SACHEM

1956

DEDICATION

We, the class of 1956, proudly dedicate our yearbook to our parents. We feel that our success as a class has been due to their never-ending support and encouragement. They have brought us successfully through the most difficult and important years of our lives. It is through their patient, wise and loving guidance that we feel adequately prepared to accept the responsibilities and privileges of the challenging new life which we are about to enter.

APPRECIATION

DORIS G. ROBINSON

As our class advisor for three years, the Class of 1956 will always be indebted to Miss Robinson's sincere, patient guidance.

Miss Robinson, a native of Brookline, Massachusetts, came to North Haven High as a biology teacher in 1953 upon her graduation from Boston University. She enjoys movies, plays, spectator sports, and, most of all, caring for her plants and animals.

We thank you sincerely, Miss Robinson, for a difficult job well-done.

JOHN SALVATORE NIGRO

Mr. Nigro, a business teacher in our high school, came directly to us from Teachers' College of Connecticut. In his first year of teaching we cannot thank him enough for the fine and inspiring role he has played as the business advisor of the Sachem. With an experienced background at this work at college he has given us much valuable aid. Mr. Nigro, a resident of Meriden, enjoys classical records, tennis and swimming.

To you we extend our heartfelt appreciation.

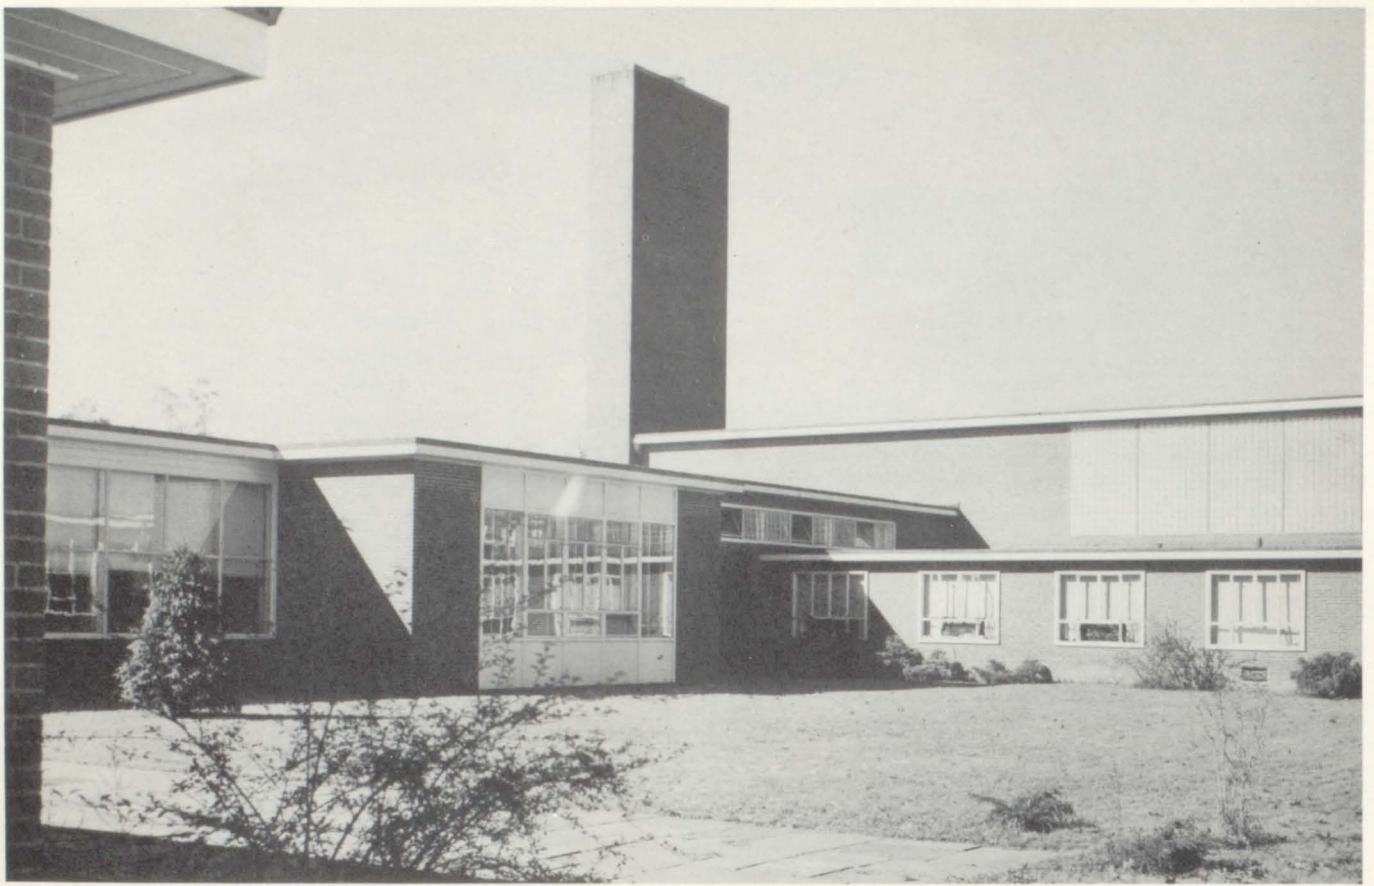

JOYCE DOROTHY FONTAINE

We are deeply appreciative of Miss Fontaine's time and help as the faculty advisor of the Sachem. We never could have done it alone.

Miss Fontaine, a graduate of the University of Connecticut, first taught in Old Lyme, Connecticut, but came to the North Haven school system in 1950 as a teacher of French and mathematics. Her hobbies include cooking, swimming, traveling and caring for her many plants.

We will always remember you fondly and gratefully, Miss Fontaine.

SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

To the Seniors:

Congratulations to the Class of 1956! You have now achieved a goal for which you have been working for many years. Graduation must have seemed far away when you first entered North Haven High School five years ago as members of the eighth grade. But it has approached with amazing rapidity as each busy year merged with the next.

Your class has had an unusual opportunity to help to build a new school, in both academic and extra-curricular fields. How well you have succeeded is evidenced by the strong reputation your high school has earned in and beyond the State of Connecticut. As you leave us as graduates of the Class of 1956, your responsibility to North Haven High School continues. Your record in college, business, in the armed services, and in life will reflect upon the honor of your high school. We are counting upon continued effort, achievement, and leadership.

As a class and as individuals you are well prepared for the future. We wish you good fortune and success!

Sincerely,

CHARLES T. ST. CLAIR

PRINCIPAL

MR. THOMAS A. AQUILA became principal in June, 1954. Before this he had been a science teacher, a guidance counselor and administration assistant, principal of the elementary wing and assistant principal of the high school. He has been an inspiring and model leader to whom we owe a great indebtedness for our happiness and the educational needs which have been fulfilled at North Haven High School.

MR. LEVI REDFIELD, our assistant principal and conduct advisor, came to us from the principalship of Montowese School in 1954. He attended Teachers College of Connecticut, the University of Kansas, and the University of Connecticut, at which he is doing graduate work. May following classes at North Haven High enjoy the good fortune of his leadership that we have acknowledged.

GUIDANCE DEPARTMENT

The Guidance Department, which includes Mr. Joseph Cone, Miss Irma King, and Mr. Frederick Ienello, has been invaluable in our high school career. From the time we entered high school, they have guided and prepared us for the day when we would graduate. Words cannot express the help we have received especially in this our senior year. CLASS HISTORY

Although we had been in the building for a year, suddenly we were faced with the realization that we were to be the second graduating class of North Haven High School — the Class of 1956.

Our first important movement as a class was to choose an advisor. After careful consideration the class elected Mr. Joseph Dunn, an English and social studies instructor. We then elected our freshman officers. They were Judy Ziolkowski, president; Clyde Henderson, vice president; Judy St. Clair, secretary; and Betsy Tolman, treasurer.

We held our second annual Christmas "Open House" this year under the excellent supervision of Mr. Dunn. And nearly everyone remembers our first and most successful prom—"April In Paris". Amid sidewalk cafes and pink and black streamers, we spent the evening in gay Paree. Many thanks to both Mr. Dunn and Mr. Lib Richello, who did so much for us.

In our sophomore year we chose Miss Doris Robinson, a newcomer to the faculty, as our class advisor. Elections this year brought in Judy Ziolkowski, president; Arvin Murch, vice president; Ann Lunding, secretary; and Betsy Tolman, treasurer, as our new class officers.

Blue and silver highlighted this year's Sophomore Prom, "Starlight Serenade". And how well we all remember the juniors and their class rings! Now graduation seemed just around the corner.

After returning from an enjoyable summer vacation, we finally got around to setting up our constitution in our junior class. And what a year! It was in this year that we held our "immortal" Derby Days. We all remember Mr. Rockwell's pep-talk which we received just before curtain time. Remember Joanne as the "man-in-the-moon" Jimmy's and Clyde's "I Want My Lollypop," and our "speak-easy" which was the scene of many memorial acts. This was also the year of the faculty play, "Speak-easy Love". For weeks we laughed at the thought of our teachers doing the Charleston and Blackbottom. In the spring was the memorable Junior-Senior Prom, "Unforgettable". The decorations and the evening were truly unforgettable.

Our class officers during this year were Arvin Murch, president; Judy Ziolkowski, vice president; Annette Pallatto, secretary; and Cathy Early, treasurer.

In the summer of '55, five of our classmates were sent to Nutmeg Boys' State and Laurel Girls' State. They were Severin Marsted, Joe DeAngelis, Arvin Murch, Judy St. Clair, and Martha Palmer. This year was memorable to most of us because of part-time jobs and many extra-curricular activities. On the whole, it was quite successful.

Our senior year not only proved to be a successful one but also a very busy one. One of the first big steps toward graduation was when Barbara Gilliland became editor and Gary Chace assistant editor of the Sachem. Right here was one of our biggest jobs; getting together a bigger and better Sachem. How every one worked—we never thought we'd meet the deadline!

Next came the senior play, "Our Hearts Were Young And Gay". Everyone really rushed for this one. Many thanks to Miss Robinson and Mrs. Burdick for their relentless "pushing" — without which we can be sure the play would have failed.

In the spring came our prom and all the worries of college boards, job applications, those ten-thousand word research papers, and last but not least, those terrible final exams.

Then graduation night and those butterflies as we walked up to receive our diplomas. How much that one piece of paper represented!

Yes, we were new, with no traditions behind us, but in a way we were fortunate for we had a hand in setting those traditions, which we hope will remain.

It certainly was an unforgettable evening.

CLASS PROPHECY

It is 1968 and it has taken Miss Robinson twelve years to get up enough courage to find out what happened to the class of '56.

She started in North Haven and found KATHY PIERCE first. Kathy, with her motto "If you can't beat them, join them," is working in Bohn's Drugstore.

MARGARET BALLETO and TOM MUZIO merged themselves and their farms; they are now raising the cutest little pumpkins you have ever seen.

The celebrated agriculturalists TED BROCKETT and TORD JOHNSON are announcing a new strain of cows, "Dairy Queens." You must watch for them — the cows with the curl on top.

Another famous farmer, HOWIE SMITH, has won the Pulitzer Prize with his book, "This is Fowl Business."

She was glad to find out that the Ibsen cousins, DICK and CLIFF, after many years of hard work, have finally finished their major project — a bridge over the school brook. In collaboration with them were ERNIE WIEDEMANN, slide rule genius, and FRED MANSFIELD, construction engineer.

ARTHUR KANE never left school: they needed an officer on the safety patrol.

BETTY HUBBARD writes for the North Haven News Review and has been voted North Haven's most civic-minded woman.

LENORA WETMORE is painting a mural at Choate — she hopes she never finishes.

BILL SILENGO, North Haven's favorite son, is keeping them in "good spirits."

JEANETTE KUNZA has her wish — she owns the Navy. Enlistments are up 50%. Such amorous gentlemen as DONALD GREENWALD, AL RANDALL, RALPH PRETE, BOB ZAHORNACKY, HAROLD HUEFFMAN, and PAT GIOVINE have "Joined the Navy to see Jeanette."

RUTH FROST resides in a Park Avenue mansion, with her own telephone booth installed in her living-room. Her husband, DICK, is the star of the radio show, "Young Doctor Gherlone."

GENE and NICK TEIXEIRA have manufactured a new "Zippo" car, complete with windows ground to their prescription and with a built in carrying case.

LINDA HUGHES is making millions as a hair dresser.

BARBARA WALTER has been seen on billboards all over New York. She is Miss Rheingold of 1968. Her chief competitor for the title was MARILYN CARRUTH.

CATHY EARLY, tired of taking orders, now is the head of a carrier pigeon company. AL BUONO and AL OHMES sell the pigeons with the slogan, "Early birds get there first."

BOB SHAW is conducting the Phil Spitalny All-Girl Orchestra. Instead of Evelyn and her violin, they have BETSY TOLMAN and her violin. They take their orders from the head of the Musician's Union, FRANK KASTANCUK.

MARILYN BUEHLER, eminent zoologist, has found GRANT CARRINGTON to be the missing link.

JACK KENNEDY is the suave owner of "The Stagger Inn." He employs the famous Italian singer, JEAN FORTINO, and the thrilling act of the snake charmer, FAITH MEDA.

RICHARD FITTING and HARRY ULLERUP, renowned chemists, have reached absolute zero. Their next problem is how to get back.

CHARLOTTE COSTELLO, famous linguist, who has a command of forty-two languages, is working in the United Nations' Security Council. Her secretary is STEVE BAKER, who has invented the Columbus system of typing — you find a key and land on it.

Foreign Legion sheik, ARVIN MURCH, is doing wonderful work in North Africa quelling rebel outbreaks.

BOB KING finally got into the Air Force. He is an assistant to the assistant window washer at Idlewild Airport. FRED BONITO, famed aeronautical engineer, has designed an airplane faster than the speed of gossip. His efforts have been to no avail, however, for ANNE LUNDING is his test pilot.

BOB PASCALE, clothing merchant, is making a fortune on vests designed by Monsieur J. DeANGELIS.

MARTHA PALMER can be seen on Broadway in "Annie Get Your Gun." The play has been running now for 112 weeks with Martha starring in the role which made her famous in North Haven High School.

The rising chemist, JOHN BOLIG, has invented instant garbage.

The famous orator, PAT MAURIELLO, has expounded mightily on her latest theory, "Married men make the best husbands."

The celebrated horse owners, IRMA HANSON and GEORGE JENSEN made the wedlines. They are making good use of the bridle path.

CAROL HUELSMAN and BARBARA GILLILAND are nurses at the "CAROL O'BRIEN Animal Hospital." Carol combs the rooster's tails and Barbara, master surgeon, sets broken legs on centipedes.

RONNIE and BARRY SMITH have newly grown beards, and now head the Smith Brothers' Bearded Cough Drop Company.

DON HURLEY, brilliant ornithologist, has discovered a new species of the "Bums Thrush" and the "Scarlet Teenager."

MAUREEN CROWLEY, first woman president, and her husband the first gentleman, JACK BENTON, have invited HANS OTT, railroad tycoon, LYNNE BROCKWAY, Secretary of the Interior, GAIL GOODRICH, Secretary of Health and Welfare, BILL TRAVERSE, the fellow who keeps the cabinet together, and HANK MYERS and RONNIE SPERZEL, Supreme Court Justices, to the White House for a conference.

ISABEL HAIR and SANDRA IANNONE own their own barbershop — "Hair Today, Gone Tomorrow."

The famous English novelist, ROSALIE GIANNINI, has finished her latest book, "Blood, Sweat, and Beers."

KENNY QUALLS has completed his third world tour with the Harlem Globe Trotters. He has thrilled millions with his unique under the leg shot.

MARY BIRDSALL, owner of Birdsall Land, has hired the tremendous CLEM MONTAGNA band. Clem plays sax, SANDRA SCHROETER, bass fiddle, TERRY PALMISANO, piccolo, and Windy WENDY CARSON, trombone. SUE ANNUNZIATA is their sultry songstress.

RAY TULL, eminent geologist, has found great deposits of silicon on RONNIE RICE'S Texas estate. At the moment, they owe fifty thousand dollars to BETSY WEGENER, head of the Bureau of Internal Revenue.

ELLA GIBSON now owns her own motorcycle company. ELLEN HUEFFMAN is her daring test driver.

DIANE DUMELIN and RUTH MANSFIELD are now at the South Pole, having followed their men every place in the world.

ARDATH DECKER and BILL ROBERTSON are on NUTS T.V., doing a dramatic show with that child prodigy, EUGENE TRANQUILLI, entitled "My Little Poopsie."

JANICE BOYCE and MARY ANDERSON are on the "Grunt and Groan Hour" at ten thirty Saturday nights, following that renowned comedy team of JIMMY DEVITO and CAROL COWLEY, who have pushed out "Burns and Allen."

The Lone Ranger has lost his place in the kiddies' hearts to the "Masked Rider," KENNY RIDER.

Secretary of State, the Honorable RICHARD ROCHFORD, has delivered an ultimatum to the Speaker of the House, JEAN HOLCOMB, either to stop cracking her chewing gum during his speeches or to be investigated by Senator DOROTHY DOCKNEVICH, leader of the Committee on Un-American Activities.

LORETTA HUSSMAN is broadcasting the football games from Yale Bowl and PEGGY FALCONE leads the band at the half. (free of charge!)

CLYDE HENDERSON and WALT CUMMINGS did very well for themselves—they are gym teachers at Smith College. RALPH BUEHLER teaches typing at Katherine Gibbs.

DOLORES JORDAN and DORIS PRESCOTT are Red Cross nurses in Tannatuya, Outer Mongolia. They are doing pioneer work among the natives curing "hoof and mouth disease."

Stylish JUDY ST. CLAIR is the head of the "Wiwear Clothes Modeling Company." PHIL RETZER models striped bow ties, BOB TIEDMAN Bermuda shorts, and JANICE DOMINQUE models gowns designed by FRANCES ROMAN.

LARRY SMITH, celebrated columnist, writes a column in the Daily Dirt. Last week Miss Robinson read some of his columns, which helped her find out what happened to the class.

BLAKE BIDWELL, playboy about town, has been seen in the company of the ravishing ANNETTE PALLATTO.

NANCY STEPHENS is now sports car enthusiast, PARKER BOYLAN'S favorite secredecarie.

Despite rumors of BRUCE BROWN'S death from past episodes, the famous stock car racer will try to get by the Sackett Point Road underpass for the sixth time.

The temperamental actress JOANNE TENEDINE has become a hermit in Reno, Nevada.

They are doing BOB DANIEL'S life in Hollywood. The picture is "Fat Will Always Show." Playing with Bob is STEVE CHICHESTER and co-starring with him are JUDY ZIOLKOWSKI and NANCY DUMELIN.

After three months FRED KOSSACK was finally contacted. Miss Robinson found him in the back of room 43. After twelve years, Mr. Anderson still can't find his own equipment.

The Drama Club, under the direction of Miss Porter and Mrs. Burdick, has successfully presented some excellent plays. Highlights of the season included the annual Nativity, and the spring production, a musical comedy, entitled Belle of the West, which was presented on April thirteenth and fourteenth.

In March the Drama Club participated in a one act play contest. Many high schools participated and upon the decision of the judges, two high schools entered, in a regional New England contest.

Another activity of the Drama Club was a trip to the University of Connecticut to see "Ghosts," a play by Ibsen.

BOOKSTORE

The Bookstore is the variety store and the information booth of North Haven High School. Here is where the students regain the possession of their lost articles and purchase school supplies, banners, pictures, bus tickets, models, and just about everything needed. Mr. William England is in charge of keeping everything in order.

Little does the student realize that were it not for the Library Club, our school library would not function as effectively as it does. Among the various jobs the members perform are arranging book shelves, checking books in and out of the library and keeping the books in Dewey-decimal order.

This year the club members have made a vertical file for future reference work. In addition, the club has made the library more than a place for reference and relaxation by decorating shelves, display cases and bulletin boards. This club is under the able leadership of Mrs. Bearse, the school librarian.

TWIRLERS

The Twirlers, under the direction of Barbara Ginter, their advisor, and Peggy Falcone, head majorette, have been doing a fine job. They made their debut at our last football game with the band.

Everyone enjoyed their fine performances at the Band Concert in February and the Spring Music Festival. They were a fine representation of North Haven High School at the Memorial Day parade. We all hope to see more of them at games and other activities in the coming years.

The school band consists of fifty members under the able direction of Mr. Alex Winsco. For the past two years the band has been endeavoring to purchase uniforms. Last year they succeeded in obtaining thirty-five, but because of increased membership, a new need arose this year. A Benefit Concert was held February 9, which helped them to obtain the necessary uniforms.

The Band plays at town exercises, school assemblies, football games and school activities. Since they have gotten uniforms, we look forward to their future appearances, especially at next year's football games.

DANCE BAND

Phelps, Mr. William Channon, Mr. William Clark, Becky Marks, Claude Buller. Absent: Henry Sargent.

A popular feature of the musical programs presented at the high school is the Dance Band, led by Mr. Winsco. The purpose of the band is to give certain students the opportunity to exercise and to develop talent, while they enjoy themselves and gain a deeper insight into music. It is composed of fifteen members, three of whom are gifted teachers. The students have shown much enthusiasm for the group's popular selections. The Dance Band meets once a week after school. The group occasionally appears on programs with the concert band.

STRING QUARTETTE

The String Quartette is composed of the school's more advanced string players. The quartette rehearses semi-popular selections and plays for assembly programs and community organizations. Their appearance at the Spring Music Festival this year was outstanding. The four members are Betsy Tolman, Mary Neri, Ann Sommers, and Mr. Alex Winsco. They are under the competent direction of Mr. Winsco.

HILLBILLY GROUP

Newly organized, the Hillbilly Group made its first major appearance at the Benefit Concert in February. The five members of this group under the direction of Mr. Alex Winsco add much color to the musical programs presented at the high school. Hillbilly Songs and folk music are this group's specialty. The members are Ronnie Rice, Joyce Hanson, Peter Gibbons, John Cacioli, Mr. Alex Winsco.

The high school chorus is directed by Mr. Frank Hauser. The purpose of the chorus is to develop talent and interest in music. This year the chorus has sung in the Nativity, school assemblies, and the Spring Festival. They also have participated in a musical comedy presented by the Drama Club.

This group was the first to learn the school's new Alma Mater, and they in turn taught it to the senior class and student body.

For the first time in the school's history, five members of the chorus went to the All-State Festival in Hartford on October twenty-seventh. The two boys who went from our school were selected to sing in a small group for one of the numbers.

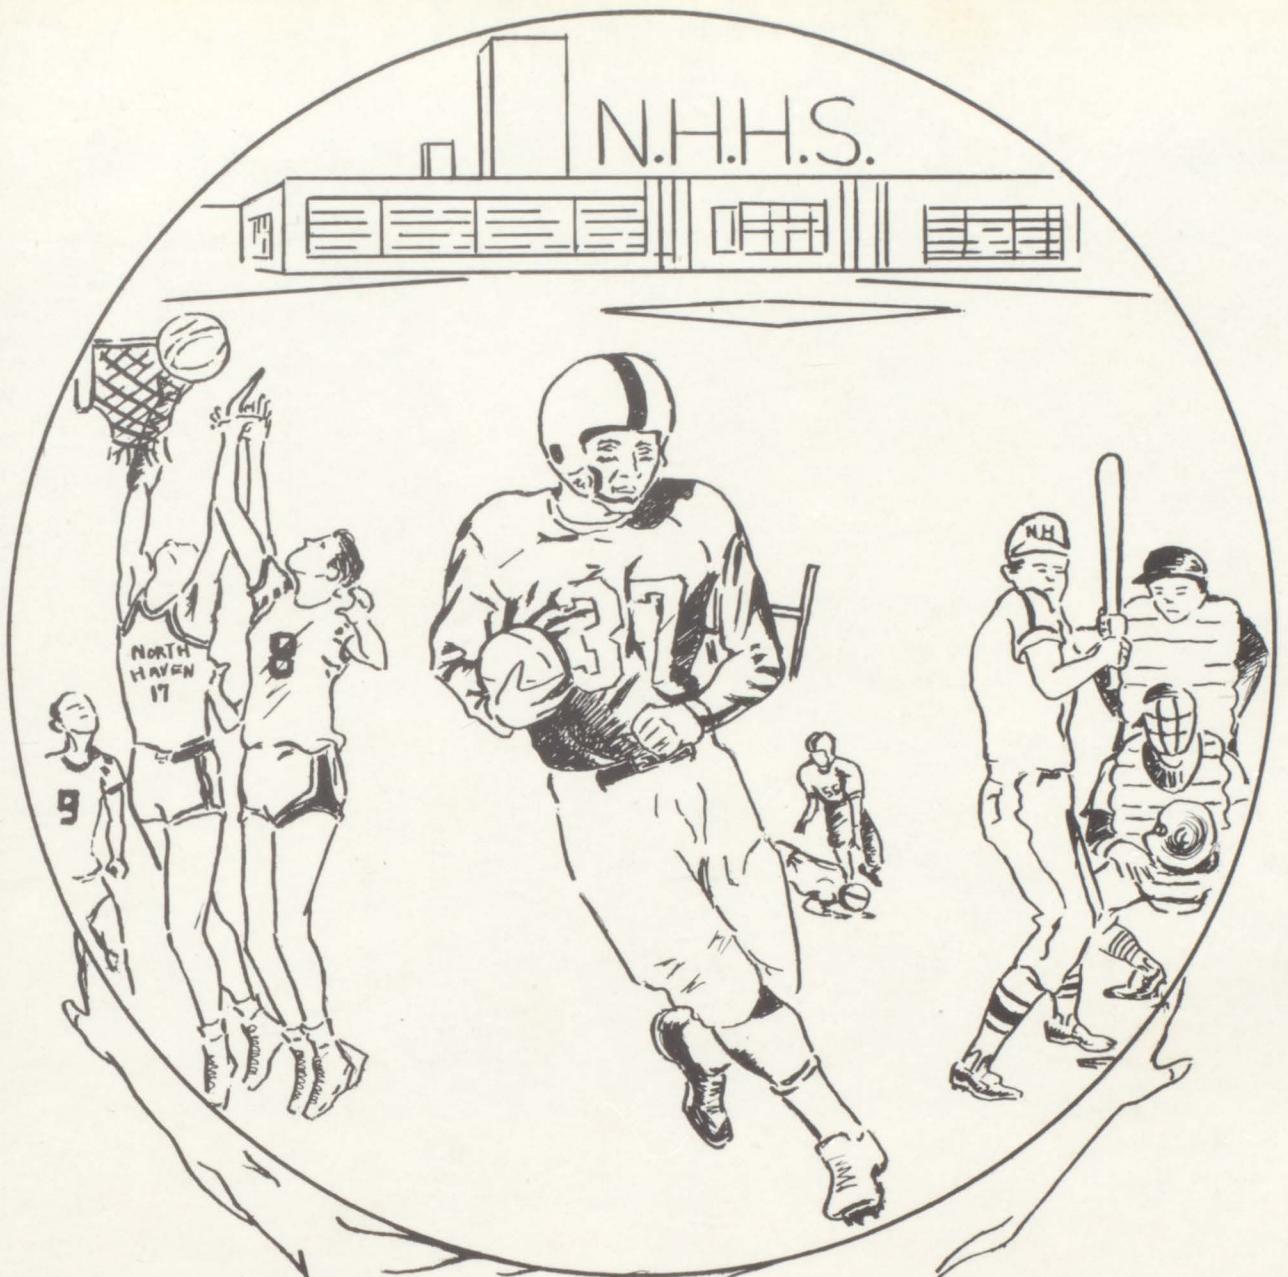

SPRING MUSIC FESTIVAL

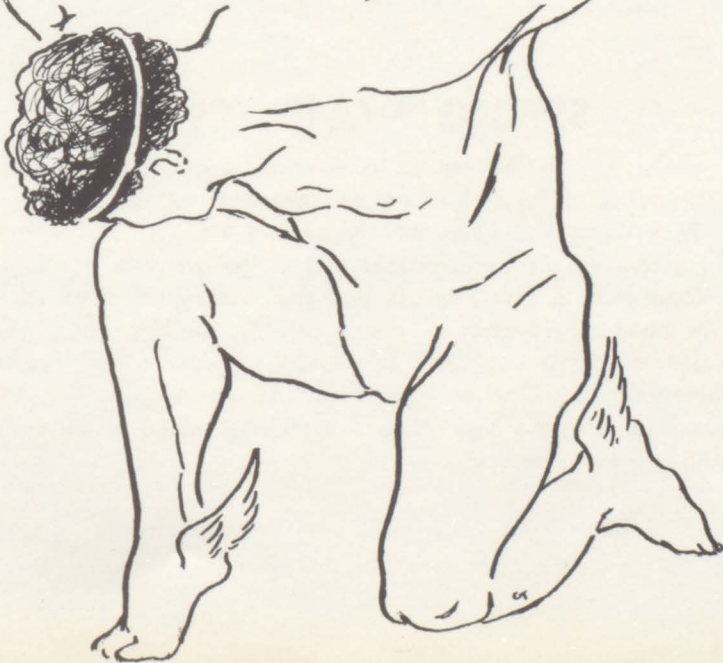

The Music Festival is an annual event taking place in the spring and featuring the musical groups of the high school and grammar schools. The choral and instrumental groups successfully make this the musical highlight of the school year. The presentation of the high school follows that of the grammar school.

The Music Festival took place in May and featured the high school bands and chorus. The band played many selections, although the highlight of the evening was an arrangement of "Sérento" featuring Charlie Phelps on the trumpet. The chorus sang selections from the "Student Prince."

Fancy twirling by the high school twirlers also added to the making of a very enjoyable evening for everyone.
