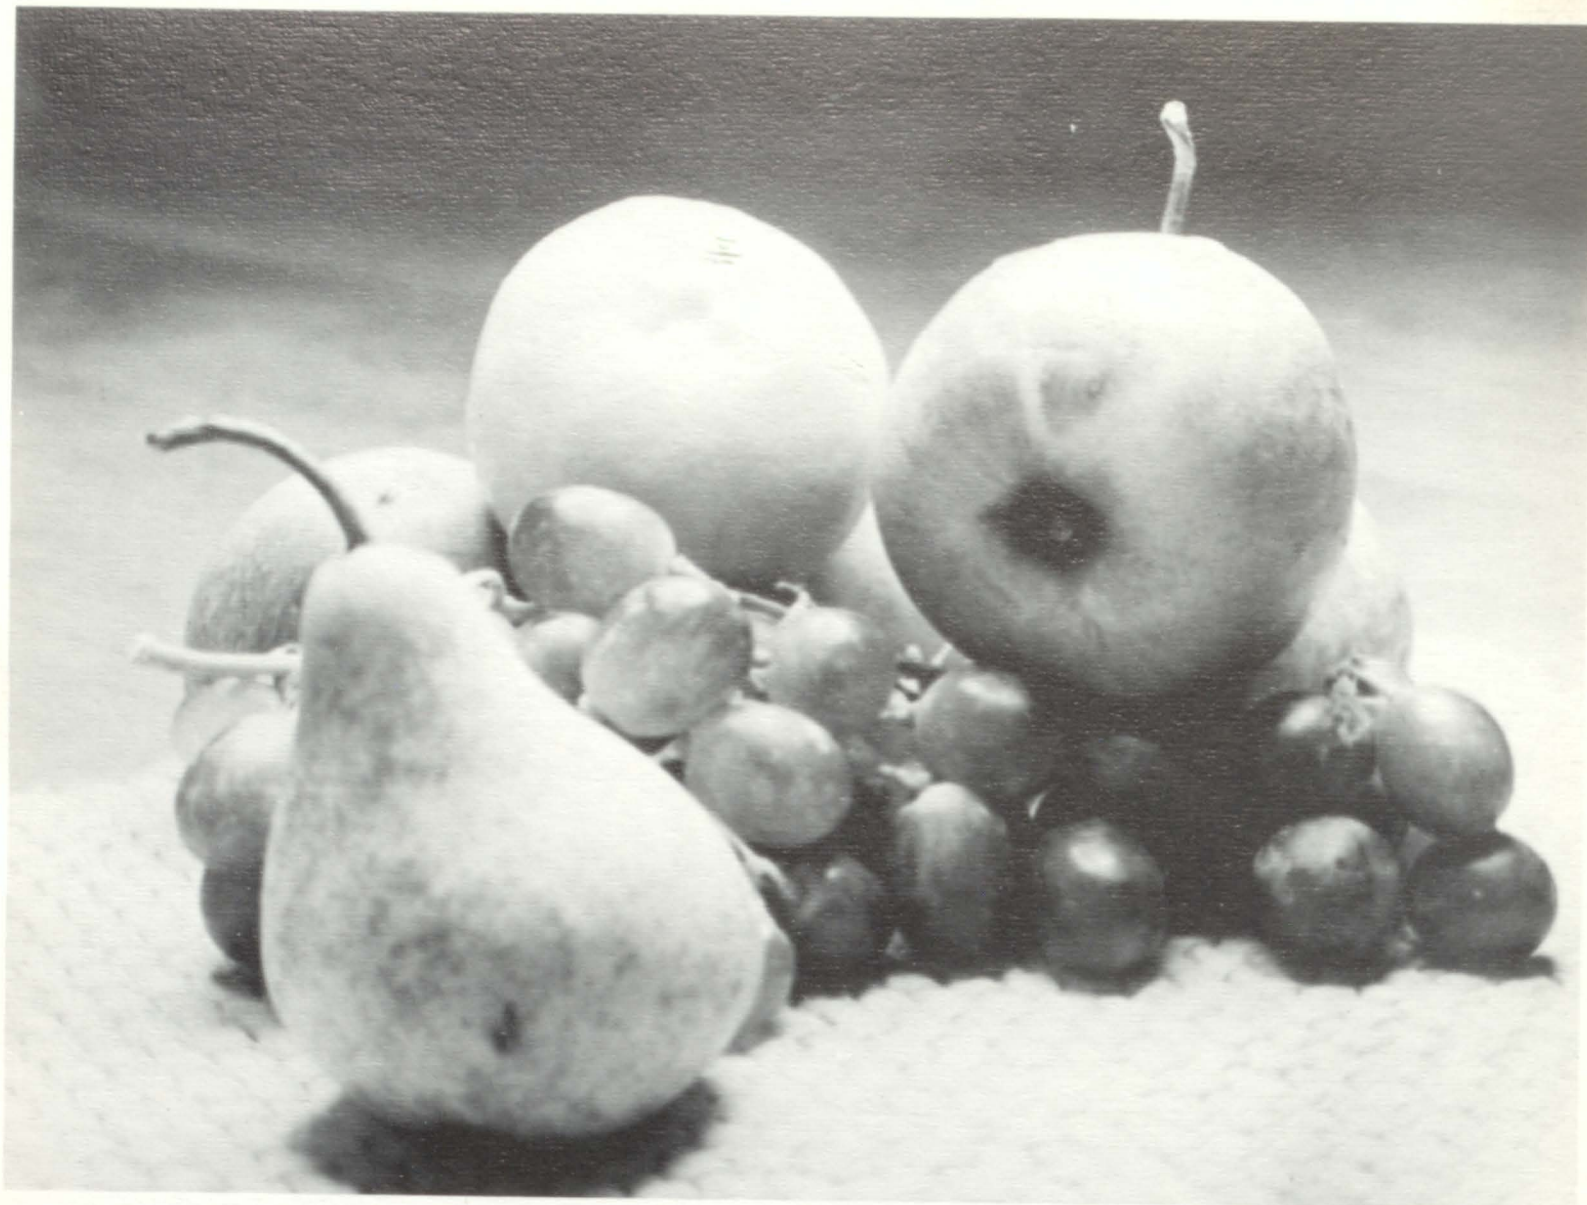

*Time it was,
And what a time it was,
It was . . .
A time of innocence,
A time of confidences.
Long ago . . . it must be . . .
I have a photograph.
Preserve your memories;
They're all that's left you.*

The staff of Sachem, on behalf of the class of 1972, wishes to express a special word of thanks to the members of the custodial and cafeteria staffs. You are often taken for granted, but you are the people who must put up with all of us each and every day. It is your job to maintain our buildings, dispose of the mountains of refuse we create and keep our voraciously hungry stomachs appeased. We sincerely appreciate your efforts. Thank you one and all.

CLASS WILLS

I, "Mercs", basically leave to Piggy—Piggy MM's diving board and AM's candlesticks in remembrance of the first couple of times.

I, Karen Piscitelli, leave Tony Pollatto all my erasers.

I, Pat Scalia, leave to Barbara Bayus my title as class flirt in hopes that she can fulfill it.

I, Rick LaPolombara, leave all the . . . of N.H.H.S. and take with me everything else—in a peanut shell.

I, Jeff Libson, leave this school to anyone in this world who has more guts and less apathy to please take it.

I, Dominick Prodoti, leave Mr. Humphrey's Chemistry class with about as much knowledge as I went in there with.

I, Sue Cavanna, will finally and happily leave "good ole North Haven High."

I, Bob, leave all the junior girls to who ever wants them!

I, Sandy Thees, leave North Haven High to Debbie Carafeno with the hopes that she will have as many memories to leave behind as I have, and to Lynn O'Keefe, a year to rest and recover from teaching cheers.

I, Pat Schutz, leave North Haven High School with no regrets and to anyone who can miss as many days of school as I have and still pass!

I, Maureen Hogan, leave Mr. Nigro's class with laryngitis.

I, Rich Tozzo, leave my two interceptions to Steve Amarante and Myles Melillo in the hopes that they get ten.

I, Jo-Anne Angelucci, leave to Swish, an autographed basketball and my fondest memories of Becky's class to Dribb, "How nice you look in PINK!" to Ro and Jo, mucha suerte y felicidad en '73 y en los anos que vienen and to Lou, may your last two years be your best two.

I, Deb, leave Mr. Bartlett with fond memories and hopes that he gets a class that will fill the front seats instead of the back.

I, Joanne Daley, leave Mr. Burill, who seems like a ferocious tiger but is really a little pussy cat.

I, Debbie Horan, leave without any regrets.

I, Judy Pettorini, leave North Haven High hoping to find peace in the future and in my mind.

I, Valerie Boyken, leave the class of 1973 my locker, number 45.

I, Mary Gianotti, leave to my sister Jo-Ann, my spot in the lav.

I, Jess Wrightington, leave all the dullness to the juniors.

I, Michael Foley, leave my badminton racquet to my sister, Joanne, in hopes she becomes as great as I was.

I, John Vigliotti, leave my sweaty gymsuit to the P.E. department.

I, Frances Cozzolino, leave North Haven High School with beautiful memories, a touch of sorrow, a little more understanding and a helluva lot more tolerance of people than what I came in with.

I, Richard Cocciaro, leave the Class spirit of '72 to those proud enough to show it.

I, Grath McElya, and I, Rona Cappella, fondly and quickly leave the Drama Club, its management, and its Mr. Fitzgerald to Junior: in hopes that he might find a way to cut through the "Great Billowing Borine Baks of Bureaucratic . . ."

I, Steve Zion, leave the whole, lousy school to my girl, Sue Wawrzeiak.

I, Sue Jeanotte, leave my messed-up job case in Mr. Schatzlein's room to anyone who can find 4 and 5 em space.

I, Dave Fonda, leave whatever is left to the school.

I, Lynn Wilcox, leave N.H.H.S. to my brother Scott, in hopes that he'll eventually outgrow it, and to Carol, Rose, and GERALYN, sunshine and smiles and to Mrs. Hilton — "Thank you."

I, Bob Haag, leave the teachers of N.H.H.S. sadder for the experience and fully prepared for any future catastrophe.

I, Diane Raccio, leave North Haven in a much worse condition than when I entered, but not as bad off. And I don't leave it to anyone. Who would want it?

I, Joe Pepe, leave my cap to Janet Carafa so she may have the opportunity to play the part of a catcher.

I, Almerinda Corniello, leave all my worries at North Haven High.

I, Malinda Midzenski, leave the littered cafeteria for any ecology-minded person to clean up next year.

I, Cindy Miller, leave my Chem. lab to Cathy and I hope she enjoys it as much as I didn't.

I, Cheryl Bartlett, leave to Frank Fiore my great knowledge of math.

I, Joann Williams, into the music department I commend my spirit.

I, Betsy Schattan, leave Tony Basilicato with much regret. He's one of the very few truly wonderful people I have found.

I, leave to the juniors Mr. Mascagna, who never stops trying . . .!

I, Pat, leave Mr. Robbins and his Chemistry class to anybody smart enough or dumb enough to take it. Good luck with the Bunson Burners.

We, Diane and Debbie, leave the auditorium lav to Doreen and Lori.

We, Joe Barulli, Bic Beacom, Tom White, Kevin Marshall, Joe Marishio and Steve Zion, leave the windowsill to who ever is tough enough to sit there.

We, Paula, Jan, Sue, Debbie, and Sandy, leave to the Rah-Rah Squad of '73 the challenge of earning another Spirit Stick for N.H.H.S.

We, Annmarie, Barb, Deb, Fran, Nancy, Noreen, Pat, Phyllis, Susan and Waffa, leave the third table from the door in the cafe to any group of juniors who spend enough time in there to appreciate it!

We, the girls of '72, leave our blue gym suits since we were the first class to wear them.

We, "The Pack", leave the tables in the cafe by the door for quick escapes to the lav, and to the parking lot. (A.P., P.B., S.P., D.K., N.R., L.B., M.O., S.N.)

We, Diane Fusco and Sharlene Gravel, leave Mrs. Palmeri and her machines and computers very HAPPILY!!!

We, Bob and Jan, leave lockers 259 and 260 to Terri in hopes that she gets as much use out of them as we did.

We, Annette and Jack, leave all the good times we had fighting with each other in the cafeteria, to anyone who can fight without laughing, because we couldn't.

We, Jan and Patti, leave to Nancy, Lisa, Ruth, Lisa, and Jackie, one mop in hopes that next year they won't have to use it.

We, Rosemary and Dominick, leave behind us many memories of happiness in our high school years.

We, Christine and Lynn, leave sunny mornings and second base with deep regret.

We, Nick DeLucia and Rich Tozzo, leave our title of Captain Kangaroo to Tom Chiari and Todd Carr.

We, Sue, Sue, Jan, Deb, Jo, and Jo, leave the library in peace and quiet.

We, Donna, Annette, and Debbie, leave Miss Satterlee's class to anyone who wants to learn the entire French language in one "easy" year.

I, R. C., leave to D. J., 10 per cent of all the "transactions" that took place in the bookroom.

We, Anne and Betsy, leave the year of 1972 to Den and Marie in hopes that they always stay so happy. Bon chance!

We, the class of 1972 leave, each our own private hiding places, favorite spots, and special friends. The hassles of papers, assignments, and tests are finally finished. The familiar faces that have been around for six years will soon go their own ways, probably never to meet again. Yes, we're leaving. . . .
