FOREWORD

The theme of this volume of the SACHEM, the stars in their traditional groupings, should be taken at face value; merely a means of achieving a degree of "artistic" unity. There is no intent to convey any sort of artificial dignity either to the school or to the book. If it is allowed, we would only suggest the idea expressed in these words of George Santayana:

"The problem of darkness does not exist for a man gazing at the stars. No doubt the darkness is there, fundamental, pervasive and unconquerable except at the pinpoints where the stars twinkle. But the problem is not why there is such darkness, but what is the light that breaks through it so remarkably; and granting this light, why we have eyes to see it and hearts to be gladdened by it.

DEDICATION

DELIO J. ROTONDO

In the fall of 1961 the Senior Class, along with the underclassmen welcomed to North Haven High a new principal. Though we have known him for but a brief time we have come to admire him as a friend and an administrator. The Class of 1962 would like to take this opportunity to express its thanks through the dedication of this volume of the SACHEM to Mr. Delio J. Rotondo.

IN APPRECIATION

JOYCE FONTAINE

MICHAEL PERRONE

The production of a yearbook seemed a rather small task when we first considered it, yet within a short time the staff and editors were overwhelmed by what appeared an impossible responsibility. Our one consolation was that we had the advice and encouragement of Miss Fontaine and Mr. Perrone. Both gave freely of their time to coordinate our work and together they represent one of the single most important factors in making the SACHEM a reality.

SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

To each member of the Class of 1962 we offer congratulations upon the achievement of a goal towards which you have been working ever since you entered the North Haven school system many years ago.

Commencement marks both an end and a beginning. Like the two-faced god Janus, the graduate looks back with one face upon a time of growth towards maturity and self-reliance under the secure protection of home, school, church, and community. With the other face, he looks forward eagerly to a future filled with great freedom and greater responsibility.

The world in which you will be expected to participate actively and intelligently is a troubled world which offers harsh choices and herculean tasks. The manner in which your generation responds to these challenges will determine the future of our country and of our world. The utmost in courage, integrity, and idealism will be demanded of you. These qualities you have attained to a degree, but must continue to foster in the years ahead.

You have much to offer to the adult world. We have great expectations for the Class of 1962!

MR. THOMAS RYAN

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

I shall always have happy memories of the Class of 1962. You have helped to make my first year as Principal of North Haven High School a warm and personal experience. Your co-operation and mature understanding have helped make this an outstanding year, not only for your class, but for the school as a whole.

Graduation from North Haven High School marks the end of formal education for some of you. For others it will be but a step toward further study. In either case, Commencement should be considered as the beginning of a new and more meaningful experience in learning, characterized by a greater degree of freedom and self-responsibility.

We, as a Nation, stand at the threshold of a new and demanding era. Our people must have a sense of dedication as well as trained and disciplined minds capable of coping with the awesome and complex tasks that lie ahead.

Through the academic and extra-curricular programs at North Haven High School, every effort has been made to develop those character traits and mental disciplines necessary for success in the future. How well we have succeeded will be measured in terms of your achievement. It is our sincere hope that we have served you well.

Your teachers join me in wishing you success and happiness in the years ahead.

D. J. ROTONDO

JOSEPH R. DUNN, JR.

VICE-PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Writing these few words to the Class of 1962 is a privilege I accept with mixed emotions. First, it is with regret that I note your leaving North Haven High School. Fond memories of the experiences we have had together as individuals and as the Class of 1962 will linger on.

Second, it is with pleasure that I note your completion of another important step toward full maturity and acceptance as an adult.

Thomas Wolfe, the American novelist, once wrote, "So, then, to every man his chance — to every man, regardless of his birth, his shining, golden opportunity — to every man the right to live, to work, to be himself, and to become whatever thing his manhood and his vision can combine to make him — this, seeker, is the promise of America."

These words were never so true as they are today. You are embarking on your adult careers in the most exciting time in the history of man. Your teachers are confident that they have equipped each of you with those skills, facts, and attitudes so vital to happy and meaningful participation in the world of today.

We all believe that each of you will realize the fulfillment of the promise so beautifully expressed by Thomas Wolfe.

We offer it as a personal challenge to each of you to justify our confidence in you. We remind you that North Haven High School always stands ready to welcome you back for visits and to serve you in any way possible.

Our best wishes are extended to you wherever you go. Don't panic. Be flexible.

SENIORS

MEMORIES FOND AND TRUE . . .

In the fall of 1957 we entered the maze of halls called North Haven High School. Timidly we followed the signs to our homerooms. It was that day which marked the beginning of a new phase of our school life, and thus the golden thread of knowledge began weaving its path.

The class of 1962 officially got together for the first time when students from four different elementary schools entered North Haven as Seventh Graders. Mr. Aquila informed us that Miss Gaetano and Mr. Gilbride would be our class advisors and would help us adjust to this very new type of life. Soon afterwards elections were held. With this came our first taste of "Big-Time" politics, with campaigning, speeches and voting on paper ballots. Elected to lead our class were Michael Davey, Carol Davies, Marilyn Zilli and Eleanor Guzzio, as President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer respectively. Our first and only activity that year was a celestial dance, "Seventh Heaven." Planning tickets, publicity and decorations made us feel like grown-ups, but unfortunately on the night of the dance refreshments were still the biggest hit!! Nevertheless, we, the class of "62," in taking that first big step marked the beginning of what was to be, in the not too distant future, some of the most enjoyable and memorable experiences of our lives.

In Eighth Grade Miss Anderson, since Miss Gaetano was now teaching in the Montowese School, and Mr. Gilbride were our advisors. Our new officers were Bill Flanagan, President, and Marilyn Tamaro, Secretary. The other officers were the same. Sounds of "Bonjour, Buenas Dias" and Latin verbs were heard throughout the school as we got our first taste of foreign languages. Mr. Lynch's English class was the first ever to participate in Latin Night, while not taking Latin. Our girls made fine dancers!! Homemaking and Industrial Arts were also taken, but it was the girls who made the lawn signs and shelves while the boys were busy sewing aprons!! This year also ended our two year chorus requirement with Mr. Hauser. Our gala night club opening, "The Eighth Wonder," was our class sponsored dance in October. We were able to stay from seven till ten!

Do you remember the day we made the grade? At last we were freshmen in high school. We were taking our first full year of languages. In the math classes we were trying to make $X + Y = Z$. For a half year we pounded typewriters in room 40, in an attempt to abolish the "hen-pecking" system forever. The rest of the year was spent in art, getting more paint on us than on the paper! Bill Flanagan, President; Eleanor Guzzio, Vice President; Marilyn

"Ninth Rock-it"

Tammaro, Secretary, and Edith Work, Treasurer, with the same class advisors, led us through our first high school year. For the first time we had to pay class dues. However, the most shocking thing we did was to stand at the bus stop with hula-hoops in our hands. We were really stared at by passing motorists! It was all for a good cause, our class dance, "The Ninth Rocket." Our space-man arrived in a hula-hoop rocket!

With swift footsteps we strode into our sophomore year. We continued to raise the banners for our class with the help of our class advisors, Miss Anderson and Mr. Gilbride and our very competent class officers Eleanor Guzzio, Sharon Buller, Marilyn Tammaro and Carol Davies. Class spirit was at its peak that year with Sophomore Week. We started off quietly with Hush Day. Girls tried to get the boys to talk to them and vice-versa. The day was climaxed by a fair after school. The second day was designated as dress up day and everyone came in their best. That afternoon we had the east courtyard for our teachers' reception. The final day was workman's day, bringing our successful week to a spectacular end. That night at a hilarious shipwreck party, Carol Luppi and James Romano were crowned Mr. and Miss "irresistible," based on the number of times they got people to talk to them on Hush Day. We climaxed our eventful year with our class dance "Crystals in Twilight," or was it "Twilight in Crystals"??

Junior year started in May of our sophomore year, when Karl Koning, chairman, had everyone order class rings. As a result we received the rings very early in the junior year. The new class pin, a smaller and less expensive symbol than the ring, was organized by Anne Gordon and Nina Runyon, and made its appearance at about the same time. If rings were one possession, the eventual driver's license was another. Bit by bit, with increasing numbers toward the end of the year, our class appeared with this hard won piece of paper. As fall became winter, our new and very capable class advisors Dr. Thomas Aquila and Miss Burnette Johnson took the place of our long standing and well thought of class advisors Miss Lorraine Anderson and Mr. Bernard Gilbride. Junior Class officers, Eleanor Guzzio, President; Bob Pierpont, Vice President; Marilyn Tammaro, Secretary and Carol Davies, Treasurer, worked together to build class spirit and unity. "Dues must be paid before the class party," was our theme song in March. Everyone strove to fulfill this goal and so spirit was high on March fourteenth. After vigorous planning, a surprise? birthday party for Ellie was the high point of the class party. Increased publicity due to Honor Guard problems and a cake and cookie sale made better known the existence of the juniors. Problems were ironed out eventually and the cookies were eaten swiftly. Toward April plans crystalized on "Bali Hai," our Junior Prom. South Sea Island decorations, wonderful music and the reign of King, John Poll and Carol Davies, Queen, made April fifteenth a memorable night. At the end of the year we began looking with longing toward the courtyard and the middle seats down front. For Marilyn Zilli and Joel Ryan, co-editors of the "62" Sachem, advance work on the yearbook cumulated in June, when yearbook pictures were taken. Finally the last day of school came: Frank Ragozzino and Karl Koning became Nutmeg Boys' State representatives with Eleanor Guzzio and alternate Carol Davies for Laurel Girls' State. After the assembly in the morning, all juniors were dismissed back to home-rooms — with the permission to use the courtyard, although the class of 1961 had not officially left. Within minutes our "62" flag was being raised. Our wooden numerals were being put in the ground and the christening was noisily taking place. Thus with the entrance to the courtyard we became seniors.

ACTIVITIES

STUDENT COUNCIL

Under the direction of President Ann Gordon, the Student Council carried on the difficult task of governing the school. The Council busied itself with a number of diversified activities this year. Among these was presenting the morning announcements in a novel and more interesting way.

The Student Council spent much of its time and energy in planning for the exchange student NHHS will "adopt" next year. Connected with this proposal was an assembly put on by the Council explaining the intricacies of the exchange student program.

By far the most successful activity of this year was the Student Council's annual dance, the Harvest Hop. Presented in a typical autumn setting, the Harvest Hop was enjoyed by a large number of couples who turned out for an evening of dancing, and to watch Mary Mancini, a junior, become the third member of her family to bear the title of Harvest Hop Queen.

On the whole, the year 1961-62 for the Student Council can be described by only one word — successful.
