The result of a hypersensitively critical observation of my present social environment is simply this: The perverted sickness of your thoughts causes me to both laugh and cry inside realizing that you'll make it in society. I won't. Such a shame. Goodbye, vegetables. THEREFORE you don't even need the Bohn's and Doghouse's parking lots. Not even the prom.

Self-realization

No man can reveal to you aught but that which already lies half asleep in the dawning of your knowledge.

The teacher who walks in the shadow of the temple, among his followers, gives not of his wisdom but rather of his faith and his lovingness.

If he is indeed wise he does not bid you enter the house of his wisdom, but rather leads you to the threshold of your own mind.

*As the golden thread of knowledge
Weaves a path into the light
We will always carry with us
Memories of maroon and white.*
